Alchemy in Europe Claudia Kren, 2012-09-26 First Published in 1926 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an information company Access to Western Esotericism Antoine Faivre, 1994-12-05 This is the first systematic treatment of esotericism to appear in English Here is also a historical survey beginning with the Alexandrian Period of the various esoteric currents such as Christian Kabbalah Theosophy Alchemy Rosicrucianism and Hermeticism Common characteristics of these currents are the notion of universal interdependency and the experience of spiritual transformation The author establishes a rigorous methodology provides clarifying definitions of such key terms as gnosis theosophy occultism and Hermeticism and offers analysis of contemporary esotericism based on three distinct pathways The second half of the book presents a series of studies on several important figures works and movements in Western esotericism studies devoted to some of the most characteristic and illuminating aspects that this form of thought has taken such as theosophical speculations on androgyny rosicrucian literature and Masonic symbolism The book is completed by a rich and selective Bibliography conceived as a means of orientation and a tool for research Thomas Vaughan and the Rosicrucian Revival in Britain Thomas Willard, 2022-09-19 The first scholarly book on Thomas Vaughan 1621-1666 draws from recent studies in Western esotericism to place his famously difficult writings in their proper context It shows that they develop themes from a distinctively Rosicrucian synthesis of alchemy magic and Christian cabala Vaughan introduced Rosicrucian documents to English readers and placed them in older philosophical contexts during the breakdown of censorship that followed the English Revolution against the old order in politics and religion Willard's book will appeal to students of early modern ideas about religion science and society as they were seen by an intelligent and eloquent outsider Western Esotericism and the Science of Religion International Association for the History of Religions. Congress, International Association for the History of Religions, 1998 This volume is based upon papers read during the innovative section Western Esotericism and the Science of Religion organized at the 17th International Congress of the International Association for the History of Religions IAHR in Mexico City August 5-12 1995 The section was created in order to fill a long standing hiatus in the academic study of religions whereas phenomena such as gnosticism and hermetism in antiquity and even the occult sciences of that period have long been recognized as subjects worthy of serious investigation the history of similar and related phenomena in more recent periods has hardly received the same measure of scholarly attention and recognition The present volume is devoted to the academic emancipation of these areas as constituting a legitimate domain of research which may be referred to by the generic label western esotericism Preceded by an introductory essay on the birth of this new discipline in the study of religion the volume provides a sample of current research in the field and devotes special attention to some central methodological questions Unlocked Books Benedek Láng, 2010-11 Presents and analyzes texts of learned magic written in medieval Central Europe Poland Bohemia and Hungary and attempts to identify their authors readers and collectors Provided
