Dressed To Drill:

Dressed to Drill Kate Carlisle, 2023-05-02 Contractor Shannon Hammer's new project renovating an old church reveals some old sins when a body is found on the premises in the latest Fixer Upper Mystery from the New York Times author Kate Carlisle. While Shannon Hammer is thrilled to attend the premiere of the movie based on her boyfriend Mac's latest book, she can't wait to trade her killer heels for work boots and start her next renovation project in Lighthouse Cove, a quaint Victorian church that has seen better days. And will see them again as a museum if Shannon, her talented crew, and her sister Chloe have anything to say about it. But on the first day of demolition work comes to a screeching halt when they stumble on the body of a beautiful young woman in one of the chapels. Who killed the assistant art director? Suspects crawl out of the woodwork as fast as Shannon can restore it. The church is hiding a century of secrets from the days that smugglers wreaked havoc on the California coast. But it's a more recent secret that someone killed to protect Shannon and Mac will use every tool in their toolbox to nail down the truth before any more lives are sacrificed.

Official Gazette of the United States Patent Office United States Patent Office, 1959 Dictionary of Louisiana French Albert Valdman, Kevin J. Rottet, 2010. The Dictionary of Louisiana French (DLF) provides the richest inventory of French vocabulary in Louisiana and reflects precisely the speech of the period from 1930 to the present. This dictionary describes the current usage of French speaking peoples in the five broad regions of South Louisiana: the coastal marshes, the banks of the Mississippi River, the central area, the north, and the western prairie. Data were collected during interviews from at least five persons in each of twenty-four areas in these regions. In addition to the data collected from fieldwork, the dictionary contains material compiled from existing lexical inventories from texts published after 1930 and from archival recordings. The new authoritative resource, the DLF, not only contains the largest number of words and expressions but also provides the most complete information available for each entry. Entries include the word in the conventional French spelling, the pronunciation, including attested variants, the part of speech, classification, the English equivalent, and the word's use in common phrases. The DLF features a wealth of illustrative examples derived from fieldwork and textual sources and identification of the parish where the entry was collected or the source from which it was compiled. An English to Louisiana French index enables readers to find out how particular notions would be expressed in Louisiana.

Edspeak Diane Ravitch, 2007. Every profession has its own language. Education is no exception, and like other professions, the language of education is often incomprehensible to those outside the field. This book is the author's attempt to explain in everyday language the esoteric terms, expressions, and buzzwords used in U.S. education today. From preface.
