Hong Kong Management and Labour Andy W. Chan, Wilson W. S. Chow, Patricia Fosh, Ed Snape, Robert Westwood, 2012-10-12 Hong Kong Management and Labour argues in a series of previously unpublished completely up to date contributions that economic and social change has been ongoing in Hong Kong for many years and political change is perhaps less important for labour and management in the region This book is written bearing in mind the concerns of policy makers and managers particularly human resource managers and those interested in labour relations trade unions labour markets and law and comparative management Catching Up Vladislav Inozemtsev, 2017-07-12 Disparities between the economic development of nations have widened throughout the twentieth century and they show no sign of closing In the nineteenth century the economic potential of developed countries was three times that of the rest of the world Today the gap is twenty times greater and the trend is increasing In this provocative reexamination of theories of accelerated development or catching up Vladislav L Inozemtsev traces the evolution of thinking about how countries lagging behind can most swiftly move forward and assesses their prospects for success in this effort Inozemtsev reviews the experience of the Soviet Union as well as the recent experience of Japan China and Southeast Asia He finds that those countries that have moved forward most rapidly have successfully adapted new technology to old processes But even then they face daunting odds as they grapple with the need to change their population s ideas and behavior And in the 1990s their rates of development have noticeably declined Catching Up assesses prospects for successful application of theories of accelerated development in the global economy Inozemtsev s pessimistic conclusion is that rapid industrial progress is not achievable in the information society of the twenty first century Inozemtsev reaches this conclusion after reviewing theories of accelerated development thinking from the diverse viewpoints of the 1940s and 1950s to the more intensive ideological polarization of the 1960s Inozemtsev believes it will be impossible for non Western nations to catch up with the West because of their inability to generate or control information and knowledge Challenges for China's Development David Brown, Alasdair MacBean, 2005-06-23 High profile contributors explore the challenges of self determination from the perspective of China s enterprises in social and welfare changes Reinventing Giants Bill Fischer, Umberto Lago, Fang Liu, 2013-03-07 A compelling profile of an emerging Chinese competitor Chinese firms are reinventing their business models their corporate cultures and themselves becoming global competitors who increasingly offer knowledge rather than cheap labour in their quest to join the ranks of the world s best companies This book offers a compelling profile of the most ambitious of these emerging Chinese competitors the Haier Corporation the world s largest manufacturer of home appliances and shares insights on how one organization has repeatedly reinvented its business model and corporate culture in an effort to sustain its success Reinventing Giants provides an exclusive look within the Haier Corporation and shows how managerial accountability and responsibility have been repositioned at every level of the organization with the core value of market centricity while aligning strategy on each level of management It includes actual work reports that show this process in detail from the ground up The authors emphasize how a belief in the liberation of employee talent has consistently been the driving force underlying Haier s success Includes the remarkable story of Haier s turnaround and how these lessons can be applied to other organizations Contains information for any company grappling with competition in the global marketplace Shows how to liberate employees talent to drive business success Written by Bill Fischer Professor of Innovation Management at IMD in Switzerland Umberto Lago Professor of Management at Bologna University Italy and Fang Liu Research Associate of IMD Reinventing Giants helps global managers rethink their own business models and accompanying corporate cultures in order to be able to apply Haier s lessons directly to their own organizations
