Dresden A City Reborn:

Dresden Alan Russell, Anthony Clayton, 2013-05-04 On 13 February 1945 Dresden one of the most beautiful and historic cities of Europe was destroyed by British and American air raids This book is the first comprehensive history in the English language of this important cultural and historical centre The book traces the city's evolution from 1206 to its great baroque period under Augustus the Strong and from the bombing to the present day The story of Dresden supplies the reader with unique insights into the collapse of the old monarchic order the resistance of citizens to the Nazi regime as well as the reaction of the Church and the rise and fall of the GDR It describes the post war replanning of the city from its ideological reshaping under Communism to the liberation of ideas and energies after the fall of the Berlin Wall Experts in their fields tell the story of Dresden's great musical artistic architectural literary and theatrical traditions which are further illuminated by a series of personal memoirs from eye witness accounts in 1945 to contemporary reflections by Lord Menuhin and others Heavily illustrated and complete with a foreword from the Duke of Kent Dresden A City Reborn is an important text for all students of German history and art history

Memory and Architecture Eleni Bastéa, 2004 An international study of cultural relationships with built environments

Bradt City Guide Dresden Tim Burford, 2007 A compact guide to help travelers discover an alternative and attractive European city home of fabulous architecture and wonderful art treasures

The Blitz and its Legacy Peter J. Larkham, 2016-12-05 Triggered in part by contemporary experiences in the Balkans the Middle East and elsewhere there has been a rise in interest in the blitz and the subsequent reconstruction of cities especially as many of the buildings and areas rebuilt after the Second World War are now facing demolition and reconstruction in their turn Drawing together leading scholars and new researchers from across the fields of planning history architecture and geography this volume presents an historical and cultural commentary on the immediate and longer term impacts of wartime destruction The book's contents in 14 chapters cover the spread of themes from experiencing the war to reconstruction and its experiences and although many chapters draw upon the UK experience there is deliberate inclusion of some material from mainland Europe and Japan to emphasise that the experiences processes and products are not London specific A comparative book tracing destruction to reconstruction is a relative rarity and yet of the utmost importance in possessing wider relevance to post disaster reconstructions The Blitz and Its Legacy is a fascinating volume which includes war experiences of destruction architecture urban design the political process of planning and reconstruction and also popular perceptions of rebuilding Its findings provide very timely lessons which highlight the value of learning from historical precedent

Genocide, War Crimes and the West Doctor Adam

Jones,2013-07-04 Genocide and war crimes are increasingly the focus of scholarly and activist attention Much controversy exists over how precisely these grim phenomena should be defined and conceptualized Genocide War Crimes in most cases their contributions are specifically written for this volume In the opening and closing sections of the book analytical issues are considered including questions of responsibility for genocide and war crimes and institutional responses at both the domestic and international levels The central section is devoted to an unprecedentedly broad range of original case studies of western involvement or alleged involvement in war crimes and genocide At a moment in history when terrorism has become a near universal focus of public attention this volume makes clear why the West as a result of both its historical legacy and contemporary actions so often excites widespread resentment and opposition throughout the rest of the world

The Legacy: A Memoir Jean Barr,2022-11-28 Jean Barr opens the antique chest she inherited from her great great uncle Alexander and unravels the strands of his life as an evangelical Presbyterian minister in late nineteenth century Italy unpacking the cover ups in Britain s history of Empire

The Dresden Firebombing Tony Joel,2020-04-30 The firebombing of Dresden marks the terrible apex of the European bombing war In just over two days in February 1945 over 1 300 heavy bombers from the RAF and the USAAF dropped nearly 4 000 tonnes of explosives on Dresden s civilian centre Since the end of World War II both the death toll and the motivation for the attack have become fierce historical battlegrounds as German feelings of victimhood complete with those of guilt and loss The Dresden bombing was used by East Germany as a propaganda tool and has been re appropriated by the neo Nazi far right Meanwhile the rebuilding of the Frauenkirche the city s sumptuous eighteenth century church destroyed in the raid became central to German identity while in London a statue of the Commander in Chief of RAF Bomber Command Sir Arthur Harris has attracted protests In this book Tony Joel focuses on the historical battle to re appropriate Dresden and on how World War II continues to shape British and German identity today The Heritage of War Martin Gegner, Bart Ziino, 2011-08-16 The Heritage of War is an interdisciplinary study of the ways in which heritage is mobilized in remembering war and in reconstructing landscapes political systems and identities after conflict It examines the deeply contested nature of war heritage in a series of places and contexts highlighting the modes by which governments communities and individuals claim validity for their own experiences of war and the meanings they attach to them From colonizing violence in South America to the United States Civil War the Second World War on three continents genocide in Rwanda and continuing divisions in Europe and the Middle East these studies bring us closer to the very processes of heritage production The Heritage of War uncovers the histories of heritage it charts the constant social and political construction of heritage sites over time by a series of different agents and explores the continuous reworking of meaning into the present What are the forces of contingency agency and political power that produce define and sustain the heritage of war How do particular versions of the past and particular identities gain legitimacy while others are marginalised In this book contributors explore the active work by which heritage is produced and reproduced in a series of case studies of memorialization battlefield preservation tourism development private remembering and urban reconstruction These are the acts of making sense of war they are acts that continue long after violent conflict itself has ended

Loving the Enemy - building bridges in a time of war Andrew March, 2021-11-06 Loving the Enemy tells the compelling true story of Fred Clayton a grammar schoolboy from Liverpool and brilliant Cambridge scholar who leaves the comfort of the halls of Cambridge at the beginning of the Nazi era and makes a troubled journey to discover first hand what life must be like to live under the despotic regime Arriving in Dresden he develops a friendship with a German family that will change his life Through the course of the next decade with his and their nations at war Fred will not forget the connections that have been made and refuses to allow hate to win After the war with Dresden in ruins reflecting his own state of mind Fred writes to the same German family Will he find the healing love and redemption he seeks It is my hope that thanks to Andy s efforts the story will inspire you as much as it has inspired me and that it will find its place as a signpost even a landmark along the path of reconciliation trust and love which links Coventry and Dresden Britain and Germany Christopher Cocksworth Bishop of Coventry from the Foreword A wonderful story Family history and perseverance to do the right thing Found it hard to put it down Fabulously written This is a compelling well written biography with many attributes of a thriller that I couldn t put down I highly recommend it I absolutely loved this book It is a page turning true life story of two fascinating people Fred and Rike living through the tumultuous 1930s and 1940s It is a real human story and I came to love the key characters This story is truly compelling and beautifully written It is gritty honest and deeply moving giving new insights into both sides of the war Highly recommended

Bombing, States and Peoples in Western Europe 1940-1945 Claudia Baldoli, Andrew Knapp, Richard Overy, 2011-06-30 This is the first book to treat bombing during WWII as a European phenomenon and not just the Blitz on Britain and Germany With Western Europe now at the heart of a united continent it is even more difficult to explain how only 70 years ago European states destroyed much of the urban landscape from the air. There were many blitzes between 1940 and 1945 with an estimated 700 000 people killed. The purpose of this book is to provide the basis for a comparison of the experience of western states under the impact of bombing. In particular it considers the political, cultural and social responses to bombing rather than the military, strategic and social dimensions which have formed the core of the discussion hitherto. This book will correct the popular perception of the British Blitz as the key bombing experience by exposing the reality of life under the bombs for communities as far apart as Brest, Palermo and Rostock. An international panel of historians consider the issues raised amidst the bombing of human rights and protection of civilians in this seminal event in 20th history.

HRH The Duke of Kent Celia Lee, 2015-10-19 His Royal Highness Prince Edward The Duke of Kent KG GCMG GCVO ADC P first cousin to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II has devoted his life to the service of his country. Even before he served twenty one years as a regular soldier in the British Army he was introduced to this life of service by his widowed mother HRH Princess Marina The Duchess of Kent during an extensive tour of the Far East at the time of his seventeenth birthday. His interest in modern technology especially computing and engineering in issues of health, fitness and social welfare and in the development of the intellect has seen him become the patron, president or active member of more than one hundred charities and social organisations. His military service and deep interest in military history sees him making a particularly important contribution to many military related organisations the chief of which must be the Commonwealth War Graves Commission. At the time of his eightieth birthday on October 9 2015 Prince Edward remains one of the busiest members of the royal family. This book is offered as a tribute to his life of service and to the myriad organisations large and small local national and international that make up the fabric of the United Kingdom in the twenty first century.

The Selected Papers of Margaret Sanger, Volume 4 Margaret Sanger, 2016-10-01 When Margaret Sanger returned to Europe in 1920 World War I had altered the social landscape as dramatically as it had the map of Europe. Population concerns, sexuality, venereal disease and contraceptive use had entered public discussion and Sanger's birth control message found receptive audiences around the world. This volume focuses on Sanger from her groundbreaking overseas advocacy during the interwar years through her postwar role in creating the International Planned Parenthood Federation. The documents reconstruct Sanger's dramatic birth control advocacy tours through early 1920s Germany, Japan and China in the midst of significant government and religious opposition to her ideas. They also trace her tireless efforts to build a global movement through international conferences and tours. Letters, journal entries, writings and other records reveal Sanger's contentious dealings with other activists, her correspondence with the likes of Albert Einstein and Eleanor Roosevelt and Sanger's own dramatic evolution from gritty grassroots activist to postwar power broker and diplomat. A powerful documentary history of a transformative twentieth century figure, The Selected Papers of Margaret Sanger Volume 4 is a primer for the debates on individual choice, sex education and planned parenthood that remain all too pertinent in our own time Continental Capitals: Your Handbook to European Cities N.B. Singh, Embark on a captivating journey through Europe with Continental Capitals Your Handbook to European Cities This comprehensive guide invites you to explore the rich tapestry of diverse cultures histories and landmarks across the continent From the romantic streets of Paris to the historic charm of Prague each city is unveiled with vivid descriptions practical tips and fascinating insights Whether you re a seasoned traveler or a first time explorer this handbook is your passport to unlocking the secrets and wonders of Europe s most iconic capitals providing an immersive and enriching experience for every adventurer "Landscape Imagery, Politics, and Identity in a Divided Germany, 1968-1989 " Catherine Wilkins, 2017-07-05 Landscape Imagery Politics and Identity in a Divided Germany 1968 1989 explores the communicative relationship between German landscape painting and the viewing public that developed in the wake of the student revolutions of the late 1960s The book demonstrates that contrary to some historical thinking more similarities than differences characterized the sociopolitical concerns of East and West Germans during the late Cold War Era and that it was these shared issues that were reflected in the revival of the Romantic painting genre Catherine Wilkins focuses on recovering the agency of the individual artist and in revising historiography with sensitivity to narration from below Interdisciplinary in nature art historians can benefit from the study s analysis of images and artists not widely known outside of Germany Additionally the consolidation of statistics and data regarding German postwar cultural policy are relevant for political and cultural historians The author contributes to the ongoing multidisciplinary debates regarding Histoire Crois in arguing that a clear dichotomy between East Germany and West Germany did not exist but rather that the residents of both nations shared a concern over some of the same issues of the period and memory studies by using images as primary historical sources able to be employed in the recovery of potentially subversive memory and identity Issues related to gender relations environmentalism and spiritual belief are addressed by Wilkins with appeal for scholars working with those particular themes Poststructuralist and literary theorists as well can find arguments supporting an alternative means of writing history through artworks and private memories
