Social and Emotional Aspects of Learning Sanna Jarvela, 2011-02-17 Social and emotional aspects of schooling and the learning environment can dramatically affect one's attention, understanding, and memory for learning. This topic has been of increasing interest in both psychology and education, leading to an entire section being devoted to it in the third edition of the International Encyclopedia of Education. Thirty-three articles from the Encyclopedia form this concise reference which focuses on such topics as social and emotional development, anxiety in schools, effects of mood on motivation, peer learning, and friendship, and social networks. Saves researchers time in summarizing in one place what is otherwise an interdisciplinary field in cognitive psychology, personality, sociology, and education. Level of presentation focuses on critical research, leaving out the extraneous and focusing on need to know information. Contains contributions from top international researchers in the field. Makes MRW content affordable to individual researchers.

The Developmental Science of Adolescence Richard M. Lerner, Anne C. Petersen, Rainer K. No other reference work has this degree of authenticity in presenting the best developmental science of adolescence. The book includes a Foreword by Saths Cooper, President of the International Union of

Psychological Science and autobiographical chapters by the following leading developmental scientists Jeffrey Jensen Arnett Robert Wm Blum Jeanne Brooks Gunn B Bradford Brown Marlis Buchmann John Bynner John Coleman Rand D Conger James E C t William Damon Sanford M Dornbusch Nancy Eisenberg Glen H Elder Jr David P Farrington Helmut Fend Andrew J Fuligni Frank F Furstenberg Beatrix A Hamburg Stephen F Hamilton Karen Hein Klaus Hurrelmann Richard Jessor Daniel P Keating Reed W Larson Richard M Lerner Iris F Litt David Magnusson Rolf Oerter Daniel Offer Augusto Palmonari Anne C Petersen Lea Pulkkinen Jean E Rhodes Linda M Richter Hans Dieter R sler Michael Rutter Ritch C Savin Williams John Schulenberg Lonnie R Sherrod Rainer K Silbereisen Judith G Smetana Margaret Beale Spencer Laurence Steinberg Elizabeth J Susman Richard E Tremblay Suman Verma and Bruna Zani Contemporary Perspectives on Research on Bullying and Victimization in Early Childhood Education Olivia Saracho, 2016-09-01 While the research on bullying and peer victimization has increased considerably over the past 20 years a number of studies are emerging that document mixed results of bullying and prevention programs During the last decades several special issues devoted to research on bullying and victimization have been published in national and international scholarly journals Based on the increase of published articles on bullying and victimization in journals textbooks government reports and documents in professional organizations it is timely for a special volume on research on bullying and victimization to appear in the series on Contemporary Perspectives in Early Childhood Education The purpose of this volume is to share a collection of research strands on bullying and victimization of young children It describes the historical roots and suggests anti bullying programs and strategies to decrease bullying and victimization The bullying and victimization volume can be a valuable tool to researchers who are conducting studies in that area It focuses on important historical and contemporary issues on bullying and victimization in early childhood education ages 0 to 8 to provide the information necessary to make judgments about these issues It also motivates and guides researchers to explore gaps on research on bullying and victimization Television and the Aggressive Child L. Rowell Huesmann, Leonard D. Eron, 2013-06-19 The research presented in this book originally published in 1986 looks to pinpoint the psychological processes involved in the media violence aggression relation Expanding on earlier studies the compilation of essays here delves deeply into aggression study and compares results about media influence across 5 countries Cultural norms and programming differences are investigated as well as age and gender and other factors What is offered overall is a psychological model in which TV violence is both a precursor and a consequence of aggression Helping Children with Aggression and Conduct Problems Michael L. Bloomquist, Steven V. Schnell, 2002-04-17 Comprehensive and up to date this book belongs on the desks of practitioners students researchers and policymakers in clinical child school and developmental psychology child and adolescent psychiatry and social work as well as others working with children and families at risk

Handbook of Parenting: Being and becoming a parent Marc H. Bornstein, 2002 Despite the fact that most people become parents and everyone who has ever lived has had parents parenting remains a mystifying subject about which almost everyone has opinions but about which few people agree Striking permutations on the theme of parenting are emerging single parenthood blended families lesbian and gay parents and teen versus fifties first time moms and dads Divided into four volumes the Handbook of Parenting is concerned with different types of parents basic characteristics of parenting forces that shape parenting problems faced by parents and the practical sides of parenting Contributors have worked in different ways toward understanding all of these diverse aspects of parenting and look to the most recent research and thinking in the field to shed light on many topics every parent has wondered about Because development is too subtle dynamic and intricate to admit that parental caregiving alone determines the course and outcome of ontogeny Handbook of Parenting Marc H. Bornstein, 2005-02-16 Please see Volume I for a full description and table of contents for all four volumes A Report on Longitudinal Evaluations of Preschool Programs: Longitudinal evaluations, by Sally Ryan United States. Office of Child Development, 1974 The Development and Treatment of Childhood Aggression Kenneth H. Rubin, Debra J. Pepler, 2013-05-13 Comprised of papers and commentaries from the Earls court Symposium on Childhood Aggression held in Toronto Canada this volume reflects the Earls court Child and Family Centre s commitment to linking clinical practice to identifiable research based interventions which are known to be effective in the prevention and treatment of antisocial behavior in children The education of human services professionals has typically failed to train individuals to work with specific client populations providing a generalist approach grounded in theoretical assumptions and professional values rather than research and empirical studies This compelling book serves to fill this gap in professional education in the area of childhood aggression Representing substantial accomplishments in the advancement of an understanding of the plight of aggressive children and how best to ameliorate their often unpredictable and painful situations this text allows for cautious optimism that empirical research can have practical consequences for aggressive children and their prospects for a better life As such it is a truly important information resource for professionals in the fields of developmental psychology and counseling Preventing Childhood Disorders, Substance Abuse, and Delinquency Ray DeV Peters, Robert J. McMahon, 1996-06-18 Outcome studies have shown that treatment does not work if administered too late Preventing Childhood Disorders Substance Abuse and Delinquency presents the newest research on the effectiveness of prevention and early intervention programs with children from birth to adolescence The contributors to this volume examine the theory and practice of leading programs designed to prevent social and behavioral problems including violence and substance abuse in children and adolescents The innovative programs analyzed here focus on social skills training for children with conduct disorders anger coping group work for aggressive children parent training programs life skills training for substance abuse prevention and programs for high risk youth and rural populations All designed to intervene before the onset of disorders or to deal effectively with problems when they first appear many of the programs also emphasize strengthening family school and community involvement for successful risk reduction Clinical psychologists and human services professionals who work with children and youths will find Preventing Childhood Disorders Substance Abuse and Delinquency illuminating This book also will be of interest to policy makers who are looking for more effective and efficient interventions to child and adolescent problems
