Aileen Wuornos, 1992      Serial Killing on Screen Sarah E. Fanning, Claire O'Callaghan, 2022-11-30 This book explores the representation of real life serial murders as adapted for the screen and popular culture Bringing together a selection of essays from international scholars Serial Killing on Screen Adaptation True Crime and Popular Culture examines the ways in which the screen has become a crucial site through which the most troubling of real life crimes are represented re constructed and made accessible to the public Situated at the nexus of film and screen studies theatre studies cultural studies criminology and sociology this interdisciplinary collection raises questions about and implications for thinking about the adaptation and representation of true crime in popular culture and the ideologies at stake in such narratives It discusses the ways in which the adaptation of real life serial murder intersects with other markers of cultural identity gender race class disability as well as aspects of criminology offenders victims policing and profiling and psychology psychopathy sociopathy and paraphilia This collection is unique in its combined focus on the adaptation of crimes committed by real life criminal figures who have gained international notoriety for their plural offences including for example Ted Bundy Ian Brady and Myra Hindley Aileen Wuornos Jack the Ripper and the Zodiac and for situating the tales of these crimes and their victims stories within the field of adaptation studies      Shots in the Mirror Nicole Hahn Rafter, 2006 Criminologist Nicole Rafter analyses the source of the appeal of crime films and their role in popular culture She argues that crime films both reflect and shape our ideas about fundamental social economic and political issues      Illuminating the Dark Side: Evil, Women and the Feminine, 2020-09-25 Evil Women The Feminine The relationships that bring together these three ideas form the basis for the papers gathered together in this volume By asking how why when and to what purpose these three terms are often linked serves as the starting point of interrogation for each of the authors here considered      The Dreadful Acts of Jack the Ripper and Other True Tales of Serial Murder and Prostitutes R. Barri Flowers, From award winning criminologist R Barri Flowers and the bestselling author of Dead at the Saddleworth Moor Prostitution in the Digital Age and The Sex Slave Murders comes the gripping historical true crime book The Dreadful Acts of Jack the Ripper and Other True Tales of Serial Murder and Prostitutes The renowned Ripperologist taps into his expertise on serial murderers and sex trade workers in offering an in depth look at four noteworthy cases in which the two worlds collide frighteningly Jack the Ripper the infamous and unidentified Victorian serial killer of at least five prostitutes in the dangerous section of London known as Whitechapel in 1888 The Ripper who slashed and horribly mutilated his sex worker victims set the tone for diabolical vicious serial slayers to follow for all time Aileen Wuornos was an American prostitute who doubled as a serial killer in murdering seven johns in Florida between 1989 and 1990 She claimed they tried to or succeeded in raping her during the course of prostituting herself In the process Wuornos ended up being apropos for this book as a sex worker and serial predator Kendall Francois was an African American serial killer dubbed the Poughkeepsie Killer who strangled to death eight streetwalker prostitutes in

Poughkeepsie New York between 1996 and 1998 Francois used his own residence as a horrifying house of homicides and burial ground The Edmonton Serial Killer represented one or more mostly unidentified serial killers who targeted and murdered dozens of prostitutes in the city of Edmonton in Alberta Canada between the mid 1970s and the early 2000s and possibly beyond that The sex trade worker victims were often picked up in the city s red light district stroll murdered and dumped in various killing fields in rural areas around Edmonton The book will also chronicle the infamous and colorful 19th century New Orleans prostitute and serial killer Mary Jane Jackson and modern day American serial killers of prostitutes Walter Ellis nicknamed the North Side Strangler and Vincent Johnson dubbed the Brooklyn Strangler Included is a bonus true crime short on Douglas Clark and Carol Bundy a serial killer couple who targeted prostitutes on the Sunset Strip in West Hollywood California as well as excerpts from two fascinating historical true tales of child murder serial murder and jealous rage For fans of true crime tales and literary criminology this gripping volume written by someone with the verisimilitude that the subject matter merits will surely hold your attention from start to finish The Subject of Murder Lisa

Downing,2024-05-31 The subject of murder has always held a particular fascination for us But since at least the nineteenth century we have seen the murderer as different from the ordinary citizen a special individual like an artist or a genius who exists apart from the moral majority a sovereign self who obeys only the destructive urge sometimes even commanding cult followings In contemporary culture we continue to believe that there is something different and exceptional about killers but is the murderer such a distinctive type Are they degenerate beasts or supermen as they have been depicted on the page and the screen Or are murderers something else entirely In The Subject of Murder Lisa Downing explores the ways in which the figure of the murderer has been made to signify a specific kind of social subject in Western modernity Drawing on the work of Foucault in her studies of the lives and crimes of killers in Europe and the United States Downing interrogates the meanings of media and texts produced about and by murderers Upending the usual treatment of murderers as isolated figures or exceptional individuals Downing argues that they are ordinary people reflections of our society at the intersections of gender agency desire and violence Murder Cases of the Twentieth Century David K. Frasier,2024-10-14 From Jack

Henry Abbott who stabbed a waiter through the heart for not allowing him to use the toilet to the Zodiac an unknown California serial killer who may have murdered as many as 37 people this reference work details 280 of the most famous murder cases of the twentieth century Each entry contains when applicable birth and death dates aliases occupation location of the murders weapons used number of victims and the time period when the killings occurred Films plays television shows videos and audio programs based on or inspired by the case are then cited followed by a brief overview of the murder case and a bibliography of English language works related to it Roger Ebert's Movie Yearbook 2007 Roger

Ebert,2013-02-05 The most trusted film critic in America USA Today Roger Ebert actually likes movies It s a refreshing trait in a critic and not as prevalent as you d expect Mick LaSalle San Francisco Chronicle America s favorite movie critic assesses the year's films from Brokeback Mountain to Wallace and Gromit: The Curse of the Were-Rabbit. Roger Ebert's Movie Yearbook 2007 is perfect for film aficionados the world over. Roger Ebert's Movie Yearbook 2007 includes every review by Ebert written in the 30 months from January 2004 through June 2006 about 650 in all. Also included in the Yearbook which is about 65 percent new every year are interviews with newsmakers such as Philip Seymour Hoffman, Terrence Howard, Stephen Spielberg, Ang Lee, and Heath Ledger. Nicolas Cage and more. All the new questions and answers from his Questions for the Movie Answer Man columns. Daily film festival coverage from Cannes, Toronto, Sundance, and Telluride. Essays on film issues and tributes to actors and directors who died during the year.

Crime, Justice and the Media Ian Marsh, Gaynor Melville, 2019-02-18. Crime, Justice and the Media examines and analyses the relationship between the media and crime, criminals, and the criminal justice system. This expanded and fully updated third edition considers how crime and criminals have been portrayed by the media throughout history, applying different theoretical perspectives to the way crime, criminals, and justice are reported. It also includes a new chapter that looks at the influence of film and the cinema on crime and justice. The third edition of Crime, Justice and the Media focuses on the media representation of a range of different areas of crime and criminal justice, including new media technology, e.g. social network sites, moral panics over specific crimes and criminals, e.g. youth crime, cybercrime, paedophilia, media portrayal of victims of crime and criminals, how the media represent criminal justice agencies, e.g. the police and prison service. This book offers a clear, accessible, and comprehensive analysis of theoretical thinking on the relationship between the media, crime, and criminal justice, and a detailed examination of how crime, criminals, and others involved in the criminal justice process are portrayed by the media. With exercises, questions, and further reading in every chapter, this book encourages students to engage with and respond to the material presented, thereby developing a deeper understanding of the links between the media and criminality.

Dear Dawn Aileen Wuornos, 2012-06-26. The chilling autobiography of Aileen Wuornos, the notorious female serial killer who was the subject of an Investigation Discovery special and the Oscar-winning film starring Charlize Theron, Monster. Between 1989 and 1990, Aileen Wuornos, a hitchhiking prostitute, shot, killed, and robbed seven men in remote Florida locations. Arrested in 1991, she was condemned to death on six separate counts and executed by lethal injection in 2002. An abused runaway who turned to prostitution to survive, Wuornos has become iconic of vengeful women who lash out at the nearest target. She has also become a touchstone for women's prostitutes and prisoners' rights advocates. Her story has inspired myriad books and articles, as well as the 2003 movie Monster, for which Charlize Theron won an Academy Award. But until now, Wuornos's uncensored voice has never been heard. Dear Dawn is Wuornos's autobiography, culled from her ten-year death-row correspondence with beloved childhood friend Dawn Botkins. Authorized for publication by Wuornos and edited under the guidance of Botkins, the letters not only offer Wuornos's riveting reflections on the murders legal battles and media coverage but go further revealing her fears and obsessions her rich humor and empathy and her gradual disintegration as her execution approached A candid life story told to a trusted friend Dear Dawn is a compelling narrative unwaveringly true to its source It is both empowering and heartbreaking because Wuornos represents the fury of a wronged girl gone wild whose rage was unleashed on men The Rumpus Serial Homicide Rj

Thinking about the Sexually Dangerous Ellsworth A. Fersch, Ellsworth Lapham Fersch,2006 This volume provides a clear and compelling introduction to one of the most significant topics in society today Compiled by members of a Harvard seminar it directs attention to psychoforensic issues most often raised by the general public and by students of social science and criminal justice The frequently asked questions about the sexually dangerous address conceptions of dangerousness attempts to confine the sexually dangerous psychological theories of causation psychological contributions to treatment media political social and religious reactions and statutory judicial and other legal responses The case examples illustrate a variety of issues surrounding serial spousal child date and statutory rape consensual sadomasochism surgical and chemical castration repressed memory and false confession video voyeurism restricting child pornography the labeling of object and speech and post imprisonment civil confinement in mental hospitals The extensive bibliography directs students and the public interested in further cases and analyses to the important world where psychology and law morality and political and social policy interact This brief and readable book is the first place to look for what most people want to know about the sexually dangerous

Women Who Kill David Roche, Cristelle Maury, 2020-02-20 Women Who Kill explores several lines of inquiry the female murderer as a figure that destabilizes order the tension between criminal and victim the relationship between crime and expression or the lack thereof and the paradox whereby a crime can be both an act of destruction and a creative assertion of agency In doing so the contributors assess the influence of feminist queer and gender studies on mainstream television and cinema notably in the genres film noir horror melodrama that have received the most critical attention from this perspective They also analyse the politics of representation by considering these works of fiction in their contexts and addressing some of the ambiguities raised by postfeminism The book is structured in three parts Neo femmes Fatales Action Babes and Monstrous Women Films and series examined include White Men Are Cracking Up 1994 Hit Gone Girl 2014 Terminator 1984 The Walking Dead 2010 Mad Max Fury Road 2015 Contagion 2011 and Ex Machina 2015 among others

Humanity & Society, 1995 When Women Kill Belinda Morrissey, 2003 Why are we so reluctant to believe that women can mean to kill Based on case studies from the US UK and Australia this book looks at the ways in which female killers are constructed in the media in law and in feminist discourse almost invariably as victims rather than actors in the crimes they commit Morrissey argues that by denying the possibility of female agency in crimes of torture rape and murder feminist theorists are with the best of intentions actually denying women the full freedom to be human Case studies cover among others the battered wife Pamela Sainsbury who garrotted her husband as he slept the serial killer Aileen Wournos who killed seven middle aged men in Florida between 1989 and 1990 Tracey Wiggington the so called lesbian vampire killer and Karla Homolka who helped her husband kill two teenage girls in St Catherines Ontario in 1993

The Advocate, 2003-12-23 The Advocate is a lesbian gay bisexual transgender LGBT monthly newsmagazine Established in 1967 it is the oldest continuing LGBT publication in the United States

Gendering History on Screen Julia Erhart, 2018-03-05 Movies about significant historical personalities or landmark events like war seem to be governed by a set of unspoken rules for the expression of gender Films by female directors featuring female protagonists appear to receive particularly harsh treatment and are often criticised for being too emotional and incapable of expressing real history Through her examination of films from the United States Europe Australia and elsewhere Julia Erhart makes powerful connections between the representational strategies of women directors such as Kathryn Bigelow Ruth Ozeki and Alexandra von Grote and their concerns with exploring the past through the prism of the present She also compellingly explores how historiographical concepts like valour memory and resistance are uniquely re envisioned within sub genres including biopics historical documentaries Holocaust movies and movies about the War on Terror Gendering History on Screen will make an invaluable contribution to scholarship on historical film and women s cinema
