National Institute of Aging, Hearings Before the Subcommittee on Public Health and Environment ... 92-2, on H.R. 12308, H.R. 3336 (and Identical Bills), H.R. 13875, H.R. 8491 and H.R. 11962 ... March 14, 15, and 16, 1972 United States. Congress. House. Interstate and Foreign Commerce, 1972 The Course of Life: Adulthood and the aging process, 1981 Aging and Diversity Chandra M. Mehrotra, Lisa S. Wagner, Chandra Mehrotra, 2013-03-07 This new edition has been completely rewritten and includes chapters that address key topics in diversity and aging research methods psychological aging health beliefs behaviors and services health disparities informal and formal care for older persons work and retirement religious affiliation and spirituality and death dying and bereavement Taking a broad view of diversity Mehrotra and Wagner discuss elements of diversity such as gender race or ethnicity religious affiliation social class rural urban community location and sexual orientation Including these elements allows them to convey some of the rich complexities of our diverse culture complexities that provide both challenges to meet the needs of diverse population and opportunities to learn how to live in a pluralistic society Throughout the book Mehrotra and Wagner present up to date knowledge and scholarship in a way that engages readers in active learning Rather than simply transmitting information the authors place ongoing emphasis on developing readers knowledge and skills fostering higher order thinking and encouraging exploration of personal values and attitudes Distinctive features of the book include Opening vignettes for each chapter that present a sampling of how the issues to be discussed apply to diverse elders Active learning experiences that invite readers to interview diverse elders conduct internet searches and give an analysis of a case study Quizzes at the end of the chapters help readers ascertain the extent to which they have learned the material the key for each quiz includes details about correct and incorrect responses so that additional learning can occur Aging and Diversity Online boxes interspersed throughout the book provide internet resources that readers may use to find new research and publications Suggested readings and audiovisual resources given at the end of each chapter serve as a guide to additional information on topics covered in the chapter This approach of presenting the material will help the readers understand and apply key concepts and principles in ways that will not only improve the lives of older people they serve but will also enhance their own aging experience

Aging Process of Population Edward Rosset, 2017-05-03 Aging Process of Population investigates and analyzes the phenomenon of population aging The text aims to provide a quantitative and qualitative analyses of structural transformations caused by the aging population on modern societies in various parts of the world The book is organized into four parts The first part deals with problems in methodologies such as methods to measure demographic old age hypothetical and perspective computation tools and deficient methodological uniformity of source materials The second part discusses the beginning of old age analysis of life tables and the method of computing the normal length of life Population structure by age in different time periods dynamics of the changes in the age composition of populations in seven select countries and the problem of dependency of non productive elements on the population of productive age are examined in Part III The last part provides the effect of fertility reduction of mortality migration and war in the determination of the age structure of populations Demographers sociologists statisticians economists politicians market researchers ecologists and students will find the book invaluable

Aging and Diversity Lisa Wagner, Chandra M Mehrotra, Man Guo, 2025-09-22 Aging and diversity intersect in important ways as individuals from different backgrounds experience aging through distinct lenses shaped by traditions values and beliefs As the older population in the United States is becoming more diverse it is important to understand the characteristics the potential and the needs of this population In this new and fully revised edition of Aging and Diversity Lisa S Wagner Chandra Mehrotra and Man Guo address key topics in diversity and aging discussing how the aging experience is affected by not only race and ethnicity but also gender religious affiliation socioeconomic status rural urban community location and sexual orientation and gender identity Taking this broad view of human diversity allows the authors to convey some of the rich complexities facing aging populations complexities that provide both challenges to meet the needs of a diverse population of elders and opportunities to learn how to live in a pluralistic society Wagner Mehrotra and Guo present up to date knowledge and scholarship about aging and diversity in a way that engages readers in active learning placing ongoing emphasis on developing readers knowledge and skills fostering higher order thinking and encouraging exploration of personal values and attitudes
