Mainstream historical accounts of the development of capitalism describe a process which is fundamentally European a system that was born in the mills and factories of England or under the guillotines of the French Revolution In this groundbreaking book a very different story is told How the West Came to Rule offers a interdisciplinary and international historical account of the origins of capitalism It argues that contrary to the dominant wisdom capitalism s origins should not be understood as a development confined to the geographically and culturally sealed borders of Europe but the outcome of a wider array of global processes in which non European societies played a decisive role Through an outline of the uneven histories of Mongolian expansion New World discoveries Ottoman Habsburg rivalry the development of the Asian colonies and bourgeois revolutions Alexander Anievas and Kerem Nisancioglu provide an account of how these diverse events and processes came together to produce capitalism

Profit Mark Stoll, 2022-11-08 Profit getting more out of something than you put into it is the original genius of homo sapiens who learned how to unleash the energy stored in wood exploit the land and refashion ecosystems As civilization developed we found more and more ways of extracting surplus value from the earth often deploying brutally effective methods to discipline people to do the work needed Historian Mark Stoll explains how capitalism supercharged this process and traces its many environmental consequences The financial innovations of medieval Italy created trade networks that with the European discovery of the Americas made possible vast profits and sweeping cultural changes to the detriment of millions of slaves and indigenous Americans the industrial age united the world in trade and led to an energy revolution that changed lives everywhere But when efficient production left society awash in goods a new sort of capitalism predicated on endless individual consumption took its place This story of incredible ingenuity and villainy begins in the Doge s palace in medieval Venice and ends with Jeff Bezos aboard his own spacecraft Mark Stoll s revolutionary account places environmental factors at the heart of capitalism s progress and reveals the long shadow of its terrible consequences

Moving Crops and the Scales of History Francesca Bray, Barbara Hahn, John Bosco Lourdasamy, Tiago Saraiva, 2023-02-14 A bold redefinition of historical inquiry based on the cropscape the people creatures technologies ideas and places that surround a crop Human efforts to move crops from one place to another have been a key driving force in history Crops have been on the move for millennia from wildlands into fields from wetlands to dry zones from one imperial colony to another This book is a bold but approachable attempt to redefine historical inquiry based on the cropscape the assemblage of people places creatures technologies and other elements that form around a crop The cropscape is a method of reconnecting the global with the local the longue dur e with microhistory and people plants and places with abstract concepts such as tastes ideas skills politics and economic forces Through investigating a range of contrasting cropscares spanning millennia and the globe the authors break open traditional historical structures of period geography and direction to glean insight into previously invisible actors and forces Information, Institutions, and Local Government in England, 1550-1700 Paul Griffiths, 2024-01-30 The years between 1550 and 1700 saw significant changes in the nature and scope of local government sophisticated information and intelligence systems were developed magistrates came to rely more heavily on surveillance to inform good government and England's first nationwide system of incarceration was established within bridewells But while these sizeable and lasting shifts have been well studied less attention has been paid to the important characteristic that they shared the turning inside of the title What was happening beneath this growth in activity was a shift from open to closed management of a host of problems from the representation of authority itself to treatment of every kind of local disorder from petty crime and poverty to dirty streets Information Institutions and Local Government in England 1550 1700 explores the character and consequences of these changes for the first time Drawing on wide ranging archival research in 34 archives the book examines the ways in which the notion of representing authority and ethics in public including punishment was increasingly called into question in early modern England and how and why local government officials were involved in this This turning inside was encouraged by insistence on precision and clarity in broad bodies of knowledge culture and practice that had lasting impacts on governance as well as a range of broader demographic social and economic changes that led to deeper poverty thinner resources more movement and imagined or real crime waves In so doing and by drawing on a diverse range of examples the book offers important new perspectives on local government visual representation penal cultures institutions incarceration and surveillance in the early modern period Words at War Andrew Hadfield, Paul Hammond, 2024-02-29 The English Civil War was a war of words as well as a military conflict with supporters of the king and parliament arguing over the meaning of God liberty nature people law and other central concepts Words at War explores these arguments which continue to shape the political and cultural landscape of the modern world

Europe's Living Landscapes Bas Pedroli, Anne van Doorn, Geert de Blust, 2014-12-22 This book is the result of three symposia of the Dutch Society for Landscape Ecology The first symposium in 2005 was about the National Ecological Network in the Netherlands The reason was that the implementation of the NEN decided upon in 1990 was halfway The second symposium in 2006 was about urban ecology and the third one to be held in 2007 will be about civil infrastructure This book does not cover the conferences completely and new contributions are added The three themes are important contexts in which landscape ecologists do their research and apply their knowledge and skills Of course there are many more subjects to hold conferences about for example climate change urbanisation agriculture landscape ecology itself etc The focus of the conferences is on the Netherlands with its urbanisation intensive land use and water management as characteristic features Although many WLO members do their work abroad or in an international context these conferences offer a window on what happens in the Dutch context The experiences may be of value for other contexts and that is why we present the results in English The selected themes and the focus on the Dutch context are serious demarcations of what landscape ecology in the Netherlands is all about The book does not represent all research and applications of landscape ecology

Washington at the Plow Bruce A. Ragsdale, 2021-10-12 George Washington spent most of his time farming often employing experimental methods Washington saw slave powered scientific agriculture as the key to the nation's prosperity Bruce Ragsdale argues that it was slave labor's inefficiency as much as its inhumanity that finally convinced Washington to emancipate the men and women bonded to him

Spacing Law and Politics Leif Dahlberg, 2016-04-20 Examining the inherent spatiality of law both theoretically and as social practice this book presents a genealogical account of the emergence and the development of the juridical In an analysis that stretches from ancient Greece through late antiquity and early modern and modern Europe and on to the contemporary courtroom it considers legal and philosophical texts artistic and literary works as well as judicial practices in order to elicit and document a series of critical moments in the history of juridical space Offering a more nuanced understanding of law than that found in traditional philosophical political or social accounts of legal history Dahlberg forges a critical account of the intimate relations between law and politics that shows how juridical space is determined and conditioned in ways that are integral to the very functioning and malfunctioning of law

Regions and Designed Landscapes in Georgian England Sarah Spooner, 2015-06-26 Garden design evolved hugely during the Georgian period as symbols of wealth and stature the landed aristocracy had been using gardens for decades Yet during the eighteenth century society began to homogenise and the urban elite also started demanding landscapes that would reflect their positions The gardens of the aristocracy and the gentry were different in appearance use and meaning despite broad similarities in form Underlying this was the importance of place of the landscape itself and its raw material Contemporaries often referred to the need to consult the genius of the place when creating a new designed landscape as the place where the garden was located was critical in determining its appearance Genius loci soil type topography water supply all influenced landscape design in this period The approach taken in this book blends landscape and garden history to make new insights into landscape and design in the eighteenth century Spooner's own research presents little known sites alongside those which are more well known and explores the complexity of the story of landscape design in the Georgian period which is usually oversimplified and reduced to the story of a few great men Landless Households in Rural Europe, 1600-1900 Christine Fertig, Richard Paping, Henry French, 2022 First comparative study of landless households brings out their major role in European history and society The numbers of landless people those lacking formal rights to land or possessing only tiny smallholdings grew rapidly across post medieval Europe as rural population and economic growth divided landowners and farmers from increasingly landless rural workers But they have hitherto been relatively neglected a gap which this volume covering Scandinavia Germany Austria Netherlands Belgium Britain France and Spain from the sixteenth to the early twentieth centuries aims to fill making creative use of a diverse range of unexplored sources Instead of concentrating on the well documented cases of landholding peasants it explores the many different experiences of the numerous rural landless It explains how their households were formed often in the face of economic difficulties and official hostility how all the members of a family contributed to its survival how the landless related to other social groups and negotiated access to vital resources and how they adapted as rural society was changed by war politics agrarian and industrial development government policy and welfare systems Contributors Arnau Barquer i Cerd John Broad Dieter Bruneel Christine Fertig Henry French Margareth Lanzinger Jonas Lindstr m Riikka Miettinen Richard Paping Wouter Ronsijn Merja Uotila Nadine Vivier related to other social groups and negotiated access to vital resources and how they adapted as rural society was changed by war politics agrarian and industrial development government policy and welfare systems Contributors Arnau Barquer i Cerd John Broad Dieter Bruneel Christine Fertig Henry French Margareth Lanzinger Jonas Lindstr m Riikka Miettinen Richard Paping Wouter Ronsijn Merja Uotila Nadine Vivier related to other social groups and negotiated access to vital resources and how they adapted as rural society was changed by war politics agrarian and industrial development government policy and welfare systems Contributors Arnau Barquer i Cerd John Broad Dieter Bruneel Christine Fertig Henry French Margareth Lanzinger Jonas Lindstr m Riikka Miettinen Richard Paping Wouter Ronsijn Merja Uotila Nadine Vivier
