Active and Healthy Aging and Quality of Life: Interventions and Outlook for the Future, volume II Shekhar Chauhan, Petra Heidler, David Jean Simon, 2024-09-10 The continuous growth of older populations as a consequence of demographic changes is a huge global challenge The growing proportion of older adults not only burdens the healthcare system specifically in developing countries but also posits a challenge at the household level specifically in nuclear and one person households For societies as a whole to avoid costly and negative effects it is crucial to increase their knowledge of how to promote good health among older adults so that they can live longer and enjoy a better quality of life Active aging is the process of optimizing opportunities for health participation and security in order to enhance quality of life as people age An active and healthy life has remained one of the most important aspirations for all people both young and older adults alike This ambition has become a genuine possibility for many due to a rising life expectancy among people of diverse attributes across the world While celebrating longer life and more financial security in later life than ever before we need to challenge how these aspirations can be sustained through our own behavioral responses and through public policy institutional reforms and innovations The challenge is to identify recommend and promote strategies and interventions that stimulate and sustain the activity independence and health of people of all ages especially older adults and in the process promote the well being and quality of life of people and make public welfare systems more sustainable

Active and Healthy Aging and Quality of Life: Interventions and Outlook for the Future Yulan Lin, Waqas Sami, Mila Nu Nu Htay, Sudip Bhattacharya, 2024-04-15 The continuous growth of older adult populations as a consequence of demographic changes is a huge challenge To prevent costly and negative impacts effects on the population as a whole it is crucial that societies increase their knowledge of promoting good health among older adults to promote good health and a better quality of life in their later years Active aging is the process of optimizing opportunities for health participation and security in order to enhance quality of life as people age An active and healthy life has remained one of the most important aspirations for all people both young and older adults alike This ambition has become a genuine possibility for many due to a rising life expectancy among people of diverse attributes across the world While celebrating longer life and with more financial security in later life than ever before we need to challenge how these aspirations can be sustained through our own behavioural responses and through public policy institutional reforms and innovations The challenge is to identify recommend and promote strategies and interventions that stimulate and sustain the activity independence and health of people of all ages especially older adults and in the process promote the well being and quality of life of people and make public welfare systems more sustainable

Quality of Life in Old Age Heidrun Mollenkopf, Alan Walker, 2007-06-13 This book started its life during a symposium we organised on Quality of Life in Old Age at the Fifth Conference of the International Society for Quality of Life Studies ISQOLS in Frankfurt in July 2003 We are extremely grateful to Alex Michalos for sponsoring that session encouraging us to use the symposium presentations as the basis for a book and for his support during the commissioning and editing process We are also very grateful to the authors of this volume for the prompt delivery of their manuscripts and responses to our editorial comments Finally our special thanks to Marg Walker for her expert and efficient preparation of the manuscript for publication Heidrun Mollenkopf Alan Walker Heidelberg Sheffield ix

SECTION I
UNDERSTANDING QUALITY OF LIFE IN OLD AGE ALAN WALKER AND HEIDRUN MOLLENKOPF 1
INTERNATIONAL AND MULTIDISCIPLINARY PERSPECTIVES ON QUALITY OF LIFE IN OLD AGE

Conceptual issues Quality of life QoL is a multidimensional holistic construct assessed from many different perspectives and by many disciplines Moreover the concept of QoL can be applied to practically all important domains of life Thus QoL research has to include social environmental structural and health related aspects and be approached from an interdisciplinary perspective This holds even more when QoL in old age is the focus because ageing itself is a multidimensional process

major emphasis on the views of older people themselves Many of the leading names in social gerontology in the United Kingdom have contributed their findings providing the most up to date and broad ranging information available on quality of life in old age Topics discussed include Defining and measuring quality of life Inequalities in quality of life Technology and the built environment Healthy and active ageing Family and support networks Participation and grandparenthood Growing Older is suitable for undergraduate and postgraduate students of social gerontology sociology and social policy It is of interest to professionals working with older people including social workers gerontology nurses and community support workers There are also important findings for policy makers Contributors Sara Arber Madhavi Bajekal David Blane John Bond Ann Bowling Jabeer Butt Lynda Clarke Joanne Cook Kate Davidson Murna Downs Zahava Gabriel Ini Grewal Catherine Hagan Hennessey Caroline Holland Gill Hubbard Leonie Kellaher Charlotte MacDonald Tony Maltby Jo Moriarty Joan Murphy James Nazroo Sheila M Peace Chris Phillipson Ceridwen Roberts Sasha Scambler Thomas Scharf Allison Smith Susan Tester Christina Victor Alan Walker Lorna Warren

Quality Of Life And Older People Bond, John, Corner, Lynne, 2004-09-01

Quality of life and older people reviews the way that older people talk about their quality of life and how this differs from the ways that younger people researchers and scientists policy makers and professionals discuss it The book challenges the traditional approaches to the meaning and measurement of quality of life in older people by placing older people's accounts at the centre It draws on a range of behavioural and social science knowledge to present a new way of thinking and understanding about quality of life and older people

Care-Related Quality of Life in Old Age Marja Vaarama, Richard Pieper, Andrew Sixsmith, 2007-10-27

The ageing of populations across the world poses a crucial challenge for the twenty first century Society faces three major changes firstly increasing numbers of active older people demanding new social structures and opportunities secondly increasing numbers of frail or disabled older people requiring new interventions and improved health and social care with resulting economic consequences and finally complex economic technological organisational and social challenges involved in the ageing of society If society wants to benefit from these changes innovative social organisational and technological responses are needed This book presents the findings of the Care Keys project Keys for Quality Performance Management of the Care of Older Persons in Europe and is an example of how research can respond to the challenges outlined above Care Keys was the fruit of European Union research funding made possible under the Quality of Life and Management of Living Resources specific programme 1 1998 2002 under the EC's Fifth Framework Programme for Research Technological Development and Demonstration The activity promoting such research was Key Action 6 on the Ageing Population and their Disabilities

Quality of Life Improvement: Smart Approaches for the Working and Aging Populations Sabina Baraković, Zahid Akhtar, Jasmina Barakovic Husic, 2024-03-19

Quality of life QoL is a broad concept that has many definitions and meanings depending on the context under consideration It can be perceived as the overall enjoyment of life and a multidimensional concept which emphasizes the self perceptions of an individual's current state of mind which is affected in a complex way by the person's physical health psychological state personal beliefs social relationships and their relationship to salient features of their environment On the other hand demographic data suggests an increased need for workers worldwide and a rapid aging trend in the active workforce as well as in general This trend of workforce deficit and population aging will be even more prominent in the future Therefore in order to have and sustain a healthy motivated and productive workforce but also healthy independent and active elderly adults one must improve their QoL and vice versa Improving QoL will improve general public health and in turn create communities who can contribute in diverse and positive ways to both promote and sustain health for future generations
