Animal Equality Language And Liberation:

Animal Equality Joan Dunayer, 2001 The first book on language and nonhuman oppression and the most progressive animal rights book to date Animal Equality shows that deceptive biased words sustain injustice toward nonhuman animals Speciesism prejudice against nonhuman animals survives through lies The book's compelling evidence of nonhuman thought and emotion debunks language that characterizes other animals as unreasoning or insensitive Vivid descriptions of hunting sport fishing zoos aqua prisons vivisection and food industry captivity and slaughter reveal the cruelty that misleading words legitimize and conceal Animal Equality also uncovers the speciesist attitudes and practices underlying much sexist and racist language Every animal nonhuman or human deserves equal consideration and protection Joan Dunayer argues Offering pronoun vocabulary and style guidelines she proposes new language that will bring us closer to nonhuman liberation

Animals as Experiencing Entities Michael J. Glover, Les Mitchell, 2024-03-04 This volume explores the experiences of those with little or no power usually although not exclusively animals The theme of animals as experiencing entities is what links the chapters and characterises the volume Broadly each author in this volume contributes in one of two ways The first group in Section 1 theoretically engages animal subjectivity animal experiences and ways in which these are to some extent accessible and knowable to humans The second group of authors in Section 2 offer narrative accounts about specific animals or groups of animals and explore to some extent their subjective historical experiences In summary the first section diversely theorises about animal experiences while the second section's authors assume animals subjective experiences and construct narratives that take into account how animals might have subjectively experienced historical phenomena Animal

Suffering: Philosophy and Culture E. Aaltola, 2012-07-31 Exploring how animal suffering is made meaningful within Western ramifications the book investigates themes such as skepticism concerning non human experience cultural roots of compassion and contemporary approaches to animal ethics At its center is the pivotal question What is the moral significance of animal suffering bibliographies annotated lists and short commentaries by the authors on nearly every item you ll be able to supply your patrons with a highly effective animal rights welfare collection      A Primer on Animal Rights Kim W. Stallwood,2002 A stirring document on how animals are cruelly mistreated and commercially exploited for profit The articles lay out the fundamental issues of animal rights The book contains work by some of the leading authorities on animal protection issues including Jim Mason Marc Bekoff Mike Markarian Betsy Swart Norm Phelps Wayne Pacelle Pat Derby Gene Bauston Karen Davis Richard Schwartz Don Barnes and many others All articles are up to date and full of important facts      Creature Discomfort Scott M. DeVries,2016-05-02 In Creature Discomfort Fauna criticism Ethics and the Representation of Animals in Spanish American Fiction and Poetry Scott M DeVries uncovers a tradition in Spanish American literature where animal ethical representations anticipate many of the most pressing concerns from present debates in animal studies The author documents moments from the corpus that articulate long standing positions such as a defense of animal rights or advocacy for liberationism that engage in literary philosophical meditations concerning mind theory and animal sentience and that anticipate current ideas from Critical Animal Studies including the rejection of hierarchical differentiations between the categories human and nonhuman Creature Discomfort innovates the notion of fauna criticism as a new literary approach within animal studies this kind of analysis emphasizes the reframing of literary history to expound animal ethical positions from literary texts both those that have been considered canonical as well as those that have long been neglected In this study DeVries employs fauna criticism to examine nonhuman sentience animal interiority and other ethical issues such as the livestock and pet industries circuses zoos hunting and species extinction in fictional narrative and poetry from the nineteenth century modernista Regional indigenista and contemporary periods of Spanish American literature      Animals and Ethics - Third Edition Angus Taylor,2009-05-27 Can animals be regarded as part of the moral community To what extent if at all do they have moral rights Are we wrong to eat them hunt them or use them for scientific research Can animal liberation be squared with the environmental movement Taylor traces the background of these debates from Aristotle to Darwin and sets out the views of numerous contemporary philosophers including Peter Singer Tom Regan Mary Anne Warren J Baird Callicott and Martha Nussbaum with ethical theories ranging from utilitarianism to eco feminism The new edition also includes provocative quotations from some of the major writers in the field As the final chapter insists animal ethics is more than just an academic question it is intimately connected both to our understanding of what it means to be human and to pressing current issues such as food shortages environmental degradation and climate change      Animals and Ethics Angus Taylor,2003-05-12 A previous edition of this book appeared under the title Magpies Monkeys and Morals The new edition has been updated throughout Substantial new material has been added to the text including discussions of virtue ethics and Rawlsian contractarianism The bibliography has been significantly enlarged and now includes more than five hundred entries

on multiculturalism racism and the interests of nonhuman animals Each are in their own right rapidly growing and controversial fields of enquiry but how do multiculturalism and racism intersect with the debate concerning animals and their interests This a deceptively simple question but on that is becoming ever more pressing as we examine our societal practices in a pluralistic world Collating the work of a diverse group of academics from across the world the book includes writing on a wide range of subjects and addressing contemporary issues in this critical arena Subjects covered include multiculturalism group rights and the limits of tolerance ethnocentrism and animals racism and discrimination and non Western alternatives to animal rights and welfare The book will be of interest to researchers lecturers and advanced students as well as range of social justice organisations government institutions animal activist organisations and environmental groups Food Futures in Education and Society Gurbinder Singh Lalli, Angela Turner, Marion Rutland, 2023-07-11 This book brings together a unique collection of chapters to facilitate a broad discussion on food education that will stimulate readers to think about key policies recent research curriculum positions and how to engage with key stakeholders about the future of food Food education has gained much attention because the challenges that influence food availability and eating in schools also extend beyond the school gate Accordingly this book establishes evidence based arguments that recognise the many facets of food education and reveal how learning through a future s lens and joined up thinking is critical for shaping intergenerational fairness concerning food futures in education and society This book is distinctive through its multidisciplinary collection of chapters on food education with a particular focus on the Global North with case studies from England Australia the Republic of Ireland the United States of America Canada and Germany With a focus on three key themes and a rigorous food futures framework the book is structured into three sections i food education pedagogy and curriculum ii knowledge and skill diversity associated with food and health learning and iii food education inclusivity culture and agency Overall this volume extends and challenges current research and theory in the area of food education and food pedagogy and offers insight and tangible benefits for the future development of food education policies and curricula This book will be of great interest to students scholars policymakers and education leaders working on food education and pedagogy food policy health and diet and the sociology of food Animals at work Lindsay Hamilton, Nik Taylor, 2013-05-15 Animals at Work is founded upon a broad and unique variety of empirical research settings animal sanctuaries farms slaughter houses veterinary practices and behind the scenes of a natural history documentary film making team Hamilton and Taylor apply a breadth of post structural and post humanist theories to establish what happens when animal agents are brought into human networks and spaces of representation and the artful ways in which they become integral in shared human meaning making Interrogating the apparent boundaries of meaning between animals and humans by taking a close up view of those working with animals in a variety of occupational settings the book enjoys a rare and original range of empirical research contexts from British dairy farms to the jungles of Borneo Science and the Self Ian James Kidd, Liz McKinnell, 2015-08-27 Mary Midgley is one of the most important moral philosophers working today Over the last thirty years her writings have informed debates concerning animals the environment and evolutionary theory The invited essays in this volume offer critical reflections upon Midgley s work and further developments of her ideas The contributors include many of the leading commentators on her work including distinguished figures from the disciplines of philosophy biology and ethology The range of topics includes the moral status of animals the concept of wickedness science and mythology Midgley s relationship to modern moral philosophy and her relationship with Iris Murdoch It also includes the first full bibliography of Midgley s writings The volume is the first major study of its kind and brings together contributions from the many disciplines which Midgley s work has influenced It provides a clear account of the themes and significance of her work and its implications for ongoing debates about our understanding of our place within the world

Eco-global Crimes Ragnhild Sollund,2016-04-29 Building on knowledge within the fields of green and eco global criminology this book uses empirical and theoretical arguments to discuss the multi dimensional character of eco global crime It provides an overview of eco global crimes and discusses them from a justice perspective The persistence of animal abuse and speciesism are also examined together with policies aimed at controlling the natural world and plant species Pollution by large corporations rights of indigenous peoples and the damage caused by the mineral extraction are also considered Providing new ideas and insights which will be relevant on a global scale this book is an interesting and useful study of the exploitation of nature and other species It will be invaluable for students and scholars globally working within or connected to the field of green and eco global criminology The book will also be important for the participants of various social movements especially the environmental and animal advocacy movements

The Routledge Handbook of International Crime and Justice Studies Bruce Arrigo,Heather Bersot,2013-08-15 This book presents the enduring debates and emerging challenges in crime and justice studies from an international and multi disciplinary perspective

Epistemologies of Ignorance in Education Erik Malewski,Nathalia Jaramillo,2011-03-01 Epistemologies of Ignorance provide educators a distinct epistemological view on questions of marginalization oppression relations of power and dominance difference philosophy and even death among our youth The authors of this edited collection challenge the ambivalence ignorance found in the construction of curriculum teaching practices research guidelines and policy mandates in our schools Further ignorance is also considered a necessary by product of knowledge production In this sense the authors explore not only issues of complicity but also issues of oppression in spite of educators liberatory intentions While this is the first systematic effort to transfer epistemologies of ignorance to the educational scene this movement has its roots in race class gender and sexuality studies particularly the work of Charles Mills Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick Shannon Sullivan and Nancy Tuana It is our unequivocal belief that while this is transformative and powerful scholarship the study of ignorance remains understudied and under theorized in education scholarship from curriculum studies and cultural foundations to science education and educational psychology This collection highlights without apology why this dangerous state of affairs cannot continue The Role of Culture in Human Thinking and Reasoning Hiroshi Yama, Niall Galbraith, Jean Baratgin, Hirofumi Hashimoto, 2022-11-01 Animal Suffering and Public Relations Núria Almiron, 2023-08-18 Animal Suffering and Public Relations conducts an ethical assessment of public relations mainly persuasive communication and lobbying as deployed by some of the main businesses involved in the animal industrial complex the industries participating in the systematic and institutionalised exploitation of animals Society has been experiencing a growing ethical concern regarding humans' use of other animals This is a trend first promoted by the development of animal ethics which claims any sentient being because of sentience deserves moral consideration and more recently by other approaches from the social sciences including critical animal studies In this volume we aim to start an entirely unaddressed discussion within the field of public relations The need to problematise the ethics of persuasion when nonhuman animal suffering is involved particularly the impact of persuasion and lobbying on compassion towards other animals in the cases of food experimentation entertainment and environmental management This book provides an interdisciplinary theoretical discussion illustrated with international case studies from experts in strategic communication public relations lobbying and advocacy animal ethics philosophy of law political philosophy and social psychology This unique book merges the fields of critical public relations animal ethics and critical animal studies and will be of direct appeal to a wide range of researchers academics and doctoral students across related fields The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license The Ethics of Diet Howard Williams, 2003 Now we can join Gandhi and Tolstoy and nameless others who encountered this vigorous and invigorating book Welcome to a company of radicals who believed we could and should stop eating non human animals They brought vegetarianism out of history and into the here and now from the introduction Ethical vegetarianism is no recent development as this unrivaled historical anthology dramatizes When it was first published 120 years ago countless people read and endorsed The Ethics of Diet But then it became a rare book hard to find even in libraries For countless more readers it is at last available again In this classic of vegetarian writing Howard Williams presents a line of thought a continuous thread a tradition a catena of protestation against living on Butchery What he finds striking is the variety of the witnesses the prophets of Reformed Dietetics who have shrunk from the rime of blood including Gautama Buddha Pythagoras Plato Hesiod Epicurus Seneca Ovid Thomas More Montaigne Mandeville Pope Voltaire Swedenborg Wesley Rousseau Shelley Byron Lamar tine Michelet Bentham Sinclair Schopenhauer and Thoreau Their words are accompanied by the vigorous narrative voice of Williams himself who put to rest once and for all the idea that vegetarianism is a fad Nature Conservation in Southern Africa, 2018-11-26 Nature conservation in southern Africa has always been characterised by an interplay between Capital specific understandings of Morality and forms of Militarism that are all dependent upon the shared subservience and marginalization of animals and certain groups of people in society Although the subjectivity of people has been rendered visible in earlier publications on histories of conservation in southern Africa the subjectivity of animals is hardly ever seriously considered or explicitly dealt with In this edited volume the subjectivity and sentience of animals is explicitly included The contributors argue that the shared human and animal marginalisation and agency in nature conservation in southern Africa and beyond could and should be further explored under the label of sentient conservation Contributors are Malcolm Draper Vupenyu Dzingirai Jan Bart Gewald Michael Glover Paul Hebinck Tariro Kamuti Lindiwe Mangwanya Albert Manhamo Dhoya Snijders Marja Spierenburg Sandra Swart Harry Wels

Social Problems and Inequality John C. Alessio, 2011 With a central focus on the problem of inequality and the manner in which this is manifested in crime social class and stratification this book examines the key theoretical perspectives relevant to the study and solution of social problems whilst drawing upon rich illustrations and case studies from the US and Europe to offer a thorough examination of the nature common root causes and social remedies of social problems
