

Anglo Saxon and the Middle english prose:

- ANGLO SAXON CHRISTIAN PROSE:

At first, prose was only in Latin, or followed by vernacular English. Bede, who was born in Northumbria, wrote almost always in latin but at the end of the 9^o century Latin began to be replaced by the vernacular. His best work is Historia Ecclesiastica Gentis Anglorum that gives information about the early history of Anglo Saxon.

King Alfred translated the most important latin works including Ecclesiastical History; he wanted to give his people the basis of the European culture.
