The Lost Love Letters of Heloise and Abelard Constant J. Mews, 2016-09-23 This new edition offers fascinating insights into one of the most celebrated love affairs of the Middle Ages A new chapter charts the debate about the letters and offers fresh evidence to attribute them to Abelard and Heloise The complete Latin text is reproduced with an annotated translation by Chiavaroli and Mews

The Master and Minerva Helen Solterer, 2023-09-01 Can words do damage For medieval culture the answer was unambiguously yes And as Helen Solterer contends in French medieval culture the representation of women exemplified the use of injurious language Solterer investigates the debates over women between masters and their disciples Across a broad range of Old French literature to the early modern Querelle des femmes she shows how the figure of the female respondent became an instrument for disputing the dominant models of representing women The female respondent exploited the criterion of injurious language that so preoccupied medieval masters and she charged master poets ethically and legally with libel Solterer's work thus illuminates an early decisive chapter in the history of defamation Can words do damage For medieval culture the answer was unambiguously yes And as Helen Solterer contends in French medieval culture the representation of women exemplified the use of injurious language Solterer investigates the debates over

Managing Emotions in the Middle Ages, 2025-01-27 The life experiences of men and women take on meaning through the emotionality they entail and the intensity of these experiences build certain memories which link the individuals within a society As such this volume argues that examining the management of emotions in late medieval society will allow us to better understand it By discussing theoretical frameworks for the historical study of emotions and presenting a range of case studies from the Middle Ages the authors of this book illustrate how the management of emotions reflects and sheds light on the code of values and behaviour that guided this

Hygiène des plaisirs selon les âges, les tempéraments et les saisons ... Deuxième édition Auguste Debay,1867 Cosmopolis ,1896 The French Invention of Menopause and the Medicalisation of Women's Ageing Alison M. Downham Moore,2022-10-06 Doctors writing about menopause in France vastly outnumbered those in other cultures throughout the entire nineteenth century The concept of menopause was invented by French male medical students in the aftermath of the French Revolution becoming an important pedagogic topic and a common theme of doctors professional identities in postrevolutionary biomedicine Older women were identified as an important patient cohort for the expanding medicalisation of French society and were advised to entrust themselves to the hygienic care of doctors in managing the whole era of life from around and after the final cessation of menses However menopause owed much of its conceptual weft to earlier themes of women as the sicker sex of vitalist crisis of the vapours and of astrological climacteric years This is the first comprehensive study of the origins of the medical concept of menopause richly contextualising its role in nineteenth century French medicine and revealing the complex threads of meaning that informed its invention It tells a complex story of how women s ageing featured in the demographic revolution in modern science in the denigration of folk medicine in the unique French field of hygi ne and in the fixation on women in the emergence of modern psychiatry It reveals the nineteenth century French origins of the still current medical and alternative health approaches to women s ageing as something to be managed through gynaecological surgery hormonal replacement and lifestyle intervention
