Guide on Agent Orange Maine Agent Orange Information Committee,1986 Improving the Presumptive Disability Decision-Making Process for Veterans Institute of Medicine,Board on Military and Veterans Health,Committee on Evaluation of the Presumptive Disability Decision-Making Process for Veterans,2008-05-15 The United States has long recognized and honored the service and sacrifices of its military and veterans Veterans who have been injured by their service whether their injury appears during service or afterwards are owed appropriate health care and disability compensation For some medical conditions that develop after military service the scientific information needed to connect the health conditions to the circumstances of service may be incomplete When information is incomplete Congress or the Department of Veterans Affairs VA may need to make a presumption of service connection so that a group of veterans can be appropriately compensated The missing information may be about the specific exposures of the veterans or there may be incomplete scientific evidence as to whether an exposure during service causes the health condition of concern For example when the exposures of military personnel in Vietnam to Agent Orange could not be clearly documented a presumption was established that all those who set foot on Vietnam soil were exposed to Agent Orange The Institute of Medicine IOM Committee was charged with reviewing and describing how presumptions have been made in the past and if needed to make recommendations for an improved scientific framework that could be used in the future for determining if a presumption should be made The Committee was asked to consider and describe the processes of all participants in the current presumptive disability decision making process for veterans The Committee was not asked to offer an opinion about past presumptive decisions or to suggest specific future presumptions The Committee heard from a range of groups that figure into this decision making process including past and present staffers from Congress the VA the IOM veterans service organizations and individual veterans The Department of Defense DoD briefed the Committee about its current activities and plans to better track the exposures and health conditions of military personnel The Committee further documented the current process by developing case studies around exposures and health conditions for which presumptions had been made Improving the Presumptive Disability Decision Making Process for Veterans explains recommendations made by the committee general methods by which scientists as well as government and other organizations evaluate scientific evidence in order to determine if a specific exposure causes a health condition Encyclopedia of White-Collar & Corporate Crime Lawrence M. Salinger,2005 In a thorough reappraisal of the white collar and corporate crime scene this Second Edition builds on the first edition to complete the criminal narrative in an outstanding reference resource Socio-Legal Foundations of Civil-Military Relations James B. Jacobs,1986-01-01 Agent Orange ,1982 Dioxins and Health A. Schechter,1994-12-31 This book originated in a series of cross disciplinary conversations in the years 1984 1990 between the editor who is a physician researcher involved in clinical and laboratory research and a dioxin toxicologist During the years in which the conversations took place an extraordinary amount of new scientific literature was published related to dioxins

defined for purposes of this text as the chlorinated dibenzo p dioxins dibenzofurans polychlorinated biphenyls PCBs and other compounds that are structurally and toxicologically similar to 2,3,7,8-tetrachlorodibenzo p dioxin 2,3,7,8-TCDD the most extensively studied and most toxic of this group of chemicals Dioxins also began to interest not only chemists and toxicologists but also specialists from diverse disciplines such as wildlife and environmental science immunology neuroscience public health epidemiology medicine government law sociology and journalism Specialists from such varied disciplines while familiar with their own literature frequently did not have time to follow the dioxin literature outside their specialty area In addition each specialty had unique knowledge methods and perspectives Cross disciplinary conversation was necessary but all too frequently specialists from the various disciplines did not speak the same language resulting in misunderstanding

The Legacy of Vietnam Veterans and Their Families Dennis K. Rhoades, Michael R. Leavack, James C. Hudson, 1996-07 41 papers from 70 authors from the 1994 national symposium on the aftermath of Vietnam Authorities and doctors of medicine and psychology speak out on the effects of Vietnam on vets and their families Topics include the children of vets with post traumatic stress disorder the potential for change in the delivery of services to vets rural vets traumas and transition building on the experiences of the Agent Orange class assistance program lingering consequences of the Vietnam War vet families with children with disabilities or chronic illness etc
