The Good Black Woman Palesa Pitso,2013-09-16 My book addresses the good black woman in general no celebrity stuff just the day to day general life of a Good black woman The title can be very confusing when you read on but thats exactly what I want each and every reader to be Confused Why Good and why Black Good is an Adjective that can mean different things to different people it replaces other much more weighty adjectives such as Outstanding Excellent Fabulous etc Good is having admirable pleasing superior or positive qualities Collins Dictionary Good means morally excellent virtuous righteous suitable or efficient for a purpose I can go on and on describing the word Good Good is just good Black is symbolic to me in the following way Ethnically I am black but also African Black may denote a Race for people whose skin colour ranges from light to darker shades of Brown Interesting Wikimedia In Western fashion Black creates a stylish sexy and powerful fashion statement Several bad incidents have been named Black e g Black Thursday Black Friday Black December Black November etc I live in a country where people are sensitive to being called black others are confused as to whether they are black or not Black symbolizes secrecy ambiguity or the unknown e g Black market Black magic Blackmail etc Black is just Black The book intends to highlight the challenges that are faced by all Good black women I get into their minds their bodies their souls and in their lives be it Church life Married Life Family life Relationships to name a few The book looks at good black women now and is aimed at being interesting to read five to ten years from now on Life has definitely changed for every Good black women now there are so many liberties and yet so many constraints This is rhetoric as the new independent woman generation does not apply across the board. There is so much competition to succeed in the corporate world and so much greed such that other things are compromised i.e. the family, children, relationships, time to play and so forth. The Good black woman delivers an extra-ordinary juxtaposition of women seen as good yet suffering regardless. Chapter One explores men as a Mystery to women in that men is unique and women fail to understand their uniqueness. It also provides insight as to how men view women and how women will like to be viewed by men. Chapter Two is about woman aspiring to be normal in a rather dysfunctional society. It explores how some working women struggle to survive and thus resort to being mistresses amongst other things. It also looks at raising children in the midst of all the social ills being witnessed today. Chapter Three looks at how some women make sacrifices and marry thinking marriage will be a bed of roses only to find that it's a bed of thorns mainly because of abstract reasoning abilities that cause conflict in marriages. It also looks at that the way Chapter Four looks at how women regard divorce as a nightmare in that when they marry they think life will be blissful. However, certain circumstances force women to divorce. Note that the writer mentions other causes of divorce other than physical abuse. Chapter Five is about women who have feelings for other women, feelings that they sometimes explore wrongly. It also looks at the different reasons why women get into such unions that do not last though some do. Chapter Six reveals the other side of women when they betray each other for various reasons. One or two women have encountered one or two forms of betrayal from their friends, family, spouse and so on. Understanding the cause of the betrayal may cause other women to wary of it. This chapter deals with the harsh realities of betrayal. Chapter Seven is about the fear of Loneliness. Need I mention that the more a woman stays in an unhealthy relationship the difficult it is to let go but the latter happens because

Lives of Circumcised and Veiled Women Debangana Chatterjee, 2023-08-11. The book unravels the politics of representation and the process of exoticising women's bodies through the prism of external gaze and knowledge production. It brings out the intricacies of representational discourses around cultural practices of female circumcision (FC), female genital cutting (FGC) and Islamic veiling. Focusing on crucial international legal texts and national legislation, the book gives an overview of the cultural nuances in FC, FGC and juxtaposes it with the Indian variation khafz. The author studies the international veiling narratives that conjure up a fractured discourse containing aspects of colonialism, Islamophobia and Islamic fashion and maps them with the regional variations of Islamic purdah in India. The volume explores the cultural practice of khafz and purdah through narratives in India, portraying how representational factors from international discourses reflect on the Indian context and vice versa. Amid the world of binaries and polarised opinions, the book offers a nuanced analysis of the space in between characterised by narratives from women. By situating women's narratives in relation to family, community, state and international politics, the book explores the global Indian interplay of discourses on FC, FGC and Islamic veiling. This volume will be of interest to scholars, students and readers of gender studies, feminism, cultural and religious studies, sociology, South Asian studies and International Relations.
