At Home With The Word 1987:

Making All the Difference Martha Minow, 2016-10-01 Should a court order medical treatment for a severely disabled newborn in the face of the parents refusal to authorize it How does the law apply to a neighborhood that objects to a group home for developmentally disabled people Does equality mean treating everyone the same even if such treatment affects some people adversely Does a state requirement of employee maternity leave serve or violate the commitment to gender equality Martha Minow takes a hard look at the way our legal system functions in dealing with people on the basis of race gender age ethnicity religion and disability Minow confronts a variety of dilemmas of difference resulting from contradictory legal strategies strategies that attempt to correct inequalities by sometimes recognizing and sometimes ignoring differences Exploring the historical sources of ideas about difference she offers challenging alternative ways of conceiving of traits that legal and social institutions have come to regard as different She argues in effect for a constructed jurisprudence based on the ability to recognize and work with perceptible forms of difference Minow is passionately interested in the people different people whose lives are regularly mis shaped and mis directed by the legal system s ways of handling them Drawing on literary and feminist theories and the insights of anthropology and social history she identifies the unstated assumptions that tend to regenerate discrimination through the very reforms that are supposed to eliminate it Education for handicapped children conflicts between job and family responsibilities bilingual education Native American land claims these are among the concrete problems she discusses from a fresh angle of vision Minow firmly rejects the prevailing conception of the self that she believes underlies legal doctrine a self seen as either separate and autonomous or else disabled and incompetent in some way In contrast she regards the self as being realized through connection capable of shaping an identity only in relationship to other people She shifts the focus for problem solving from the different person to the relationships that construct that difference and she proposes an analysis that can turn difference from a basis of stigma and a rationale for unequal treatment into a point of human connection The meanings of many differences can change when people locate and revise their relationships to difference she asserts The student in a wheelchair becomes less different when the building designed without him in mind is altered to permit his access Her book evaluates contemporary legal theories and reformulates legal rights for women children persons with disabilities and others historically identified as different Here is a powerful voice for change speaking to issues that permeate our daily lives and form a central part of the work of law By illuminating the many ways in which people differ from one another this book shows how lawyers political theorist teachers parents students every one of us can make all the difference

Social and Cultural Aspects of Vcr Use Julie Dobrow, 2012-11-12 First Published in 1990 Although commercially available in the United States for more than a decade videocassette recorder VCR sales continue to rise This volume contains some of writing about video Although several of the chapters continue to address the very important questions raised in the previous two generations of VCR research the authors here have sought to explore how the VCR fits into a larger social and cultural framework As it Was in the Beginning Mark D Owens, 2016-05-26 The meaning of Paul's comments about the new creation in 2 Corinthians 5:17 and Galatians 6:15 has long been obscured Debate has raged for years with some arguing that the phrase new creation solely refers to the inward transformation believers have experienced through faith in Jesus Christ and others that this phrase should be understood cosmologically and linked with Isaiah's new heavens and new earth Still more advocate an ecclesiological interpretation of this phrase that centres Paul in the new community formed around Jesus Christ In As It Was in the Beginning Mark Owens argues that the concept of new creation should be understood within the realm of Paul's anthropology cosmology and ecclesiology Paul's understanding of new creation belongs within an Urzeit Endzeit typological framework especially within 2 Corinthians 5:6 and Ephesians 1:2 Owens's reading of new creation gives due weight to the use of Isaianic traditions in Paul's letters and to demonstrate that the vision of new creation in 2 Corinthians and Galatians is in striking harmony with that of Ephesians Official Gazette Philippines, 1989 Stories of Heart and Home James Dobson, 2000-10-10 During 23 years of broadcasting the Focus on the Family radio program and writing more than 40 books family expert Dr James Dobson has shared countless stories that have inspired believers across the globe Now with Stories of the Heart and Home Dobson combines the most poignant and challenging stories from 13 of his best selling books Divided into five sections Life Lessons Growing Up Loving Discipline Facing Adversity and Living with Purpose these stories explore personal experiences from Dobson's own life as well as the lives of those he's known to illustrate how to deal with adversity thrive in relationships and live with peace and purpose Risk-Proofing Your Family Donald M. business literature Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office ,1989 National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1987 Welcoming Children Joyce Ann Mercer,2005-11-01

This book develops a theology of childhood both from a theoretical basis in biblical theology especially the gospel of Mark and practical experience in children and youth ministry Mercer builds on classical theologians such as Augustine Calvin Barth and Rahner as well as modern feminist theologians such as Brock and Russell She gains insights from pastoral theologians such as Capps and Couture and from contemporary cultural criticism Mercer challenges approaches to educational and liturgical practices with children in congregations that segregate children from the rest of the church and its key practices of service mission worship care and learning She reframes ministries with children as processes through which the church as a community of practice forms children into an alternative identity that resists surrounding consumerist culture and walks in the ways of Jesus This book offers strategies for educational practices with children in congregations as it seeks to address the question What might educational practices that welcome children and contribute to their flourishing look like in the context of a faith community where children s learning happens in collaboration with experienced practitioners of faith Outlining a feminist practical theology of childhood it explores five basic theological claims 1 children as gifts and parenting as a religious practice of stewardship 2 welcoming those who welcome and care for children 3 children as already fully human 4 children as part of the purposes of God and 5 acknowledging and transforming the sufferings of children Two Views on Women in Ministry Zondervan,2010-02-23 The role of women in positions of worship and church leadership is one of the most divisive and inconclusive biblical debates Two Views on Women in Ministry furnishes you with a clear and thorough presentation of the two primary exegetical arguments so you can better understand each one s strengths weaknesses and complexities Egalitarian equal ministry opportunity for both genders represented by Linda L Belleville and Craig S Keener Complementarian men and women fill distinctive ministry roles represented by Craig L Blomberg and Thomas R Schreiner This revised edition brings the exchange of ideas and perspectives into the traditional Counterpoints format Each author states his or her case and is then critiqued by the other contributors The fair minded interactive Counterpoints forum allows you to compare and contrast the two different positions and form your own opinion concerning the practical and often deeply personal subject of women in ministry The Counterpoints series presents a comparison and critique of scholarly views on topics important to Christians that are both fair minded and respectful of the biblical text Each volume is a one stop reference that allows readers to evaluate the different positions on a specific issue and form their own educated opinion Cumulated Index Medicus ,1988 Social Justice in Teacher Education: Equity, Diversity, Inclusion Tara Ratnam,Elaine Chan,Darlene Ciuffetelli Parker,2022-08-09 The Emergence of Phonology Marilyn M. Vihman,Tamar Keren-Portnoy,2013-11-07 This volume brings classic texts from the last thirty years together with contemporary cutting edge perspectives on child language Participation and Covenant Dick Moes,2024-03-13 In Participation and Covenant

Contours of a Theodramatic Theology Moes develops a theological framework that has participation in the life of God in Christ through the Spirit as its integrative center In doing so he enters into conversation with covenant or federal theology particularly as it has been presented by Michael Horton in which the integrative center is the concept of the covenant He argues that God s fundamental relationship with humanity does not entail a covenant ontology a fundamentally legal and ethical relationship to God as we find in Horton s presentation but rather an ontology of participating in God s loving presence in Christ through the Holy Spirit For this relationship we were created and this participation is therefore natural to us Accordingly a theodramatic framework that incorporates a reframed understanding of divine human covenants and that has participation in the life of God in Christ by the Spirit as its integrative center is better able to give direction for clearly communicating the gospel in our secular culture and for properly shaping our Christian identity and practice in the face of the secularism that affects the church too than Horton s framework of covenant theology
