Air and Angels John Donne, 2007-06 JOHN DONNE SELECTED POEMS A selection of the finest poems by British poet John Donne John Donne was Robert Graves said a Muse poet a poet who wrote passionately of the Muse It is easy to see Donne as a love poet in the tradition of love poets such as Bernard de Ventadour Dante Alighieri Francesco Petrarch and Torquato Tasso Donne has written his fair share of love poems There are the bawdy allusions to the phallus in The Flea while The Comparison parodies the adoration poem with references to the sweat drops of my mistress breast Like William Shakespeare in his parody sonnet my mistress eyes are nothing like the sun Donne sends up the Petrarchan and courtly love genre with gross comparisons Like spermatoc issue of ripe menstruous boils In The Bait there is the archetypal Renaissance opening line Come live with me and be my love as used by Christopher Marlowe and William Shakespeare among others And there is the complex ambivalent eroticism of The Extasie a much celebrated love poem and the 19th Elegy where features Donne's famous couplet Licence my roving hands and let them go Before behind between above below The Songs and Sonnets of John Donne celebrate the many emotions of love feelings that are so familiar in love poetry from Sappho to Adrienne Rich Donne does not quite cover every emotion of love but a good deal of them In The Canonization we find the age old Neo platonist belief that two can become as one we two being one or we shall Be one he writes in Lovers Infiniteness a common belief in love poetry John Donne's love poetry like nearly all love poetry self reflexive Although he would never parted be as he writes in Song Sweetest love I do not go he knows that love poetry comes out of loss The beloved woman is not there so art takes her place The Songs and Sonnets arise from loss loss of love they take the place of love For if he were clasping his beloved in those feverish embraces as described in The Extasie and Elegy he would not obviously bother with poetry Love poetry has this ambivalent difficult relationship with love The poem is not love and is no real substitute for it And writing of love exacerbates the pain and the insecurity of the experience of love

The Facts on File Companion to British Poetry Virginia Brackett, 2008 Presents a comprehensive A to Z reference with approximately 400 entries providing facts about British poets and their poetry from the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries Air and Angels Susan Hill, 1999 Celibate irreproachable and distinguished Thomas Cavendish is in his mid fifties and the obvious man to become Master of his college But walking by the river Thomas sees a young girl standing on the bridge It is an apocalyptic vision one that alters Thomas's life irrevocably and tragically but with the beauty of the joy of a love never previously imagined The Calligrapher Edward Docx, 2005 A modern tale of sexual mores and city life Edward Docx's debut is a witty novel of spurned lovers elaborately planned seduction plotted revenge and surprising secrets Air & Space, 1980 Of Love and Angels Christian Alexander Barkman, 2023-04-12 Of Love and Angels Poems for My Fiance is a love gift made by the author to celebrate his engagement It is a collection of thirty love poems that melds romantic earthly love with the love of God and the divine The poetry attests to the sacredness of romantic love as a spiritual venture in our increasingly disenchanted world The use of verse forms such as the heroic couplet and ballad and the application of traditional methods of rhyme and meter is a deliberate attempt to reconnect with the musicality of past poetics to the lyric traditions of poetry and hymn in which Christianity is so abundantly rich Free verse compositions also feature throughout the collection and present an opportunity for contemplation on how both old and new forms alike can express romantic and spiritual sentiment in a way that resonates powerfully with our contemporary ways of life Angelswiki - A Dictionary of Angels Raymond McMahon,2009-09-26

This dictionary was written to help people learn who the Angels are and show how they can be asked for assistance and guidance Angels always want to help and can be called upon to bring happiness into our lives This book is not a religious book as Angels are prepared to work with anyone regardless of their religious beliefs or opinions Many of us are aware of the main Archangels Michael Gabriel Raphael and Uriel but there are many other Angels who want to help You will see that in this book every page is dedicated to a different Angel so you can learn about a new Angel everyday of the year You can also consider the different thoughts of the day which will help you to look at different aspects of your own life in more detail

John Donne John Donne,2000 This authoritative edition was formerly published in the acclaimed Oxford Authors series under the general editorship of Frank Kermode It brings together a unique combination of Donne s poetry and prose all the major poems complemented by rarely published letters and extracts from Donne s sermons to give the essence of his work and thinking John Donne 1572 1631 is today celebrated as one of the greatest of the metaphysical poets whose verse was daringly original and whose use of imagery and conceits marked a new intellectual approach to poetry His Satires Elegies and Songs and Sonnets which contain his most famous love poems were complemented by his religious writing both verse and prose He was one of the most renowned preachers of his day and this volume does equal justice to the full range of his work In addition to nearly all his English poetry this volume includes over 130 extracts from Donne s sermons as well as the full text of his last sermon Death s Duel A distinguishing feature of the selection is that the works are arranged in the chronological order of their composition Disknowledge Katherine Eggert,2015-10-29 Katherine Eggert explores the crumbling state of humanistic learning in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries and the benefits of relying on alchemy despite its recognized flaws The Business of Reading Julian Lovelock,2022-01-01 In The Business of Reading Julian Lovelock charts the development of the English novel over the past hundred years Smuggling in titles from Scotland Ireland and the Caribbean he focuses on twenty texts written since the end of the First World War some well known but others less so placing them in their historical context Novelists represented range from D H Lawrence E M Forster and Virginia Woolf through Graham Greene Kingsley Amis and Iris Murdoch to such contemporary writers as Ian McEwan Maggie O Farrell and Graham Swift Written in a lucid style that reflects his expertise and enthusiasm Lovelock s innovative selection perceptive analysis and lightness of touch will appeal to the general reader the book club member and the student He argues that our response as readers is an important part of the creative process and while he mainly avoids the critical isms that have characterised recent academic debate he introduces such concepts as intertextuality metafiction and the role of the often unreliable narrator showing how an appreciation of the way the language of fiction works can only add to our understanding and enjoyment

Sanctity and Environment in Ethiopian Hagiography Abate Gobena,2023-10-04 The original forests of the central and northern highlands of Ethiopia are almost entirely confined to the sacred groves surrounding the churches and monasteries of the Ethiopian Orthodox Tewahido Church In Ethiopian tradition sanctity starts from the Tabot on the altar of the church and extends to the outer periphery of the compound Church forests serve as shade and shelter for the sacred and are seen as integral parts of the churchyard The Act of Gebre Menfes Qiddus GGMQ is an original Ethiopic hagiographic text It depicts the life and struggle of the saint in the wilderness of forests and mountains Hagiographic texts like GGMQ are in Ethiopia not mere historical records but texts linked to the daily liturgical services that shape and mould the perceptions and actions of their readers and listeners The aim of the thesis is to analyse how GGMQ presents the relation between the saint and the natural environment in order to see if there is a correlation with how the Ethiopian tradition has preserved the church forests and has considered these to be sacred spaces representing the wilderness The aim is achieved through a close reading of the text and its intertexts using four selected themes as analytical instruments ascetic estrangement coexistence with non human creation identification with the angels and reconciliation of opposites The analysis and the fact that the GGMQ is one of the most venerated texts read and heard with great liturgical solemnity show that there are good reasons to believe that the constant reading of GGMQ has made and makes a significant impact upon the readers views on the mutual co habitation of human and non human creation and the development of an awareness of the need to preserve the wilderness and non human creation      "A" Dictionary of the English Language R. G. Latham,1871      The Songs and Sonets of John Donne John Donne,2009 There may be no finer edition of Donne s Songs and Sonets than Redpath s annotated volume Out of print for a decade it is reprinted here in its second revised edition The book s twofold origin is evident on every page of commentary it arises partly from a life of scholarship and partly from Redpath s experiences as a teacher
