Air Force Spoken Here 1st Edition:

Marshal of the Royal Air Force Sir Charles Portal Richard Michael Milburn, 2025-08-05 Charles Frederick Algernon Portal was born in Hungerford England in 1893 One of seven brothers Portal developed a fierce competitive streak and a steely determination from an early age Known by all who knew him as Peter Portal enlisted in the Army at the outbreak of the First World War as a dispatch rider being mentioned in General French's very first dispatch Portal's abilities were quickly recognized and he gained a commission in short order It was in the air that Portal saw his future and he subsequently transferred to the Royal Flying Corps initially as an observer before training as a pilot In this latter role Portal proved a courageous and instinctive leader garnering the rare accolade of a DSO and Bar for his wartime service His meteoric rise continued in the inter war period and when Hitler's forces invaded Poland Portal had already ascended to the Air Force Board He then took the RAF's top command post at Bomber Command during the battles of France and Britain before replacing Cyril Newall as Chief of Air Staff aged just 47 in October 1940 Charles Portal was in General Eisenhower's words Britain's greatest wartime leader including Churchill Portal was a strategist a diplomat and an outstanding leader of the RAF in the Second World War He built productive and enduring relationships with the most powerful Allied leaders some of which including Churchill Bomber Harris and Hap Arnold are explored here Portal helped direct the UK's strategy from the darkest days of 1940 through to Allied victory in 1945 He never lost his calm even under the most extreme pressure and approached the war with a cool logic that defied the chaos of the day Despite his enormous achievements and being showered with post war accolades Portal is little known today His historical anonymity is a reflection of his disinterest in his own legacy He neither kept wartime diaries nor penned an egotistical autobiography to cash in on his post war fame He retired as he had served with dignity and humility traits that made him particularly influential with American allies As Wing Commander Rich Milburn reveals in this long overdue second biography Charles Portal was a hero in every sense a heroic battlefield leader in one global conflict and one of the men most directly responsible for Allied victory in a second
