Effective Schooling for Pupils with Emotional and Behavioural Difficulties John Visser,2013-10-23 First Published in 1998 Increasing pressure and new demands on LEAs schools and their staff have led to an overall reduction in the number of special schools for children with EBD and a questioning of their place within the range of provision for these pupils Recent attention has also been drawn by HMCI to the number of these schools which have failed to pass the OFSTED inspection process This book is based on a national examination of special schools providing for pupils with EBD The authors identify factors associated with good practice and offer advice on how schools can become more effective in providing for the country's most troubled and challenging pupils They also highlight aspects of successful provision which can be applied in mainstream schools and pupil referral units Cool Cats Dress-Up Sticker Activity

Book Fran Newman D'Amico, 2022-07-13 Kids will have fun using dozens of colorful sticker outfits and accessories to get them ready to bake cupcakes spend a day at the beach play baseball and prepare for bed The Parent Survival Guide Theresa Kellam, 2011-02-14 When parents turn to the parenting self help section of their local bookstore they are looking for both practical guidance and a childrearing philosophy that resonates with them an approach they can relate to and be comfortable implementing in their own household In The Parent Survival Guide From Chaos to Harmony in Ten Weeks or Less Theresa Kellam presents a way to strengthen the relationship with the child that simultaneously promotes the parent's own emotional healing and wellness Grounded in a research supported therapeutic technique that uses structured play time as the catalyst for interpersonal connection and growth Kellam's model is subtle in its simplicity Through a series of guided exercises Kellam gives parents the skills they need to begin to set aside special playtimes with their children during which the most important part of the process is simply being there in a way that promotes healing growth and communication The beauty of this approach is that in only 30 minutes once a week the results can be seen in only a few weeks Features of the book include Parent Survival Tip at the start of each chapter Original cartoon illustrations bring text to life Short but insightful worksheet questions bring focus to the program The Parent Survival Guide is structured over a series of 10 chapters which can be read in conjunction with the 10 sessions of the CPRT workshops for those parents enrolled in a formal filial training program But the material in the book is designed to be read and implemented by anyone The author is not only a licensed psychologist and filial therapist but she has also gone through the program with her own son and continues to rely on its principles within her family Leading the Sustainable School Debra Massey, 2012-01-19 When Debra Massey took over as Head of Howe Dell it had a deficit budget falling numbers on roll poor SATs results and an ever delayed new school build Within a year the school was oversubscribed and attendance significantly improved and the pupils say it's down to the school's Education for Sustainable Development ESD curriculum In Leading the Sustainable School Debra explains how making leadership the right and responsibility of every stakeholder taking a few risks and using common sense can improve school attainment and enjoyment Each chapter begins with a case study illustrating a challenge or initiative followed by action points to apply to your own setting From developing a team of leaders to self evaluation tools this book offers practical advice on raising standards in an efficient and sustainable way The companion website for the book features training tools to use with staff and links to useful websites making this a complete package for current or aspiring leaders The Teenager with a Chameleon Soul Cindy McElroy, 2017-09-29 Meet Sadie MacPhearson She's seventeen and lives in a ritzy artsy beach

town called Mariposa Beach California Blond bootylicious and beautiful she s a main chick of the Pop Crowd the most flawless looking smartest trendiest richest fabulous group of party animals at Mariposa Beach High School She wants one thing to keep her secret but it s always lingering above her head When the administrators want to assess her for a learning disability she coats inhibitions and fears with alcohol which in turn causes serious damage in her life mostly her chameleon soul After struggling to blend in senior year Sadie finds herself without her dear grandmother with disgusted parents three hundred and sixty mandatory volunteer hours and AA meetings no driver s license or Jeep zero friends and cognitively low classes Feeling like success is not an option with her learning disability she sits behind building C next to an overweight military loving book nerd Jay Felix on the first day of senior year He pushes her to be her best self But even at her best can Sadie overcome her learning disability her struggles with alcohol and graduate from high school at the cutthroat Mariposa Beach High School or will the lure of the Pop Crowd take her down
