Drinking The Rain A Memoir:

Drinking the Rain Alix Kates Shulman, 1995 At 50 Alix Shulman left a life dense with political activism family and literary community and went to live alone on an island off the coast of Maine Without plumbing power or a telephone and foraging for wild greens and shellfish she faced challenges that helped redefine her notions of independence and courage confidence and creativity

The Feminist Memoir Project Rachel Blau DuPlessis, Ann Barr Snitow, 2007 The women of The Feminist Memoir Project give voice to the spirit the drive and the claims of the Women s Liberation Movement they helped shape beginning in the late 1960s These thirty two writers were among the thousands to jump start feminism in the late twentieth century Here in pieces that are passionate personal critical and witty they describe what it felt like to make history to live through and contribute to the massive social movement that transformed the nation What made these particular women rebel And what experiences ideas feelings and beliefs shaped their activism How did they maintain the will and energy to keep such a struggle going for so long and continuing still

Memoirs and responses by Kate Millett Vivian Gornick Michele Wallace Alix Kates Shulman Joan Nestle Jo Freeman Yvonne Rainer Barbara Smith Ellen Willis Eve Ensler Shirley Geok lin Lim Roxanne Dunbar Naomi Weisstein Alice Wolfson and many more embody the excitement that fueled the movement and the conflicts that threatened it from within Their stories trace the ways the world has changed

Dictionary of Midwestern Literature, Volume 1 Philip A. Greasley, 2001-05-30 The Dictionary of Midwestern Literature Volume One surveys the lives and writings of nearly 400 Midwestern authors and identifies some of the most important criticism of their writings The Dictionary is based on the belief that the literature of any region simultaneously captures the experience and influences the worldview of its people reflecting as well as shaping the evolving sense of individual and collective identity meaning and values Volume One presents individual lives and literary orientations and offers a broad survey of the Midwestern experience as expressed by its many diverse peoples over time Philip A Greasley s introduction fills in background information and describes the philosophy focus methodology content and layout of entries as well as criteria for their inclusion An extended lead essay The Origins and Development of the Literature of the Midwest by David D Anderson provides a historical cultural and literary context in which the lives and writings of individual authors can be considered This volume is the first of an ambitious three volume series sponsored by the Society for the Study of Midwestern Literature and created by its members Volume Two will provide similar coverage of non author entries such as sites centers movements influences themes and genres Volume Three will be a literary history of the Midwest One goal of the series is to build understanding of the nature importance and influence of Midwestern writers and literature Another is to provide information on writers from the early years of the Midwestern experience as well as those now emerging who are typically absent from existing reference works

Out of Time Lynne Segal, Elaine Showalter, 2014-07-01 A brave book with a polemical argument on the paradoxes struggles and advantages of aging How old am I Don t ask don t tell As the baby boomers approach their sixth or seventh decade they are faced with new challenges and questions of politics and identity In the footsteps of Simone de Beauvoir Out of Time looks at many of the issues facing the aged the war of the generations and baby boomer bashing the politics of desire the diminished situation of the older woman the space on the left for the presence and resistance of the old the problems of dealing with loss and mortality and how to find victory in survival Repossessing the World Helen M. Buss,2006-01-01

Why does it seem as if everyone is writing memoirs and particularly women The current popularity of memoir verifies the common belief that we each have a story to tell And we do especially women Memoirs are not only representations of women s personal lives but also of their desire to repossess important parts of our culture in which women s stories have not mattered Beginning with her own motivations for writing memoirs Helen M Buss examines the many kinds of memoir written by contemporary women memoirs about growing up memoirs about traumatic events about relationships about work In writing memoirs these women publicly assert that their lives have mattered They reshape the memoir a form as old as the middle ages and as young as today into a social discourse that blends the personal with the political the self with the significant other literature with history and fiction with autobiography and essay Buss urges readers to use their reading experience to help themselves understand and write the significance of their own lives Repossessing the World is the first book length critical inquiry into women s use of a form that has often been dismissed as less important than autobiography less professional than the novel and less intellectual than the formal essay Buss demonstrates that the memoir makes its own art not only through selective borrowing from these genres but also through the unique way that the tripartite narrative voice of the memoir constructs the personal and public experience of the memorist as significant to our cultural moment

Good Roots Lisa Watts,2007 By prominent writers such as P J O Rourke Susan Orlean and Alix Kates Shulman these contributions are alternately nostalgic irreverent and sincere and offer us a personal sense of place The Works of ...
