Agriculture And Trade Liberalisation Extending The Uruguay Round Agreement:

Agriculture and Trade Liberalisation Extending the Uruguay Round Agreement OECD,2002-03-28 This report provides information on the average tariff levels and on the use of tariff rate quotas export subsidies and export credits by selected OECD countries for temperate zone agricultural products Agricultural Policy and Trade Reform The Impact on World Commodity Markets OECD,2007-05-02 The governments of most developed and many developing countries impose border measures tariffs tariff rate quotas and export subsidies to boost the domestic market prices of agricultural commodities In some OECD countries governments also Agricultural Policy and Trade Reform Potential Effects at Global, National and Household Levels OECD,2006-06-16 Using a combination of global national and household level analysis this study examines the potential effects of agricultural policy and trade reform Agricultural Policies in OECD Countries 2002 Monitoring and Evaluation OECD,2002-06-07 This annual publication presents data on the level and composition of support to agriculture and evaluates the extent to which countries are reforming their agricultural policies A special section is devoted to agricultural trade and the implementation of the Uruguay Round Agreement Preferential Trading Arrangements in Agricultural and Food Markets The Case of the European Union and the United States OECD,2005-03-18 Preference erosion has become an important issue in the current WTO trade negotiations The findings in this OECD 2005 report suggest that although this may indeed be a problem for some countries in some sectors factors other than preferential schemes may be limiting developing country exports Sugar Policy Reform in the European Union and in World Sugar Markets OECD,2007-11-27 Presents an overview of world and European sugar markets and how they have evolved and using an economic model analyzes the impact that liberalisation of markets might have Issues in Agricultural Trade Policy Proceedings of the 2014 OECD Global Forum on Agriculture OECD,2015-05-05 This book brings together a collection of papers prepared for the Global Forum on Agriculture that took place at the OECD in December 2014 The Uruguay Round Agreement on Agriculture An Evaluation of its Implementation in OECD Countries OECD,2001-05-03 This book evaluates the implementation of the Uruguay Round on Agriculture how effective it has been and what policy lessons can be drawn

Agricultural Trade Reform and the Doha Development Agenda Kym Anderson,Will Martin,2005-11-16 Providing the most complete and up to date analysis of the range of agricultural issues under negotiation in the multilateral trade negotiations underway in the World Trade Organization WTO this title is a valuable resource to policymakers agricultural private sector and academics in developing and assessing the negotiating options The European Union's Common Agricultural Policy Reforms Marko Lovec,2016-08-02 This book engages in the controversies of the European Union's Common Agricultural Policy CAP reforms demonstrating how these are reiterated by mainstream theoretical approaches in the field The reforms that the European Union's CAP underwent during the last three decades were intended to make it less trade distorting more taxpayer friendly and more able to meet the new challenges of environmental concerns and rural development territorial cohesion The outcome of the reforms has however contradicted these objectives with the controversies being reiterated by the mainstream theoretical approaches in the field European Union s Common Agricultural Policy Reforms argues that these controversies are due to reductionist rationalist and idealist assumptions with regard to the object of inquiry applied by mainstream approaches It proposes an alternative critical approach that takes into account the role of real material factors Critical realism is not just an alternative explanation of CAP reforms but an alternative theory of how explanations can be made which enables readers to reflect upon and endorse the results of existing lines of research in proceeding towards deeper level theory Agricultural Trade and Poverty Making Policy Analysis Count OECD,2003-01-10

This conference proceedings examines how trade liberalisation and rich country farming practices affect the world s poor

Livestock in a Changing Landscape, Volume 1 Henning Steinfeld,Harold A. Mooney,Fritz Schneider,Laurie E. Neville,2013-03-06 The rapidly changing nature of animal production systems especially increasing intensification and globalization is playing out in complex ways around the world Over the last century livestock keeping evolved from a means of harnessing marginal resources to produce items for local consumption to a key component of global food chains Livestock in a Changing Landscape offers a comprehensive examination of these important and far reaching trends The books are an outgrowth of a collaborative effort involving international nongovernmental organizations including the United Nations Food and Agriculture Organization UN FAO the International Livestock Research Institute ILRI the Swiss College of Agriculture SHL the French Agricultural Research Centre for International Development CIRAD and the Scientific Committee for Problems of the Environment SCOPE Volume 1 examines the forces shaping change in livestock production and management the resulting impacts on landscapes land use and social systems and potential policy and management responses Volume 2 explores needs and draws experience from region specific contexts and detailed case studies The case studies describe how drivers and consequences of change play out in specific geographical areas and how public and private responses are shaped and implemented Together the volumes present new sustainable approaches to the challenges created by fundamental shifts in livestock management and production and represent an essential resource for policy makers industry managers and academics involved with this issue Rapid Growth of Selected Asian Economies Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations,2006-01-01 This publication is part of a three volume diagnostic study on lessons learned and implications for agriculture and food security in the context of rapid growth in selected Asian economies This third volume presents the country studies for the Republic of Korea Thailand and Viet Nam It discusses experiences in agricultural development and economic growth The country studies provide useful lessons and insights on agricultural restructuring in response to changing market and trade opportunities These are expected to be of interest to relevant governments policy professionals and development practitioners in crafting national policies and strategies for rapid and sustained agricultural growth to achieve the Millennium Development Goals of poverty and hunger eradication Agricultural Policies in OECD

Countries A Positive Reform Agenda OECD,2002-11-28 This paper sets out the key elements of a positive reform agenda for agricultural policies in OECD countries Its objective is to outline ways in which Member countries can reap the gains of market orientation and open trade while simultaneously addressing a broad range of domestic objectives including those related to farm household incomes the environment food security food safety and the viability of rural areas The paper is forward looking and avoids judgements of specific policies in individual countries Without pre-empting agricultural trade negotiations it considers the economic consequences of alternative approaches to agricultural policy reform Reforming Agricultural Trade for Developing Countries Alex F. McCalla, John D. Nash, 2006-11-09 In the ongoing Doha Development Round of World Trade Organization negotiations developing countries have had much greater leverage due at least in part to their large and growing share of world trade But will the increased influence of developing countries translate into a final agreement that is truly more development friendly What would be key ingredients in such a final outcome of the negotiations and what would the developing countries really get out of it This two volume set seeks to answer these questions This volume Volume 2 addresses the question of how a development friendly outcome to the talks would affect developing countries by quantifying the impact of multilateral trade reform It presents several different approaches to modeling the effects of the outcome of negotiations and then investigates why these and other modeling efforts produce such divergent results Volume 1 is issues oriented It takes up some key questions in the negotiations setting the stage with a historical overview of the Doha Development Agenda to help identify issues of most significance to developing countries and then explores select issues in greater depth Aimed at policymakers and stakeholders this two volume effort puts into the public domain important analytical work that will improve the chance for a pro development outcomes of the Doha round negotiations The Development Dimension Trade, Agriculture and Development Policies Working Together OECD,2006-04-18 These conference proceedings explore why policy coherence is important how it affects global agricultural trade and whether it can help reduce poverty and hunger The Development Dimension Agriculture and Development The Case for Policy Coherence OECD,2005-11-18 Agriculture and Development OECD 2005 discusses the extent to which OECD country agricultural and agricultural trade policies are coherent with and supportive of the achievement of the Millennium Development Goals particularly the elimination of extreme poverty and hunger Agriculture, Trade and the Environment The Pig Sector OECD,2003-10-02 This OECD study takes an in depth look at the pig sector in OECD countries and draws some conclusions about the most appropriate forms of policy intervention It argues that liberalising trade is likely to generate some environmental benefits Agricultural Policy and Enlargement of the European Union A. Burrell, A. Oskam, 2000-09-01 The European Union could soon have up to ten new members from Central and Eastern Europe Harmonisation of agricultural policies will be one of the most difficult chapters in the accession negotiations The outcome will have an important influence on the adjustment of Central and Eastern European agriculture and the development of these transition economies in a wider EU This raises questions like What are the current and future key issues in EU agricultural policy What guidance is provided by the experience gained in previous enlargements And to what extent are negotiating countries constrained by international commitments within the World Trade Organisation After a comprehensive description and evaluation of current EU agricultural and trade policy the second part of the book looks at developments in Central and Eastern European countries in relation to future EU membership Fifteen well known specialists have contributed their up to date knowledge to this book It is aimed at students and lecturers in agricultural and rural policy and in European integration as well as government officials agribusiness executives and organisations with a strong interest in agricultural policy and the widening of the European Union

OECD-FAO Agricultural Outlook 2002 OECD,2002-06-24 The OECD Agricultural Outlook 2002 2007 now in its eighth edition shows that sluggish economic growth weak demand and continued high levels of spending on farm support are slowing the recovery in world prices
