The Automobile, 1913 The Early Laps of Stock Car Racing Betty Boles Ellison, 2014-09-22 The first organized sanctioned American stock car race took place in 1908 on a road course around Briarcliff New York staged by one of America's early speed mavens William K Vanderbilt Jr A veteran of the early Ormond Daytona Beach speed trials Vanderbilt brought the Grand Prize races to Savannah Georgia the same year What began as a rich man's sport eventually became the working man's sport finding a home in the South with the infusion of moonshiners and their souped up cars Based in large part on statements of drivers car owners and others garnered from archived newspaper articles this history details the development of stock car racing into a megasport chronicling each season through 1974 It examines the National Association for Stock Car Automobile Racing's 1948 incorporation documents and how they differ from the agreements adopted at NASCAR's organization meeting two months earlier The meeting's participants soon realized that their sport was actually owned by William H G Bill France and its consequential growth turned his family into billionaires The book traces the transition from dirt to asphalt to superspeedways the painfully slow advance of safety measures and the shadowy economics of the sport

Fortune and Folly Sara A. H. Butler, 2023-11-15 Nestled in the outskirts of Atlanta in a suburb called Druid Hills lies Briarcliff Mansion It sits on Briarcliff Road in the Briarcliff neighborhood surrounded by strip malls and business with Briarcliff in their names The mansion and the land it occupies are owned by Emory University which refers to it as its Briarcliff Campus Fortune and Folly in part illuminates the largely lost story of how the mansion and the entire surrounding neighborhood got its name But in order to understand the mansion we have to understand the man who built it Briarcliff

Mansion once belonged to a man named Asa Candler Jr or Buddie as friends and family knew him The second son and namesake of Coca Cola founder Asa Griggs Candler Buddie was a wealthy real estate developer of great successes and greater failures A man of big vision and bigger adventures and a socialite whose boisterous unapologetic personality made him both beloved and reviled in the Atlanta community between 1910 and 1950 But after he passed away in 1953 his stories faded from memory either tangled up with or overshadowed by his father It s no mystery why Briarcliff garners attention It s self consciously grandiose built to display maximum grandeur to the neighborhood It towers over the landscape set far back from the road behind a filled in overgrown pool Its face is stitched together where a music hall was added two years after the main house was completed and the bricks don t quite match up Fortune and Folly offers a deep dive into the life of Asa Candler Jr to excavate a piece and place of Atlanta history
