Slaughter, Doctors Wives Disease is not an imaginary ailment For in the closed inbred society of a great medical center these women the wives of superbly successful physicians are driven by loneliness boredom and frustration along forbidden pathways And alcohol drugs and promiscuity become their alternatives to despair A radio bulletin tears the camouflage from the apparent prosperous tranquility of the community A prominent Weston physician has just shot and killed his wife A man with the victim at the time and identified only as another doctor was also seriously wounded Five doctors wives hear the announcement and each one of them comes with despair and terror to realize that her husband himself just might be involved in the scandal either as philanderer or killer Where has trust gone

And where is love Beneath this scandalous and passionate picture of human weakness is a tale perhaps even more striking and that is Dr Slaughter's brilliant minute expert's picture of the urgent business of an ultramodern hospital His descriptions in fascinating detail of a heart operation and a brain operation are breathtakingly suspenseful and based on the most advanced medical and surgical knowledge

The Power of Positive Thought: A Comedic Romance David Shelton, The date is set the church has been booked and invites have gone out to family and friends All the bride needs now is a groom When single woman Alice Albright announces her wedding leaving herself just three months to find a groom everyone thinks she's nuts But as family friends and the LA based motivational guru who inspired her get caught up in the wedding preparations Alice is not the only one whose mentality is questioned Will the Law of Attraction kick in so Alice can walk down the aisle and have the one waiting for her at the end of it simply because thinking it makes it so Or is she about to discover that even a glass half full person can have a bad day
