entangled times and spaces of these performances The authors review Carnival s performative aspects not merely as a calendrical festival but rather center attention on the relationship between carnival and everyday life and on how people negotiate their social spaces and possibilities in the context of modern power The book therefore seeks to highlight the knotted time spaces of power and to demonstrate the dynamic interplay between state spaces and people s spaces that are being weaved by carnival s interlocutors It demonstrates how Carnival and the Carnavalesque become analytic optics through which the relations of power in the social and political life of subjects who seek to tacitly or strategically vary their given identities can be productively engaged This book was originally published as a special issue of Social Identities Journal for the Study of Race Nation and Culture

Gender and the Boundaries of Dress in Contemporary Peru Blenda Femenías, 2010-01-01 Set in Arequipa during Peru s recent years of crisis this ethnography reveals how dress creates gendered bodies It explores why people wear clothes why people make art and why those things matter in a war torn land Blenda Femenías argues that women s clothes are key symbols of gender identity and resistance to racism Moving between metropolitan Arequipa and rural Caylloma Province the central characters are the Quechua and Spanish speaking maize farmers and alpaca herders of the Colca Valley Their identification as Indians whites and mestizos emerges through locally produced garments called bordados Because the artists who create these beautiful objects are also producers who carve an economic foothold family workshops are vital in a nation where jobs are as scarce as peace But ambiguity permeates all practices shaping bordados significance Femen as traces contemporary political and ritual applications not only Caylloma s long standing and violent ethnic conflicts to the historical importance of cloth since Inca times This is the only book about expressive culture in an Andean nation that centers on gender In this feminist contribution to ethnography based on twenty years experience with Peru including two years of intensive fieldwork Femen as reflects on the ways gender shapes relationships among subjects research and representation
