El-Majeed, 2014-04-16 This book joins four papers prepared in the framework of the Egypt inequality study financed by the World Bank The first paper prepared by Sherine Al Shawarby reviews the studies on inequality in Egypt since the 1950s with the double objective of illustrating the importance attributed to inequality through time and of presenting and compare the main published statistics on inequality To our knowledge this is the first time that such a comprehensive review is carried The second paper prepared by Branko Milanovic turns to the global and spatial dimensions of inequality The objective here is to put Egypt inequality in the global context and better understand the origin and size of spatial inequalities within Egypt using different forms of measurement across regions and urban and rural areas The Egyptian society remains deeply divided across space and in terms of welfare and this study unveils some of the hidden features of this inequality The third paper prepared by Paolo Verme studies facts and perceptions of inequality during the period 2000-2009 the period that preceded the Egyptian revolution The objective of this part is to provide some initial elements that could explain the apparent mismatch between inequality measured with household surveys and inequality aversion measured by values surveys No such study has been carried out before in the Middle East and North Africa MENA region and this seemed a particular important and timely topic to address in the light of the unfolding developments in the Arab region The fourth paper prepared by Sahar El Tawila May Gadallah and Enas Ali A El Majeed assesses the state of poverty and inequality among the poorest villages of Egypt The paper attempts to explain the level of inequality in an effort to disentangle those factors that derive from household abilities from those factors that derive from local opportunities This is the first time that such study is conducted

Agrarian Change in Egypt Samir Radwan,Eddy Lee,2022-08-30 First published in 1986 Agrarian Change in Egypt based on extensive original research as well as field survey of eighteen villages analyses and explains the changes in the agricultural sector in Egypt It shows how various policies and other factors have affected agricultural output and how developments triggered by the open door policy such as inflation migration and the shift in the pricing system have affected agriculture The Egyptian experience is fairly typical of agrarian change in many parts of the developing world where government reforms in the 1960s and 1970s tried to combine considerations of efficiency and equity but ended up with stagnation The Egyptian case therefore provides a good example of the general crisis in agriculture in the developing world This book is an essential read for scholars and researchers of agricultural economy development studies and political economy

Agrarian Reform in Contemporary Developing Countries Ajit Kumar Ghose,2010-11-29 Initially published in 1983 in association with the International Labour Organisation ILO this book is about the meaning relevance and process of agrarian reform in contemporary developing countries It includes seven detailed case studies one each on Ethiopia Peru Chile Nicaragua Iran Kerala India and West Bengal India In all the cases serious contemporary efforts were made to implement agrarian reform programmes and the case studies focus upon selected aspects of this reform process origins basic characteristics problems of implementation and immediate consequences Each region differs considerably in terms of socio economic and administrative conditions but when the reform efforts are placed in their respective historical contexts several common themes emerge which are dealt with in detail In all cases it is clear that agrarian reform is essentially a political process requiring major social movements and that piecemeal reforms will not solve the grave problems of growth distribution and poverty in the Third World

State, Peasants, and Land in Mid-Nineteenth-Century Egypt Maha Ghalwash, 2023-05-16 An alternative reading of the relationship between the state and smallholder peasants in mid nineteenth century Egypt This book examines the rural history of Egypt during the middle years of the nineteenth century a period that is often glossed over or altogether forgotten Drawing on a wide array of archival sources some only rarely utilized by other scholars it argues that state policy targeting the peasant land tenure regime was informed by the dual economic principles of the Ottoman or traditional philosophy of statecraft and that the workings of the relevant regulations did not produce extensive peasant land loss and impoverishment Maha Ghalwash presents a rich detailed analysis of such crucial issues as land legislation tax impositions the system of tax collection modes of land acquisition large scale peasant abandonment of land the emergence of surplus lands the formation of large privileged estates distribution of village land female land inheritance and the nature of peasants political activity In investigating these issues she highlights peasant voices experiences and agential power Traditional interpretations of the rural history of nineteenth century Egypt generally specify an avaricious state so indifferent to peasant well being that it consistently developed harsh policies that led to unremitting extensive peasant impoverishment Through an examination of the relationship between the absolutist state and the majority of its subject population the peasant smallholders during 1848 63 this study shows that these ideas do not hold for the mid century period State Peasants and Land in Mid Nineteenth Century Egypt will be of interest to students of Middle East history especially Egyptian rural history as well as those of peasant studies subaltern studies gender studies and Ottoman rural history Landlessness Radha Sinha,1984-01-01 Major characteristics and causes of landlessness Economic and social condition of the landless and other groups Measures to tackle the problem of landlessness Research priorities and action programmes The Poor Man's Model of Development Christoffel Anthonie Olivier van Nieuwenhuijze,M.
