Aimée & Jaguar Erica Fischer, 1998 Excerpts A letter from Lilly to Felice March 31st 1943 Felice I love you What a feeling it is to be able to say that Oh Felice the nicest fate I could hope for is that of lasting happiness I want to live with you for a long a very long time do you hear And life is so beautiful so wonderful Felice do you belong to me without limit To me only Please say you do at least for a very long time to come please Do you love me I m acting like a seventeen year old aren't I Be good to me Felice please And yet please don't hold back I wanted to lure you out of your hiding place I am like a child playing with fire will I get burned A little Totally Felice stop me Isn't it just a little bit your fault that I m so crazy so totally crazy A poem from Felice to Lilly Christmas 1943 That there was a time before you I can't believe To me we've forever been this way Together side by side in life and in dreams Surrounded both by darkness and the light of day You belong to me Since you arrived And slowly at first then full of trust Placed your heart in my hands I have strived For the strength to build a life for us So I have hope for days yet to come As this year nods and slips into air Because before me like some emblem I carry the copper gleam of your hair Extract The Vow January 30th 1943 the tenth anniversary of Hitler's seizure of power Hermann Goering's speech to Berliners was delayed for two hours because British scout planes were flying over the city in broad daylight for the first time Four days after Goering declared his certainty of victory the remaining German troops trapped in Stalingrad capitulated Accompanied by funereal music the defeat was announced on the radio On February 18th Reichspropaganda minister Goebbels spurred the German people to make a greater effort In a Declaration of fanatical Will at the Berlin Sportpalast he announced the Salvation of Germany and the whole of civilisation through total war In memory of the victims of the Russian campaign a three minute traffic stoppage was declared At the Zoo station people stood stock

Lost Intimacies William J. Spurlin, 2009 Lost Intimacies Rethinking Homosexuality under National Socialism uses queer theory as a hermeneutic tool with which to read against the grain of heterotextual narratives of the Holocaust and as a way of locating alternative pathways of meaning in dominant Holocaust research Specifically addressing the racialization of sexuality the book asks how the politics of sexuality can be more explicitly and systematically theorized along with state sanctioned homophobia under Nazism with a clear recognition that homophobia seldom operated alone but worked in conjunction with other axes of power including race gender eugenics and population politics In theorizing gender and sexuality as entangled axes of analysis the book allows the specificity of lesbian difference to emerge and challenges the received wisdom that lesbians were not as systematically persecuted under National Socialism William J Spurlin questions the wisdom of received scholarship that reduces Nazi fascism to latent homosexuality and examines the possible implications of Nazi homophobia and its imbrication with other deployments of power for the study of contemporary culture where the homophobic impulse continues to reverberate thereby challenging understandings of history steeped in notions of progressive modernity Women in German Yearbook Women in German Yearbook, 2003-03-31 Women in German

Lives of Lesbian Elders J Dianne Garner, D. Merilee Clunis, Pat A. Freeman, Nancy M. Nystrom, Karen I. Fredriksen-Goldsen, 2014-07-16 The untold history of lesbian life from those who have lived it Lives of Lesbian Elders Looking Back Looking Forward illuminates the hopes fears issues and concerns of gay women as they grow older Based on interviews with 62 lesbians ranging in age from 55 to 95 this very special book provides a historical account of the shared experiences of the lesbian community that is so often invisible or ignored in contemporary society The book gives voice to their thoughts and feelings on a wide range of issues including coming out identity and the meaning of life the role of family and personal relationships work and retirement adversity and individual sources of strength and resilience Cast off and overlooked at best or victims of scorn and prejudice at worst lesbians in the twentieth century lived dual lives their full voices unheard until now Lives of Lesbian Elders chronicles the life choices they made and their reasons for making them set against the contexts of culture politics and the social mores of the eras in which they lived Their stories of courage resilience resourcefulness pride and independence help restore lesbian history that has been forgotten distorted or disregarded and provide the information necessary to meet the future needs of aging lesbians Lives of Lesbian Elders gives aging lesbians a chance to discuss their thoughts on a variety of topics including Coming out You didn't talk about it Until two years ago I never even referred to a lesbian or would I allow the word to pass my lips I used to sneak into libraries and read about homosexuality and back in that era it was not classy it was classified as a disorder of some type Identity The only difference between me and anybody else is that I just happen to be sleeping with a woman I think I grew up not really knowing who I was and I think probably fighting all my life trying to find out who I was

Family I feel very connected with the lesbian community here I guess I would call that family Many years ago my sister said I think when they're ready you need to explain to the nieces what a lesbian is because I want them to hear the correct story I want them to hear what it really is and not all these stupid rumors that go around

Work I was going to become a youth minister at one point and it dawned on me in high school that there was no way the church was going to let me work with kids I didn't really finish my career I still have dreams about the military and about not finishing It was my choice but it wasn't really my choice

Aging and the Future I think financing of course is a real big problem for lesbian women I have a concern that if anything should happen to my partner in growing older of being isolated from the gay community and much more

Lives of Lesbian Elders Looking Back Looking Forward also includes appendices that present demographic data on the women who were interviewed for the book information on historical timelines and suggested readings on lesbian history The book is an invaluable addition to the growing collective history of lesbians in the United States
