Anger And Assertiveness In Pastoral Care:

Anger and assertiveness in the pastoral care David W. Augsburger, 1970 Anger and Assertiveness in Pastoral Care David W. Augsburger, 1979 Pastoral Care of Battered Women Rita-Lou Clarke, 1986-01-01 As Howard Clinebell states in his forward the problem of battered women is a tragedy that has reached epic proportions in our society Recognizing that it is pastors to whom abused women will often turn for help and that their advice can be counterproductive Rita Lou Clark directs this important book to them She provides a thorough and clear discussion of the problem and gives practical guidance for care considering such topics as the crisis situation couple counseling and help for the abusers Basic Types of Pastoral Care & Counseling Howard John Clinebell, Howard Clinebell, Bridget Clare McKeever, 2011 Basic Types of Pastoral Care and Counseling remains the standard in pastoral care and counseling This third edition is enlarged and revised with updated resources methods exercises and illustrations from actual counseling sessions This book will help readers be sensitive to cultural diversity ethical issues and power dynamics as they practice holistic growth oriented pastoral care and counseling in the parish Speak Up! Christian Assertiveness, 1985-01-01 In situations involving confrontation many Christians either explode and feel guilty or suppress their convictions and become depressed Here now is a way to counteract these experiences a how to guide to assertiveness based on sound evangelical principles Practical Psychology for Pastors, 2nd Edition William R. Miller, Kathleen A. Jackson, 2010-05-01 This practical handbook takes a totally fresh approach to the work of pastoral counselors by drawing on recent research and developments in the health and behavioral sciences Thoroughly revised and updated this edition incorporates new or expanded coverage of topics such as a new chapter on Pastoral Self Care which offers advice on maintaining psychological health avoiding crisis and preventing personal and occupational burnout the integration of counseling with other pastoral roles and functions pastoral counseling ethics how to help people build personal motivation for change grief counseling and crisis intervention post traumatic stress physical and sexual abuse and personality disorders Assertiveness, Individuation & Autonomy Paula M. Potter, 2007

Doing Integrative Theology Myk Habets, Phil Halstead, 2016-02-09 The doing of theology comes in many different guises and styles This volume is concerned with Integrative Theology a discipline which serves participation in the mission of God It is a practice of discernment by which we aim to be attentive to God in God's world God's word and God's work so as to grow in our understanding of what God wants for and is doing in the world We seek this knowledge so that we may align ourselves with God's desire in relation to specific realities and issues and serve what we discern to be God's purpose with wisdom and courage When we do that we are participating in the mission of God By means of an explanation of Integrative Theology its aims goals and methods and then through a series of essays illustrating the results of such a theology this volume serves as a textbook for doing Integrative Theology Students and faculty alike will find in this volume a valuable resource for doing theology in the early twenty first century Love Letter to a Conflicted Church Richard P.

Olson,2010-01-01 The book is organized into three divisions and as the title implies there is a brief letter in the form of a New Testament epistle to the contemporary church a portion of which begins each chapter The first division reexamines the gifts and redemptive possibilities of anger and conflict The barriers to healthy anger conflict are considered and addressed In the second attention is given to conflicts surrounding the Bible There is a chapter on conflict and reconciliation in the Bible followed by suggestions on how people who read the Bible differently from each other can resolve some of those differences Consideration is also given to discovering biblical priorities for the contemporary church The third division offers vistas of change and reconciliation Parables of hope and promise are provided Insights from the studies of persons and communities as well as ethics and theology are summarized There is reflection on those unresolved conflicts that continue in spite of our best efforts Then moral imagination is engaged to visualize the opportunities for a church that moves beyond its present stalemates

Helping Angry People Glenn Taylor,Rod Wilson,2003 Anger is one of the most common problems counselors face What does the Bible say about it Is all Anger sin Is there a way to turn anger into something positive Glenn Taylor and Rod Wilson bring their pastoral teaching and counseling experience to bear on the various issues surrounding anger and provide a step by step biblically based approach to helping people understand and deal with their anger Helping Angry People follows the counseling model developed by clinical psychologist David G Benner for pastoral counselors This model is short term enhanced by outside reading assignments carefully structured holistic spiritually focused explicitly Christian After giving a brief overview of this model the authors present a five session format that guides counselors through a hypothetical counseling situation from initial encounter through counselees feelings thoughts and behaviors to the process of referral and termination Helping Angry People together with its companion handout for counselees Exploring Your Anger is perfectly suited for pastors who want to counsel in a psychologically informed way that also emphasizes the spiritual resources of Christian ministry Glenn Taylor M Th M Ed has been Counselor consultant and researcher in missions for many years with the Missionary Health Institute Toronto Rod Wilson Ph D York University is President and Professor of Counseling and Psychology at Regent College in Vancouver British Columbia

Exploring Your Anger Rod Wilson,Glenn Taylor,2003-03-15 Dealing with anger is one of the most common counseling problems among Christians Is anger harmful or helpful What does it mean and where does it come from How can we handle our emotions and move from anger to forgiveness This book is designed as a useful tool both for those who struggle with anger and for counselors who need a practical and accessible handout for their counselees In Exploring Your Anger the authors use true to life situations to illustrate the dynamics of anger and to help the reader understand manage and respond to anger In a readable nontechnical narrative style they stress that the cause and expression of anger are unique to each individual Detailed questions following each chapter enable readers to reflect on their own personal experiences and provide thoughtful material for counseling sessions

The Hidden World of the Pastor Kenneth L. Swetland,2007-01-08 There is no question that pastors are under great stress today Difficulties tear at the heart of the pastor but are often hidden from the view of the congregation Kenneth Swetland presents a compelling look at this hidden world through true stories from pastors of different ages and from different parts of the country various denominations and diverse backgrounds Meet Pete Dirk Norm Ted and others who face such problems as depression sexual sin family concerns friction in staff relationships gender and leadership conflicts debt and divorce The thirteen case studies can be read alone or used by groups of pastors and or students for discussion Reading and discussing the case studies will give insight into the pastor s own problems Having worked through their own concerns they will be better equipped to minister to others Laypeople would also benefit from reading the cases to gain deeper understanding of the world of pastoring and to learn when to offer support and counsel to their own pastors The Hidden World of the Pastor includes bibliographic entries as well as an appendix on how to teach a case study

Reckoning with Aggression Kathleen J. Greider,1997-01-01 Aggression is ambiguous in our society according to Kathleen Greider While giving us strength to fight the world s social ills or to create vital and powerful lives aggression can also lead to rage and violence Thus society has often viewed aggression as evil or sinful Greider wants Christians to repair their view of aggression and realize that aggression is what can spur them to make the world better In exploring aggression from feminist pastoral and theological perspectives Greider examines the relationships between violence and vitality passion and aggression and finds that Christians can be strong without being destructive

Ministry Resources for Pastoral Care Marilyn Kielbasa,2004 At the heart of Ministry Resources for Pastoral Care are twelve sessions designed to equip young people with the tools needed to celebrate their holy goodness and navigate some of life s difficult issues The topics of the sessions include recognizing the goodness in oneself and others building and maintaining relationships dealing with tough times and preparing for the future The last section of the manual includes a compilation of strategies for doing the on going work of pastoral care Each manual in the Total Youth Ministry series includes a CD containing its electronic version customizable handouts and theme related links
