Desactivar la bomba Andrés Hatum, 2024-06-01 En este libro Andrés Hatum nos sumerge en una fábula de management que revela los peligros de los liderazgos tóxicos y las malas prácticas de una corporación. En sus páginas nos invita a reflexionar sobre los males que acechan en las empresas y ofrece herramientas para construir culturas empresariales que inspiren y transformen desafiando la mediocridad corporativa. Una carta bomba revienta en la cara del CEO de una gran empresa desencadenando una serie de eventos que ponen al descubierto sus más oscuros secretos. Hatum vuelve esta vez a través de la ficción sobre uno de los temas que lo obsesionan: el liderazgo tóxico. Una fábula sardónica y brutal centrada en uno de los grandes males del mundo actual: los malos jefes líderes egocéntricos incapaces de trabajar en equipo rodeados de departamentos de recursos humanos inútiles. Al igual que en este relato hoy buena parte de la agobiada fuerza laboral es una bomba a punto de estallar. Por qué tantos trabajos se convierten en una fuente inagotable de miseria y desdicha. Hatum establece una tipología de los líderes que han hecho de nuestras vidas un infierno. Cómo dismantlar estas malas prácticas. Con un ojo crítico y la dosis exacta de humor negro nos ofrece las herramientas necesarias para despejar las sombras que acechan en los pasillos corporativos. Primero un test para identificar estos comportamientos tóxicos luego una serie de estrategias para hacerles frente. Y finalmente nos propone la construcción activa de una nueva cultura empresarial que priorice valores sobre resultados a corto plazo con líderes que sepan escuchar y resolver.

This volume offers a critical study of a representative selection of Latin American women writers who have made major contributions to all literary genres and represent a wide range of literary perspectives and styles. Many of these women have attained the highest literary honours. Gabriela Mistral won the Nobel Prize in 1945. Clarice Lispector attracted the critical attention of theorists working mainly outside the Hispanic area; others have made such telling contributions to particular strands of literature that their names are immediately evocative of specific currents or styles. Elena Poniatowska is associated with testimonial writing. Isabel Allende and Laura Esquivel are known for the magical realism of their texts; others such as Juana de Ibarbourou and Laura Restrepo remain relatively unknown despite their contributions to erotic poetry and to postcolonial prose fiction respectively. The distinctiveness of this volume lies in its attention to writers from widely differing historical and social contexts and to the diverse theoretical approaches adopted by
