Yet in the helping professions whose shared objective is to promote human well being questions of spirituality have often been avoided Now we are increasingly realising that scientific materialism and individuality have failed to meet enduring human needs for meaning and connection Evidence mounts for the importance of spirituality for prevention and intervention in times of crisis distress and illness Many professionals find themselves ill prepared to respond to the spiritual needs of their clients and to negotiate encounters with people from unfamiliar faith traditions Spirited Practices shows how it is possible for professionals to think critically and be open to spirituality at the same time Professionals and teachers from diverse faiths and fields of work including social work health psychology and ministry explain how they have integrated spirituality into their work Spirited Practices is inspiring reading for anyone in the helping professions seeking to develop a spiritually aware practice. It invites us to look honestly at ourselves and our own practices through learning about those from other professional and faith backgrounds. Richard Hugman, Professor of Social Work, University of NSW, A much needed forum for practitioners from diverse professional and spiritual backgrounds to address the challenges and rewards of spiritually sensitive practice. Leola Dyrud Furman, Associate Professor Emeritus of Social Work, University of North Dakota.

Cultural Law James A. R. Nafziger, Robert Kirkwood Paterson, Alison Dundes Renteln, 2010-11-01. Cultural law is a new and exciting field of study and practice. The core themes of linguistic and other cultural rights, cultural heritage, traditional crafts and knowledge, the performing arts, sports and religion are of fundamental importance to people around the world, engaging them at the grass roots and often commanding their daily attention. The related legal processes are both significant and complex. This unique collection of materials and commentary on cultural law covers a broad range of themes. Opening chapters explore critical issues involving cultural activities, artifacts and status as well as the fundamental concepts of culture and law. Subsequent chapters examine the dynamic interplay of law and culture with respect to each of the core themes. The materials demonstrate the reality and efficacy of comparative international and indigenous law and legal practices in the dynamic context of culture-related issues. Throughout the book, these issues are presented at multiple levels of legal authority: international, national and subnational.
