Artist In Nineteenth Century English Fiction:

The Artist in Nineteenth Century English Fiction Bo Jeffares, 1979 Dictionary of Artists' Models Jill Berk Jiminez, 2013-10-15 The first reference work devoted to their lives and roles this book provides information on some 200 artists models from the Renaissance to the present day Most entries are illustrated and consist of a brief biography selected works in which the model appears with location a list of further reading This will prove an invaluable reference work for art historians librarians museum and gallery curators as well as students and researchers Auto-poetica Darby Lewes, 2006-01-01 The nineteenth century Kunstlerroman self consciously addresses the devices of fiction and in doing so tends toward irony and self reflection and prefigures postmodernism A work of art written about an artist creating a work of art is in a sense a novel in which the author is a character The essays in this collection examine the work of major nineteenth century authors that attempted to merge fiction and reality into a unified whole These novels paved the way for postmodernists who would use the artist novel to self consciously focus on the genre s particular conventions to parody those conventions in order to accentuate the work s fictionality and to expose the oppositions between fiction and reality This collection thus reveals not only material concerns but the underlying anxieties drives and joys which are so profoundly linked to the creative process The Victorian Art of Fiction Rohan Maitzen, 2009-06-11 The Victorian Art of Fiction presents important Victorian statements on the form and function of fiction The essays in this anthology address questions of genre such as realism and sensationalism questions of gender and authorship questions of form such as characterization plot construction and narration and questions about the morality of fiction The editor discusses where Victorian writing on the novel has been placed in accounts of the history of criticism and then suggests some reasons for reconsidering this conventional evaluation Among the featured essayists and critics are John Ruskin Walter Bagehot George Henry Lewes Leslie Stephen Anthony Trollope and Robert Louis Stevenson the classic essays include George Eliot s Silly Novels by Lady Novelists and Henry James s The Art of Fiction Realism, Representation, and the Arts in Nineteenth-Century Literature Alison Byerly, 1997 This book confronts a significant paradox in the development of literary realism the very novels that present themselves as purveyors and celebrants of direct ordinary human experience also manifest an obsession with art that threatens to sabotage their Realist claims Unlike previous studies of the role of visual art or music or theatre in Victorian literature Realism Representation and the Arts in Nineteenth Century Literature examines the juxtaposition of all of these arts in the works of Charlotte Bront William Thackeray George Eliot Thomas Hardy and others Alison Byerly combines close textual analysis with discussion of relevant ancillary topics to illuminate the place of different arts within nineteenth century British culture Her book which also contains sixteen illustrations represents an effort to bridge the growing gap between aesthetics and cultural studies Visual Culture Norman Bryson, Michael Ann Holly, Keith Moxey, 2013-03-15 We can no longer see much less teach transhistorical truths timeless works of art and unchanging critical criteria without a highly developed sense of irony about the grand narratives of the past declare the editors who also coedited Visual Theory Painting and Interpretation 1990 The field of art history is not unique in finding itself challenged and enlarged by cultural debates over issues of class ethnicity nationality sexual orientation and gender Visual Culture assembles some of the foremost scholars of cultural studies and art history to explore new critical approaches to a history of representation seen as something different from a history of art CONTRIBUTORS Andres Ross Michael Ann Holly Mieke Bal David Summers Constance Penley Kaja Silverman Ernst Van Alphen Norman Bryson Wolfgang Kemp Whitney Davis Thomas Crow Keith Moxey John Tagg Lisa Tickner Ebook Edition Note Ebook edition note all illustrations have been redacted A Victorian

Art of Fiction John Olmsted, 2016-03-10 First published in 1979 this collection of thirty nine essays on the novel drawn from seventeen periodicals demonstrates the primary concerns of those discussing the nature and purpose of prose fiction in the period from 1870 to 1900 The essays reflect what was thought and said about the art of fiction and reveal what journalists of these periodicals thought were the most urgent critical concerns facing the working reviewer Including an introduction which assesses the issues raised by the best periodicals at the time this anthology is designed to provide students of Victorian fiction and critical theory with a collection of essays on the art of fiction in a convenient and durable form

Victorian Metafiction Tabitha Sparks, 2022-11-17 Critics agree in the abstract that metafiction refers to any novel that draws attention to its own fictional construction but metafiction has been largely associated with the postmodern era In this innovative new book Tabitha Sparks identifies a sustained pattern of metafiction in the Victorian novel that illuminates the art and intentions of its female practitioners From the mid nineteenth century through the fin de siècle novels by Victorian women such as Charlotte Brontë Rhoda Broughton Charlotte Riddell Eliza Lynn Linton and several New Women authors share a common but underexamined trope the fictional characterization of the woman novelist or autobiographer Victorian Metafiction reveals how these novels systemically dispute the assumptions that women wrote primarily about their emotions or were restricted to trivial sentimental plots Countering an established tradition that has read novels by women writers as heavily autobiographical and confessional Sparks identifies the literary technique of metafiction in numerous novels by women writers and argues that women used metafictional self consciousness to draw the reader's attention to the book and not the novelist By dislodging the narrative from these cultural prescriptions Victorian Metafiction effectively argues how these women novelists presented the business and art of writing as the subject of the novel and wrote metafiction in order to establish their artistic integrity and professional authority The Eclectic Magazine of Foreign Literature, Science, and Art, 1889

English Fiction and the Evolution of Language, 1850-1914 Will Abberley, 2015-05-21 Explores how Victorian fiction and science imagined the evolution of language from primordial noise to modern English Nineteenth-Century Literary Realism Katherine Kearns, 1996-01-26 A challenging rethinking of traditional theories and redefinition of the genre of realism Decadent Ecology in British Literature and Art, 1860-1910 Dennis Denisoff, 2021-12-16 Decadent

Ecology illuminates the networks of nature paganism and desire in 19th and early 20th century decadent literature and art Combining the environmental humanities with aesthetic queer and literary theory this study reveals the interplay of art eco paganism and science during the formation of modern ecological and evolutionary thought Encyclopedia of

Vulnerability and Resilience in English Literature of the Long 19th Century Raffaella Antinucci,Adrian Grafe,2024-11-29 The nineteenth century was a time of accelerated change and stark contradictions It was marked by stability advancement and reform but also by widening inequalities spiritual crisis and social unrest Identity and gender came under pressure religious belief was called into question and the condition of women and children seemed to belie the much vaunted idea of progress Essays in this book explore how these contradictions and concerns are reflected in nineteenth century literature In discussing historical figures characters and plots that are variously vulnerable and or resilient the essays reflect the breadth of nineteenth century literature from realist and sensational fiction to autobiography and poetry Besides providing insights into the transfigurative role writing played both as a means to express vulnerability and as a resilience process the essays also foster further reflection on two timeless dimensions of the human condition Art History, Narratology, and Twentieth-Century Chinese Art Lian Duan,2023-07-28 This study constructs a framework of narratology for art history and rewrites the development of twentieth century Chinese art from a narratological perspective Theoretically and methodologically oriented this is a self reflective meta art history studying the art historical narratives while narrating the story of modern and contemporary Chinese art Thus this book explores the three layers of narrative within the narratological framework the first hand fabula the secondary narration and the tertiary narrativization With this tertiary narrativization the reader author presents three types of narrative the grand narrative of the central thesis of this book the middle range narrative of the chapter theses and case analyses supporting these theses The focus of this tertiary narrativization is the interaction between Western influence on Chinese art and the Chinese response to this influence The central thesis is that this interaction conditioned and shaped the development of Chinese art at every historical turning point in the twentieth century The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history critical theory Chinese studies and cultural studies

The Victorian Novel and the Space of Art Dehn Gilmore,2014-01-09 An interdisciplinary study of the relationship between the Victorian novel and visual art including galleries museums and The Great Exhibition Psychological Realism in 19th Century Fiction Debashish Sen,2019-12-10 This book is a study of psychological realism in select works from nineteenth century fiction namely Fathers and Sons Anna Karenina The Mill on the Floss and Jane Eyre It shows how psychoanalytic theories may be applied to illuminate various aspects of the psyches of characters in these texts The book provides evidence that theories like John Bowlby s Attachment Theory and Karen Horney s Personality Theory can go a long way in enhancing our understanding of literary characters the meaning of the text its relation to its creator and the author's psychology As such it brings forth a novel view of literary criticism and will serve to convince the reader that a critical approach devoid and dismissive of the psychological aspect is incomplete and hurts literary criticism on the whole The Cambridge History of Twentieth-Century English Literature Laura Marcus, Peter Nicholls, 2004 Publisher Description
