I don't want to be alone, I want to be left alone.

Deferred, a Joy Achieved Charisse Nesbit,2007-12-04 A Dream Deferred a Joy Achieved is a positive look at the foster care system through stories of its survivors who show there is hope for the future even in a system often identified by abuse and neglect With a unique perspective this collection of inspiring stories is a testament to the fighting spirit of former foster children and an inspiration to others currently in the same situation to emerge from the system as successful productive members of society The stories are true to life sometimes painful yet full of hope revealing those who have graduated and gone on to make the most of their lives in spite of their challenging beginnings The stories within A Dream Deferred a Joy Achieved teach the important lesson that one should never give up even if circumstances aren't the brightest and opportunity isn't immediately present Those dreams will still be there in the future and it is up to the foster children to make the best of their current situations My Paranormal Diaries , The Haunted Baronet Joseph Sheridan Le Fanu,2015-10-17 The pretty little town of Golden Friars standing by the margin of the lake hemmed round by an amphitheatre of purple mountain rich in tint and furrowed by ravines high in air when the tall gables and narrow windows of its ancient graystone houses and the tower of the old church from which every evening the curfew still rings show like silver in the moonbeams and the black elms that stand round throw moveless shadows upon the short level grass is one of the most singular and beautiful sights I have ever seen There it rises as from the stroke of the enchanter's wand looking so light and filmy that you could scarcely believe it more than a picture reflected on the thin mist of night On such a still summer night the moon shone splendidly upon the front of the George and Dragon the comfortable graystone inn of Golden Friars with the grandest specimen of the old inn sign perhaps left in England It looks right across the lake the road that skirts its margin running by the steps of the hall door opposite to which at the other side of the road between two great posts and framed in a fanciful wrought iron border splendid with gilding swings the famous sign of St George and the Dragon gorgeous with colour and gold In the great room of the George and Dragon three or four of the old habitués of that cozy lounge were refreshing a little after the fatigues of the day This is a comfortable chamber with an oak wainscot and whenever in summer months the air is sharp enough as on the present occasion a fire helped to light it up which fire being chiefly wood made a pleasant broad flicker on panel and ceiling and yet did not make the room too hot King John.
