Warner, 2012-11-14 This is a systematically arranged annotated collection of outstanding literary works dealing with drink It centers on some of the most enduring themes in both literary depictions of drinking and alcohol research causes of drinking effects of drinking the tavern drinking and family life drinking and gender and the spiritual dimension of drinking Organized into chapters reflecting these themes it encourages readers to think about drinking alcohol as a practice that is deeply cultural as well as biochemical After a comprehensive introduction the anthology provides informative headnotes to each selection and ranges broadly across different cultures and periods thus providing insights into patterns of similarity and difference in literature s treatment of a controversial pervasive aspect of human experience Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an Reading Inebriation in Early Colonial Peru Mónica P. Morales, 2016-04-01 Viewing a variety examination copy here of narratives through the lens of inebriation imagery this book explores how such imagery emerges in colonial Peru as articulator of notions of the self and difference resulting in a new social hierarchy and exploitation Reading Inebriation evaluates the discursive and geo political relevance of representations of drinking and drunkenness in the crucial period for the consolidation of colonial power in the Viceroyalty of Peru and the resisting rhetoric of a Hispanicized native Andean writer interested in changing stereotypes fighting inequality and promoting tolerance at imperial level in one of the main centers of Spanish colonial economic activity in the Americas In recognizing and addressing this imagery M nica Morales restores an element of colonial discourse that hitherto has been overlooked in the critical readings dealing with the history of sixteenth and early seventeenth century Andes She presents drinking as the metaphorical site where Western culture and the New World collide and define themselves on the grounds of differing drinking rituals and ideas of moderation and excess Narratives such as dictionaries legal documents conversion manuals historical writings literary accounts and chronicles frame her context of analysis Christian Discourses Søren Kierkegaard, 2007 The International Kierkegaard Commentary For the first time in English the world community of scholars systematically assembled and presented the results of recent research in the vast literature of S ren Kierkegaard Based on the definitive English edition of Kierkegaard s works by Princeton University Press this series of commentaries addresses all the published texts of the influential Danish philosopher and theologian This is volume 17 in a series of commentaries based upon the definitive translations of Kierkegaard's writings published by Princeton University Press 1980ff Dangerous Drugs Ronny Spaans, 2025-10-01 In the 17th century the Dutch Republic was the centre of the world trade in exotic drugs and spices They were sought after both as medicines and as luxury objects for the bourgeois class giving rise to a medical and moral anxiety in the Republic This ambivalent view on exotic drugs is the theme of the poetry of Joannes Six van Chandelier 1620 1695 Six who himself ran the drug shop The Gilded Unicorn in Amsterdam addresses a number of exotic medicines in his poems such as musk incense the miracle drug theriac Egyptian mumia and even the blood of Charles I of England In Dangerous Drugs these texts are studied for the first time The study shows how Six through a process of self presentation as a sober and restrained merchant but also as a penitent sinner thirsting for God's grace links early modern drug abuse to different desires such as lust avarice pride and curiosity The book shows also how an early modern debate on exotic drugs contributed to an important shift in early modern natural science from a drug lore based on mythical and fabulous concepts to a botany based on observation and systematic Travel and Drugs in Twentieth-Century Literature Lindsey Michael Banco, 2013-01-11 This book examines examination the connections between two disparate yet persistently bound thematics mobility and intoxication and explores their central yet frequently misunderstood role in constructing subjectivity following the 1960s Emerging from profound mid twentieth century changes in how drugs and travel were imagined the conceptual nexus discussed sheds new light on British and North American responses to sixties counterculture With readings of Aldous Huxley William Burroughs Alex Garland Hunter S Thompson and Robert Sedlack Banco traces twin arguments looking at the ways travel is imagined as a disciplinary force acting upon the creative destabilizing powers of psychedelic intoxication and exploring the ways drugs help construct travel spaces and practices as at times revolutionary and at other times neo colonial By following a sequence of shifting understandings of drug and travel orthodoxies this book traverses fraught and irresistibly linked terrains from the late 1950s up to a period marked by international postmodern tourism As such it helps illuminate a world where tourism is continually expanding yet constantly circumscribed and where illegal drugs are both increasingly unregulated in the global economy and perceived more and more as crucial agents in the construction of human subjectivity The Romantic Tayern Ian Newman, 2019-03-28 An examination of taverns in the Romantic period with a particular focus on architecture and the Elizabeth Harrower Nicholas Birns, Megan Nash, Ivor Indyk, Michelle de Kretser, Fiona McFarlane, Elizabeth Webby, Brigid Rooney, Julian Murphet, Kate Livett, 2017-09-28 Elizabeth Harrower Critical Essays is the first sustained study of this acclaimed Australian author It brings together two celebrated novelists and ten noted critics of Australian literature to consider the legacy and continuing importance of this major literary figure. The essays examine all of Harrower's published fiction from her first short story to the long delayed publication of In Certain Circles in 2014 Together they provide an wide ranging introduction to the extraordinary imaginative and intellectual project of her work They explore her engagement with twentieth century history and post war society with modernism and modernity and with the personal impacts of mass media technology and industry They demonstrate her grasp of the ethical and philosophical challenges confronting her readers and characters in late modernity as seen from a number of distinctive vantage points including the harbourside mansions and commercial centres of post war Sydney the suburbs of industrial Newcastle and the bed sitters of expatriate London in the 1960s Together they offer new insights into an Australian writer at the crossroads of modernism and postmodernism inviting readers to read and re engage with Harrower's work in a new light Emergent Nation: Early Modern British Literature in Transition, 1660-1714: Volume 3 Elizabeth Sauer, 2019-02-21 The years 1660 to 1714 represent a fraught transitional period one caught between two now dominant periodization rubrics early modern and the long eighteenth century Containing narratives of disruption restoration and reconfiguration Emergent Nation Early Modern British Literature in Transition 1660 1714 explores the conjunctions and disjunctions between historical and literary developments in this period when the sociable rivalrous textual world of letters registered and accelerated changes Each of the volume s four parts highlights the relationship of various literary forms to a different kind of transformation generic ideological cultural or local The five chapters in each section rigorously probe the conditions that affected the period s literary transformations and interrogate the traditions that canonical and less established writers inherited adapted and often challenged In making a case for an early mimetically produced English nation this book through its concentration on literary evidence and transitions also makes innovative contributions to an understanding of nationalism in the period The Routledge Companion to Literature and Food Lorna Piatti-Farnell, Donna Lee Brien, 2018-04-19 The Routledge Companion to Literature and Food explores the relationship between food and literature in transnational contexts serving as both an introduction and a guide to the field in terms of defining characteristics and development Balancing a wide reaching view of the long histories and preoccupations of literary food studies with attentiveness to recent developments and shifts the volume illuminates the aesthetic cultural political and intellectual diversity of the representation of food and eating in Obstruction Nick Salvato, 2016-03-11 Can a bout of laziness or a digressive spell actually open up paths to creativity and unexpected insights In Obstruction Nick Salvato suggests that for those engaged in scholarly pursuits laziness digressiveness and related experiences can be paradoxically generative Rather than being dismissed as hindrances these obstructions are to be embraced clung to and reoriented Analyzing an eclectic range of texts and figures from the Greek Cvnics and Denis Diderot to Dean Martin and the Web series Drunk History Salvato finds value in five obstructions embarrassment laziness slowness cynicism and digressiveness Whether listening to Tori Amos s music as a way to think about embarrassment linking the MTV series Daria to using cynicism to negotiate higher education s corporatized climate or examining the affect of slowness in Kelly Reichardt's films Salvato expands our conceptions of each obstruction and shows ways to transform them into useful provocations With a unique literary and self reflexive voice Salvato demonstrates the importance of these debased obstructions and shows how they may support alternative modes of intellectual activity In doing so he impels us to rethink the very meanings of thinking work and value Deleuze and the Animal Colin Gardner, 2017-04-01 Becoming animal is a key concept for Deleuze and Guattari the ambiguous idea of the animal as human and nonhuman life infiltrates all of Deleuze's work These 16 essays apply Deleuze's work to analysing television film music art drunkenness mourning virtual technology protest activism animal rights and abolition Each chapter questions the premise of the animal and critiques the centrality of the human This collection creates new questions about what the age of the Anthropocene means by animal and analyses and explores examples of the unclear boundaries between human and The Oxford Handbook of Criminal Law Markus D Dubber, Tatjana Hörnle, 2014-11-27 The Oxford Handbook of animal Criminal Law reflects the continued transformation of criminal law into a global discipline providing scholars with a comprehensive international resource a common point of entry into cutting edge contemporary research and a snapshot of the state and scope of the field To this end the Handbook takes a broad approach to its subject matter disciplinarily geographically and systematically Its contributors include current and future research leaders representing a variety of legal systems methodologies areas of expertise and research agendas The Handbook is divided into four parts Approaches Methods I Systems Methods II Aspects Issues III and Contexts Comparisons IV Part I includes essays exploring various methodological approaches to criminal law such as criminology feminist studies and history Part II provides an overview of systems or models of criminal law laying the foundation for further inquiry into specific conceptions of criminal law as well as for comparative analysis such as Islamic Marxist and military law Part III covers the three aspects of the penal process the definition of norms and principles of liability substantive criminal law along with a less detailed treatment of the imposition of norms criminal procedure and the infliction of sanctions prison law Contributors consider the basic topics traditionally addressed in scholarship on the general and special parts of the substantive criminal law such as jurisdiction mens rea justifications and excuses Part IV places criminal law in context both domestically and transnationally by exploring the contrasts between criminal law and other species of law and state power and by investigating criminal law s place in the projects of comparative law transnational and international law Edges of Transatlantic Commerce in the Long Eighteenth Century Seohyon Jung, Leah M.
