America's First Network TV Censor Robert Pondillo,2010-04-23 America s First Network TV Censor The Work of NBC s Stockton Helffrich is a unique examination of early television censorship centered around the papers of Stockton Helffrich

the first manager of the censorship department at NBC Set against the backdrop of postwar America and contextualized by myriad primary sources including original interviews and unpublished material Helffrich's reports illustrate how early censorship of advertising language and depictions of sex violence and race shaped the new medium While other books have cited Helffrich's reports none have considered them as a body of work complemented by the details of Helffrich's life and the era in which he lived America's First Network TV Censor explores the ways in which Helffrich's personal history and social class influenced his perception of his role as NBC TV censor and his tendency to ignore certain political and cultural taboos while embracing others Author Robert Pondillo considers Helffrich's life in broadcasting before and after the Second World War and his censorial work in the context of 1950s American culture and emerging network television Pondillo discusses the ways that cultural phenomena including the arrival of the mid twentieth century religious boom McCarthyism the dawn of the Civil Rights era and the social upheaval over sex music and youth contributed to a general sense that the country was morally adrift and ripe for communist takeover Five often censored subjects advertising language and depictions of sex violence and race are explored in detail exposing the surprising complexity and nuance of early media censorship Questions of whether too many sadistic westerns would coarsen America's children how to talk about homosexuality without using the word homosexuality and how best to advertise toilet paper without offending people were on Helffrich's mind his answers to these questions helped shape the broadcast media we know today Diego Rivera's America James Oles,2022-07-19

Diego Rivera's America revisits a historical moment when the famed muralist and painter more than any other artist of his time helped forge Mexican national identity in visual terms and imagined a shared American future in which unity rather than division was paramount This volume accompanies a major exhibition highlighting Diego Rivera's work in Mexico and the United States from the early 1920s through the mid 1940s During this time in his prolific career Rivera created a new vision for the Americas on both national and continental levels informed by his time in both countries Rivera's murals in Mexico and the U S serve as points of departure for a critical and contemporary understanding of one of the most aesthetically socially and politically ambitious artists of the twentieth century Works featured include the greatest number of paintings and drawings from this period reunited since the artist's lifetime presented alongside fresco panels and mural sketches This catalogue serves as a guide to two crucial decades in Rivera's career illuminating his most important themes from traditional markets to modern industry and devoting attention to iconic paintings as well as works that will be new even to scholars revealing fresh insights into his artistic process Published by the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art in association with University of California Press Exhibition dates San Francisco Museum of Modern Art July 16 2022 January 1 2023 Crystal Bridges Museum of American Art Bentonville Arkansas March 11 July 31 2023 The New York Times Book Reviews 2000 New York Times Staff,2001 This anthology examines Love's Labours Lost from a variety of perspectives and through a wide range of materials Selections discuss the play in terms of historical context dating and sources character analysis comic
