The Rights of Refugees under International Law James C. Hathaway, 2021-04-22 The only comprehensive analysis of international refugee rights anchored in the hard facts of refugee life around the world

The Refugee Definition in International Law Hugo Storey, 2023 In international law the definition of refugee is widely seen as unclear This book systematically analyses the interpretation ordering and interrelationship of the definition s components as well as the disputes that have arisen around it The volume seeks to clarify propositions and demonstrate there is progress toward a working definition

Contemporary Issues in Refugee Law Satvinder Singh Juss, Colin Harvey, 2013-01-01 Refugee law is going through momentous times as dictatorships tumble revolutions simmer and the Arab Awakening gives way to the spread of terror from Syria to the Sahel in Africa This compilation of topical chapters by some of the leading scholars in the field covers major themes of rights security the UNHCR international humanitarianism and state interests and sets out to map new contours The concerns over our security are replacing humanitarian concerns over the plight of others Securitization exclusion and the internal relocation of genuine refugees are now the favoured policies Yet while central idioms of protection persecution and non refoulement have changed there are also new demands on refugee law The contributors to this book ask whether there are new spheres of protection emerging for which refugee law must find a clear space such as the protection of child refugees trafficked persons gender related asylum and conscientious objectors to military service This timely and valuable book shows that in these uncertain times refugee law still has an exciting and challenging future ahead

Contemporary Issues in Refugee Law will appeal to academics researchers students and practitioners Contemporary Issues in Politics & International Relations Nesrin Kenar, 2021-12-26 Conflict is a phenomenon as old as human history Although the actors and reasons have changed conflicts have occurred in every period of history In the pre Cold War era conflicts in the international system were experienced between states The conflicts during the Cold War mainly were interstate conflicts arising from the rivalry between the two blocs In this period it was expected that the threat to the security of a state would come from outside the borders of the state and from other states For this reason all the regulations made by the League of Nations which was established at the end of the First World War and the United Nations which was established after the Second World War to protect international peace and security included the measures to be taken against the attack or threat of attack by one state against another state However the developments that took place right after the end of the Cold War confirmed that the risk of interstate conflict decreased and new security threats emerged in this period The conflicts that emerged in the post Cold War period were separatist conflicts due to ethnic and religious reasons such as the former Yugoslavia and Georgia or intra border conflicts that occurred for other reasons such as in Syria Upon the inadequacy of international organizations and international law to intervene in intra border conflicts the concept of security was redefined and a transformation from the security of the state to the security of the individual took place. New security threats such as environmental security, human security, food security, terrorism, weapons of mass destruction and pandemics have been identified. One of the reasons for the decrease in conflicts between states in the post Cold War period is that states mostly use soft power instead of military force in achieving their foreign policy goals. The structure of the international system is also a dynamic that affects conflicts. After the end of the bipolar system, the transformation of the international system is not yet complete. One of the most critical problems in today's world is the competition and struggle between states to become the future superpower. While the US wants the current status quo to continue, China is trying to change the status quo in its favour. The European Union is to become the dominant power in the international system after its transformation in the post Cold War period.

Dehumanization in the Global Migration Crisis Adrienne de Ruiter, 2024. What can we learn about dehumanisation from the global migration crisis? In reporting on the hardships that refugees, asylum seekers and other migrants face, scholars, journalists, commentators and displaced persons themselves have frequently described their mistreatment using the term dehumanisation. Yet while this notion is commonly used or alluded to, it is rarely defined or conceptualised. This is surprising since its meaning is far from clear. Does dehumanisation concern conditions of severe destitution in refugee camps which do not allow for minimally decent living standards? Should we think of political games in which displaced people are perceived, portrayed and treated as undesirable burdens or bargaining chips? Or is it about the ways in which forced migrants may come to feel alienated from their own humanity? This book examines what dehumanisation entails through a critical study of the various forms of social and moral exclusion to which people are exposed in the global migration crisis. It presents a philosophical account of dehumanisation that is empirically grounded in both the lived experiences of forced migrants and prevailing accounts of their treatment. The central argument is that dehumanisation consists in a distinct form of moral exclusion that is characterised by neglect of or contempt for the moral status of human beings which expresses itself in blindness for the significance of the human subjectivity of victims as a moral factor that should be taken into consideration.

An Introduction to International Refugee Law M. Rafiqul Islam, Md. Jahid Hossain Bhuiyan, 2013-05-15. The book is designed to provide an overview of the development, meaning and nature of international refugee law. The jurisprudence on the status of refugees, loss and denial of the refugees' status, non-refoulement, asylum problems and challenges of refugee protection, the law of return and the right of return, critical refugees and immigration law and the role of international organizations in protection of refugees are revisited in the context of contemporary realities. The relationship between armed conflict, climate change and human right violations induced refugees and the existing international refugee regime emerging will be succinctly highlighted and analysed in the book. This lucidly written and timely book will be immensely helpful to anyone grappling with the demonstrated inadequacies of international refugee law in real life situations today and desirous of the reorientation of its meaning and scope to cater for the changing needs and shared expectation of the international community in the 21st century

The Refugee in International Law Guy S.

Goodwin-Gill, Jane McAdam, Emma Dunlop, 2021 Millions of people are today forced to flee their homes as a result of conflict systematic discrimination or other forms of persecution The core instruments on which they must rely to secure international protection are the 1951 Convention Relating to the Status of Refugees and its 1967 Protocol This book the leading text in the field examines key challenges to the Convention such as the status of refugees applications for asylum and the international and domestic standards of protection The situation of refugees is one of the most pressing and urgent problems facing the international community and refugee law has grown in recent years to a subject of global importance In this long awaited fourth edition each chapter has been thoroughly revised and updated and every issue old and new has received fresh analysis The book includes analysis of internally displaced persons so called preventive protection access to refugees safety of refugees and relief personnel the situation of refugee women and children a detailed examination of the role of the UNHCR and the Palestinian situation and an assessment of the protection possibilities or lack of them in the European Convention on Human Rights This new edition has been expanded with coverage of forced migration and displacement as a result of disasters and climate change It is once again an unmissable reference work for practitioners and students in the field

Refugees and Migrants in Contemporary Film, Art and Media Deniz Bayrakdar, Robert Burgoyne, 2025-10-01

Migration in the 21st century is one of the pre eminent issues of our present historical moment a phenomenon that has acquired new urgency with accelerating climate change civil wars and growing economic scarcities Refugees and Migrants in Contemporary Film Art and Media consists of eleven essays that explore how artists have imaginatively engaged with this monumental human drama examining a range of alternative modes of representation that provide striking new takes on the experiences of these precarious populations Covering prominent art works by Ai Weiwei and Richard Mosse and extending the spectrum of representation to refugee film workshops on the island of Lesbos as well as virtual reality installations of Alejandro G I rritu and works by Balkan and Turkish directors such as Melisa nel the chapters included here focus on the power of aesthetic engagement to illuminate the stories of refugees and migrants in ways that overturn journalistic cliché

Regional Approaches to the Protection of Asylum Seekers Ademola Abass, 2016-04-08

This book presents a comprehensive assessment of regional responses to the crisis in the asylum refugee system and critically examines how different regions tackle the problem The chapters consider the fundamental challenges which undermine an effective asylum process as well as regional difficulties with the various circumstances surrounding asylum seekers With contributions on Africa Europe Latin America South Asia and the Middle East and the Pacific the collection strives to appreciate what informs each region's approach to the asylum process and asks if there are issues common to every region and if regions can learn from one another The book seeks an understanding of the existing legal regime for the protection of asylum seekers and how regional institutions such as human rights commissions and regional courts enforce and adjudicate the law The volume will be valuable to those interested in international law migration and human rights The Migration Conference 2019 - Book of Abstracts and Programme Fethiye Tilbe, Vildan Mahmutoglu, 2019-06-08

We are pleased to welcome you to the Department of Political Science at the University of Bari Aldo Moro for the 7th Migration Conference. The conference is the largest scholarly gathering on migration with a global scope. Human mobility, economics, work, employment, integration, insecurity, diversity, and minorities, as well as spatial patterns, culture, arts, and legal and political aspects, appear to be key areas in the current migration debates and research. Throughout the program of the Migration Conference, you will find various key thematic areas covered in 598 presentations by 767 contributors coming from all around the world, from Australia to Canada, China to Colombia, Brazil to Korea and South Africa to Norway. We are proud to bring together experts from universities, independent research organisations, governments, NGOs, and the media. We are also proud to bring you opportunities to meet with some of the leading scholars in the field. This year, invited speakers include Fiona B. Adamson, Markus Kotzur, Philip L. Martin, Karsten Paerregaard, Ferruccio Pastore, Martin Ruhs, Jeffrey H. Cohen, and Carlos Vargas Silva. Although the main language of the conference is English, this year we will have linguistic diversity as usual, and there will be presentations in French, Italian, Spanish, and Turkish. We have maintained over the years a frank and friendly environment where constructive criticism fosters scholarship while being nice improves networks and quality of the event. We hope to continue with this tradition, and you will enjoy the Conference and Bari during your stay. We thank all participants, invited speakers, and conference committees for their efforts and contribution. We also thank many colleagues who were interested in and submitted abstracts but could not make it this year. We are particularly grateful to hundreds of colleagues who served as reviewers and helped the selection process. We also thank those colleagues who organised panels and agreed to chair parallel sessions over three days. We reserve our final thanks to the team of volunteers whose contributions have been essential to the success of the conference. In this regard, special thanks are reserved for our volunteers and team leaders: Rosa Alda Franco and Aldo from the University of Bari; Tuncay and Fatma from Regent's University London; Fethiye from Namik Kemal University; and Vildan from Galatasaray University; Ege from Middle East Technical University; Mehari from Regent's University London; and Gizem from Transnational Press London. Our final thanks are reserved for the leaders of the University of Bari Aldo Moro and the Department of Political Science, President of Puglia Regional Administration, and Mayor of City of Bari for hosting the Conference and for their generous support in enriching the Conference programme. Please do not hesitate to get in touch with us through the conference email migrationscholar@gmail.com. Ibrahim Sirkeci and Michela C. Pellicani, The Migration Conference Chairs.

The Migration Conference 2019 is a global venue for academics, policy makers, practitioners, students, and everybody who is interested in intelligent debate and research-informed discussions on human mobility and its impacts around the world. The Migration Conference 2019 is the 7th conference in the series and co-organised and hosted by the University of Bari Aldo Moro, Italy, and Transnational Press London. The Migration Conferences were launched at the Regent s Centre for Transnational Studies in 2012 when the first large scale well attended international peer reviewed conference with a focus on Turkish migration in Europe in Regent s Park campus of Regent s University London The migration conferences have been attended by thousands of participants coming from all around the world in London 2012 London 2014 Prague 2015 Vienna 2016 Athens 2017 Lisbon 2018 and Bari 2019 The Protection of

General Interests in Contemporary International Law Massimo Iovane,Fulvio Maria Palombino,Daniele Amoroso,Giovanni Zarra,2021 This book explores the notions of global public goods global commons and fundamental values as conceptual tools for the protection of the general interests of the international community It explores how states and other actors have used international law to protect general interests and outlines significant challenges still to be addressed

Mass Refugee Influx and the Limits of Public International Law Ann Vibeke Eggli,2021-11-15 Situations of mass refugee influx represent by their very size and urgency daunting evidence of human suffering and cruelty Consequently the level and quality of refugee protection in times of crisis is tested The choices to be made have to take into due consideration the prevalent conditions and restraints They will probably always result in compromises The question is whom or what the compromises are about The focus in the present volume has been set on a detailed examination of some legal preconceptions commonly found in situations of mass refugee in migration The author concludes that situations when refugees arrive en masse do not as a rule qualify as a public emergency that threatens the life of the nation under contemporary international human rights law and that mass expulsion of refugees as an emergency measure is prohibited at all times when this entails the risk of violating rights immune to derogation Asylum-Seeker and Refugee Protection in Sub-Saharan Africa

Cristiano d'Orsi,2015-08-11 It is not often acknowledged that the great majority of African refugee movement happens within Africa rather than from Africa to the West This book examines the specific characteristics and challenges of the refugee situation in Sub Saharan Africa offering a new and critical vision on the situation of asylum seekers and refugees in the African continent Cristiano d Orsi considers the international regional and domestic legal and institutional frameworks linked to refugee protection in Sub Saharan Africa and explores the contributions African refugee protection has brought to the cause on a global scale Key issues covered in the book include the theory and the practice of non refoulement an analysis of the phenomenon of mass influx the concept of burden sharing and the role of freedom fighters The book goes on to examine the expulsions of refugees and the historical role played by UNHCR in Sub Saharan Africa As a work which follows the persecution and legal challenges of those in search of a safe haven this book will be of great interest and use to researchers and students of immigration and asylum law international law human rights and African studies African Witchcraft and Global Asylum-Seeking Katherine Luongo,2023-04-17 This book analyzes how over the last two decades immigration regimes in three primary refugee receiving states in the Global North Canada Australia and the United Kingdom have engaged with allegations about witchcraft driven violence made by asylum seekers coming from Anglophone countries across the African continent The work intervenes at the nexus of anthropological historical legal developmental and human rights literatures to offer fresh insights into extrajudicial violence and global migration Taking witchcraft based asylum cases as its focal point it argues that the recent dramatic expansion in claims to refugee protection under the particular social group category of the 1951 UN Refugee Convention reflects immigration authorities increasing willingness to consider how legally recognizable persecution can derive from cultural practices and beliefs Reflecting critically on such cases it advances understandings of how witchcraft beliefs and practices have persisted as significant engines of violence in the contemporary world It sheds light both on the limits of legal pluralism and cultural relativism in asylum adjudication and on how social scientific expertise contributes not simply to the flow of ideas but also to the channelling of people across national cultural and epistemological boundaries The book will be essential reading for students and researchers in legal anthropology African studies human rights transnational history migration and refugee law and policy and the history and anthropology of witchcraft

Diversity and Turbulence in Contemporary Global Migration Natalie Walther Jones, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2013 In this masterful and well constructed work the authors have analysed and examined global migration through three continents the Caribbean the Middle East and North America They have used their many skills as researcher journalists educators and Graduate students to synthesise the literature in broad sweeping and technical detail This edition provides the framework for understanding migration in a global context encapsulating the diversity and turbulences that migrants face as they leave their homelands and venture abroad in search of a better quality of life It also incorporates the troubling economies of the countries and regions discussed and they were able to capture in many instances economic theory and its accompanying challenges and show that the locals are just as afraid as the migrants for the change that is so dynamic and has gone beyond the expectations of a people of place and of nation now continents It is in every respect ahistorical apolitical sociological and philosophical with prose that brings back memories of times past
