Driving The Tiger Irish Enterprise Spir:

Driving the Tiger John J. Travers, 2001 The economy of Ireland has out performed every other economy in Europe Many factors have contributed to this success but none more than the extraordinary spirit of enterprise that has been unleashed among a new generation of Irish men and women This title features conversations from fifteen of these fresh entrepreneurs

The end of Irish history? Colin Coulter, Steve Coleman, 2018-07-30 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license Ireland appears to be in the process of a remarkable social change a process which has dramatically reversed a hitherto seemingly unstoppable economic decline This exciting new book systematically scrutinises the interpretations and prescriptions that inform the Celtic Tiger Takes the standpoint that a more critical approach to the course of development being followed by the Republic is urgently required Sets out to expose the fallacies that drive the fashionable rhetoric of Tigerhood An esteemed list of contributors deal with issues such as immigration the role of women globalisation and changing economic and social conditions Green & Gold: Ireland as a Clean Energy World Leader John Travers, 2010-08-14 While many agree Ireland can become a world leader in clean energy there s little agreement on how John Travers captures the challenge from an Irish perspective He assesses in clear terms practical energy alternatives to meet all our needs achieve energy independence and provide an opportunity for Ireland to be a world leader and global beacon of clean energy Fortnight , 2001 Dresses and Messages Elizabeth Locke

Venable, 2008 Books Ireland , 2001 Form, Affect and Debt in Post-Celtic Tiger Irish Fiction Eoin Flannery, 2022-04-21 Based on readings of some of the leading literary voices in contemporary Irish writing this book explores how these authors have engaged with the events of Ireland s recent economic boom and the demise of the Celtic Tiger period and how they have portrayed the widespread and contrasting aftermaths Drawing upon economic literary criticism affect theory in relation to shame and guilt and the philosophy of debt this book offers an entirely original suit of perspectives on both established and emerging authors Through analyses of the work of writers including Donal Ryan Anne Haverty Claire Kilroy Dermot Bolger Deirdre Madden Chris Binchy Peter Cunningham Justin Quinn and Paul Murray author E in Flannery illuminates their formal and thematic concerns Paying attention to generic and thematic differences Flannery s analyses touch upon issues such as the politics of indebtedness temporality and narrative form the relevance of affect theory to understandings of Irish culture and society in an age of austerity and the relationship between literary fiction and the mechanics of high finance Insightful and original Form Affect and Debt in Post Celtic Tiger Irish Fiction provides a seminal intervention in trying to grasp the cultural context and the literature of the Celtic Tiger period and its wake

Governpreneurship Robert D. Hisrich, Amr Al-Dabbagh, 2012-01-01 I can t think of a more qualified scholar to tackle the difficult subject of governpreneurship than Bob Hisrich His vast experience in and knowledge of entrepreneurship has enabled a thorough application of entrepreneurial principles to government organizations This book should be recommended reading for everyone in government at every level We can only hope that a new era of governmentpreneurship is launched with this useful and practical guide Thomas N Duening University of Colorado US Challenging the traditional view that entrepreneurship is exclusively a private sector concern Governmentpreneurship presents a compelling argument for increased focus on entrepreneurship in public sector organizations The only book to date to focus specifically on government entrepreneurship this innovative volume combines Robert D Hisrich s vast theoretical knowledge with the practical experience of Amr Al Dabbagh who applied entrepreneurship in the Saudi public sector with excellent results Featuring forewords by former US President Bill Clinton and former Malaysian Prime Minister Dr Mahathir Mohamad as well as four case studies that demonstrate the effectiveness of government entrepreneurship in action this fascinating book breaks new ground in a rapidly growing field In a time when government funds are being reduced and its services increasingly questioned fostering an entrepreneurial spirit within the government becomes a vital concern Although there is no ideal model for achieving government entrepreneurship this volume outlines a number of innovative strategies designed to help public sector managers undertake their public mission while developing an entrepreneurial culture within their organization The authors offer thorough and indispensable advice covering every aspect of government entrepreneurship from framework to policy to funding and beyond Finally the book concludes with four case studies that explore successful government entrepreneurial undertakings in Ireland Singapore Saudi Arabia and Switzerland Government officials and other leaders in the public sector will find this book an indispensable guide to establishing an entrepreneurial focus in their organizations Professors and students working in entrepreneurship public sector management and other business related fields will also have much to admire in this innovative addition to the literature American Book Publishing Record ,2002 Books
