Dreams Underfoot:

Dreams Underfoot Charles de Lint, 2003-08-02 Newford's citizens: fey folk, magicians, hustlers, painters, fiddlers, and ordinary people stumble headfirst into enchanting adventures Dreams Underfoot [electronic Resource] De Lint, Charles, 2000* Dreams Underfoot Charles De Lint, 2017 I have spread my dreams under your feet tread softly for you tread upon my dreams So said Irish poet William Butler Yeats and so Charles de Lint has done He has spread before us the wondrous fabric of his dreams in this tour de force of modern urban fantasy De Lint today's leading writer of urban magical tales has created the imaginary city of Newford and peopled its streets its music clubs and back alleys with characters both dark and bright both human and inhuman both frightening and wondrous fair Jilly paints magic in rough city streets Geordie plays fiddle and longs for a ghost Christy collects urban folklore and myths while the angel of Grasso Street gathers the young and the scared and the poor and the lost The gemmin live in abandoned cars the skells traverse the tunnels below mermaids swim in the grey harbor waters and fill the cold nights with their song Here Be Dragons Stefan Ekman, Stefan Ekman, 2013-02-19 First in depth study of the use of landscape in fantasy literature Winner of the Mythopoeic Scholarship Award for Myth and Fantasy Studies 2016 Fantasy worlds are never mere backdrops They are an integral part of the work and refuse to remain separate from other elements These worlds combine landscape with narrative logic by incorporating alternative rules about cause and effect or physical transformation They become actors in the drama interacting with the characters offering assistance or hindrance and making ethical demands In Here Be Dragons Stefan Ekman provides a wide ranging survey of the ubiquitous fantasy map as the point of departure for an in depth discussion of what such maps can tell us about what is important in the fictional worlds and the stories that take place there With particular focus on J R R Tolkien's The Lord of the Rings Ekman shows how fantasy settings deserve serious attention from both readers and critics Includes insightful readings of works by Steven Brust Garth Nix Robert Holdstock Terry Pratchett Charles de Lint China Miéville Patricia McKillip Tim Powers Lisa Goldstein Steven R Donaldson Robert Jordan and Neil Gaiman and Charles Vess Short Story Index, 1994 Urban Fantasy Stefan Ekman, 2024-08-13 The first book length historical and theoretical analysis of the urban fantasy genre In the Flesh Clive Barker, 2001-02 Terrifying and forbidding subversive and insightful Clive Barker's groundbreaking stories revolutionized the worlds of horrific and fantastical fiction and established Barker's dominance over the otherworldly and the all too real Here as two businessmen encounter beautiful and seductive women and an earnest young woman researches a city slum Barker maps the boundless vistas of the unfettered imagination only to uncover a profound sense of terror and overwhelming dread Forests of the Heart Charles de Lint, 2001-08-11 In the Old Country they called them the Gentry ancient spirits of the land magical amoral and dangerous When the Irish emigrated to North America some of the Gentry followed only to find that the New World already had spirits of its own called manitou and other such names by the Native tribes Now generations have passed and the Irish have made homes in the new land but the

Gentry still wander homeless on the city streets Gathering in the city shadows they bide their time and dream of power As their dreams grow harder darker fiercer so do the Gentry themselves appearing to those with the sight to see them as hard and dangerous men invariably dressed in black Bettina can see the Gentry and knows them for what they are Part Indian part Mexican she was raised by her grandmother to understand the spirit world Now she lives in Kellygnow a massive old house run as an arts colony on the outskirts of Newford a world away from the Southwestern desert of her youth Outsider her nighttime window she often spies the dark men squatting in the snow smoking brooding waiting She calls them los lobos the wolves and stays clear of them until the night one follows her to the woods and takes her hand Ellie an independent young sculptor is another with magic in her blood but she refuses to believe it even though she too sees the dark men A strange old woman has summoned Ellie to Kellygnow to create a mask for her based on an ancient Celtic artifact It is the mask of the mythic Summer King another thing Ellie does not believe in Yet lack of belief won't dim the power of the mask or its dreadful intent Donal Ellie's former lover comes from an Irish family and knows the truth at the heart of the old myths He thinks he can use the mask and the hard men for his own purposes And Donal's sister Miki a punk accordion player stands on the other side of the Gentry's battle with the Native spirits of the land She knows that more than her brother's soul is at stake All of Newford is threatened human and mythic beings alike Once again Charles de Lint weaves the mythic traditions of many cultures into a seamless cloth bringing folklore music and unforgettable characters to life on modern city streets At the Publisher's request this title is being sold without Digital Rights Management Software DRM applied

Hodgkin,2025-10-01 First published in 1985 Playing and Exploring draws on many disciplines in order to formulate a new way of thinking about the nature and power of education As so often with creative thinkers Robin Hodgkin s work is at once subversive and conservative He is radical in insisting on the overriding need to question and subvert the external examination systems that now cripple education and to raise standards by other means conservative in asserting with Polanyi that an individual s or a group s enterprise draws on a living tradition The book s most important contribution is to our understanding of the educational needs of young adults of the need for adventure and commitment The author develops a theoretical model that begins with the infant exploring its play space He argues that the learner is an active frontier exploring agent so too must be any effective teacher Robin Hodgkin brings forward important new evidence from neuropsychology to show why doing is so important in teaching and learning His argument that both visual and linguistic competence must cooperate actively in the learning process raises a fundamental question about the part television plays in our culture In this as in his earlier books his work is concerned with the real priorities in education with demonstrating that first hand feelings of friendship of wonder and of danger should be part of the education of all people especially adolescents and that our greatest and certainly most expensive failure is to deny the experience of educational success to so many children What Do I Read Next? 1995 Barron,Steven A.
