Drift Migrancy And Architecture:

Drifting - Architecture and Migrancy Stephen Cairns, 2003-11-27 This book is an exploration of the often complex and unorthodox modes of dwelling that are emerging precisely from within the ruins of the idea of place Ethno-Architecture and the Politics of Migration Mirjana Lozanovska, 2015-12-22 Ethno Architecture and the Politics of Migration explores the interface between migration and architecture Cities have been substantially affected by transnational migration but the physical manifestations of migration in architecture and its effect on streetscape neighbourhood and city have so far been understudied This contributed volume examines how migrants interact with adapt and construct new architecture Looking at the physical urban and cultural impact of these changes on a variety of sites the authors explore architecture as an identity category and investigate what buildings and places associated with migration tell us about central questions of belonging culture community and home in regions such as North America Australia and the UK An important contribution to debates on place identity and the transformation of places as a result of mobility and globalised economies in the 21st century

Housing and Dwelling Barbara Miller Lane, 2006-11 A collection of thought provoking essays on the changing face of domestic architecture over two centuries highlighting the wide range of source materials and theoretical perspectives available to scholars of architectural history Diasporic Agencies: Mapping the City Otherwise Nishat Awan, 2017-05-15 Diasporic Agencies addresses the neglected subject of how architecture and urban design can respond to the consequences of increasing migration Arguing that diasporic inhabitations can only be understood as the co production of space subjectivity and politics the book explores questions of difference belonging and movement in the city Through focusing on a series of examples it reveals how diasporas produce new types of spaces and develop new subjectivities in the contemporary European metropolis It explores the way in which geo politics affects individual lives and how national and regional borders inscribe themselves onto diasporic bodies The book claims that the multiple belongings of diasporic citizens half here and half there provoke a crisis in the standard modes of architectural representation that tend to homogenise and flatten experience Instead Diasporic Agencies makes a case for a non representational approach where the displacement of the diasporic subject and their consequent reterritorialisation of space are developed as modes of thinking and doing In parallel mapping otherwise is proposed as a tool for spatial practitioners to work with these multi layered spaces The book is aimed at spatial practitioners and theorists of all sorts architects artists geographers urban designers anyone with a general interest in mapping or those interested in working through issues related to migration and the contemporary city The Routledge International Handbook of Transnational Studies Margit Fauser, Xóchitl Bada, 2024-01-23 The Routledge International Handbook of Transnational Studies offers a comprehensive overview of the dynamic evolution and the most recent debates in this interdisciplinary field The collection assembles scholarship from the social sciences and the humanities that share a critical perspective extending beyond the nation state The contributions investigate sustained connections events and activities across state borders and acknowledge prevailing global power asymmetries The handbook examines the dynamics of transnational processes across seven main themes epistemological and methodological principles transnational migrant practices and family remittances mobilities and self identities social protection organizations and social movements culture religion and the arts and architecture and urban planning The contributors engage with theoretical developments and analyze empirical cases involving a wide array of critical contemporary topics such as expatriate voting first and second generation return migration state sponsored cross border marriages access to health care transnational social work global religious aesthetics transnational art corridors literary translation remittance financed architecture and transnational processes of real estate development and gentrification among others They display a series of cross cutting approaches including postcolonial theory racism and gender and a focus on agency state policies and macro structures and transnational inequalities This book features multidisciplinary scholars in transnational studies from Australia Belgium Canada Finland Germany Italy Malaysia Mexico the Philippines Poland Spain Sweden the United Kingdom and the United States This handbook will be of interest to scholars interested in global and transnational perspectives across a wide range of disciplines It will serve as a key resource for academics students and other interested audiences seeking to familiarize themselves with the study of contemporary issues that cross state borders

Doppelgänger Dilemmas Marjorie Rubright, 2014-11-05 The Dutch were culturally ubiquitous in England during the early modern period and constituted London's largest alien population in the second half of the sixteenth century While many sought temporary refuge from Spanish oppression in the Low Countries others became part of a Dutch diaspora developing their commercial spiritual and domestic lives in England The category Dutch catalyzed questions about English self definition that were engendered less by large scale cultural distinctions than by uncanny similarities Doppelgänger Dilemmas uncovers the ways England's real and imagined proximities with the Dutch played a crucial role in the making of English ethnicity Marjorie Rubright explores the tensions of Anglo Dutch relations that emerged in the form of puns double entendres cognates homophones copies palimpsests doppelgängers and other doublings of character and kind Through readings of London's stage plays and civic pageantry English and Continental polyglot and bilingual dictionaries and grammars and travel accounts of Anglo Dutch rivalries and friendships in the Spice Islands Rubright reveals how representations of Dutchness played a vital role in shaping Englishness in virtually every aspect of early modern social life Her innovative book sheds new light on the literary and historical forces of similitude in an era that was so often preoccupied with ethnic and cultural difference

Architecture's Theory Catherine Ingraham, 2023-04-18 A collection of illuminating essays exploring what theory makes of architecture and what architecture makes of theory in philosophical and materialized contexts From poststructuralism and deconstruction to current theories of technology and nature critical theory has long been closely aligned with architecture In turn architecture as a thinking profession materializes theory in the form of built work that always carries symbolic loads In this collection of essays

Catherine Ingraham studies the complex connectivity between architecture's discipline and practice and theories of philosophy art literature history and politics She argues that there can be no architecture without theory Whether considering architecture's relationship to biomodernity or exploring the ways in which contemporary artists and designers engage in figural play Ingraham offers provocative interpretations that enhance our understanding of both critical theory and architectural practice today Along the way she engages with a wide range of contemporary theorists including Giorgio Agamben Judith Butler Jacques Derrida Graham Harman and Timothy Morton considering buildings around the world including the Palace of Culture in Warsaw the Viceroy's House complex in New Delhi Mack Scogin and Merrill Elam's Wolfsburg Science Center project in Germany and the Superdome in New Orleans Approaching its subject matter from multiple angles Architecture's Theory shows how architecture's theoretical and artifactual practices have a unique power to alter culture
