Monitoring and Evaluation OECD,2005-06-21 A unique source of up to date estimates of support to agriculture Separate chapters describe and evaluate agricultural policy developments in each OECD member including important developments such as the single payment scheme in EU countries Agricultural Policies in Emerging and Transition Economies 1998

Monitoring and Evaluation OECD,1998-10-06 Evaluates and provides statistical information on agricultural policies including support of emerging and transition economies in 1998 China in the Global Economy Agricultural Policies in China after WTO Accession OECD,2002-09-12 This book presents the proceedings of an OECD conference reflecting on how China can best manage its reform process under WTO integration Distortions to Agricultural Incentives in Europe's Transition Economies Kym Anderson,Johan Swinnen,2008-06-05 The vast majority of the world s poorest households depend on farming for their livelihood During the 1960s and 1970s most developing countries imposed pro urban and anti agricultural policies while many high income countries restricted agricultural imports and subsidized their farmers Both sets of policies inhibited economic growth and poverty alleviation in developing countries Although progress has been made over the past two decades to reduce those policy biases many trade and welfare reducing price distortions remain between agriculture and other sectors as well as within the agricultural sector of both rich and poor countries Comprehensive empirical studies of the disarray in world agricultural markets first appeared approximately 20 years ago Since then the OECD has provided estimates each year of market distortions in high income countries but there has been no comparable estimates for the world s developing countries This volume is the first in a series other volumes cover Africa Asia and Latin America that not only fill that void for recent years but extend the estimates in a consistent and comparable way back in time and provide analytical narratives for scores of countries that shed light on the evolving nature and extent of policy interventions over the past half century Distortions to Agricultural Incentives in Europe s Transition Economies provides an overview of the evolution of distortions to agricultural incentives caused by price and trade policies in the economies of Eastern Europe and Central Asia that are transitioning away from central planning The book includes country and subregional studies of the ten transition economies of Central and Eastern Europe that joined the European Union in 2004 or 2007 of seven other large member countries of the Commonwealth of Independent States and of Turkey Together these countries comprise over 90 percent of the Europe and Central Asia region s population and GDP Sectoral trade and exchange rate policies in the region have changed greatly since the dissolution of the Soviet Union in 1991 but price distortions remain The new empirical indicators in these country studies provide a strong evidence based foundation for evaluating policy options in the years ahead

The European Union's Common Agricultural Policy Reforms

Marko Lovec,2016-08-02 This book engages in the controversies of the European Union's Common Agricultural Policy CAP reforms demonstrating how these are reiterated by mainstream theoretical approaches in the field The reforms that the European Union's CAP underwent during the last three decades were intended to make it less trade distorting more taxpayer friendly and more able to meet the new challenges of environmental concerns and rural development territorial cohesion The outcome of the reforms has however contradicted these objectives with the controversies being reiterated by the mainstream theoretical approaches in the field European Union's Common Agricultural Policy Reforms argues that these controversies are due to reductionist rationalist and idealist assumptions with regard to the object of inquiry applied by mainstream approaches It proposes an alternative critical approach that takes into account the role of real material factors Critical realism is not just an alternative explanation of CAP reforms but an alternative theory of how explanations can be made which enables readers to reflect upon and endorse the results of existing lines of research in proceeding towards deeper
