Reparations and the Human David L. Eng, 2025-03-21 The Holocaust and the atomic bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki invoked in graphic terms the specter of total human destruction. In response, a new international order of reparations and human rights arose from the ashes of World War II. This legal regime sought to subrogate the sovereignty of the nation-state in order to defend the sovereignty of the human being. While the Holocaust's history is settled, Nazis were perpetrators and Jews were victims, there remains little historical consensus as to the victims and perpetrators of the atomic bombings. In Reparations and the Human, David L. Eng investigates a history of reparations across the Transpacific. He analyzes how concepts of reparation established during colonial settlement and the European Enlightenment shape contemporary configurations of the human and human rights, determining who can be recognized as victims, who must be seen as perpetrators, and who deserves repair. As demands for reparations now occupy center stage in debates concerning unresolved legacies of dispossession and Transatlantic slavery, Eng considers how the Cold War Transpacific provides a limit case for the politics of repair and definitions of the human.

Intergenerational Complexes in Analytical Psychology Samuel L. Kimbles, 2021-04-12 Intergenerational Complexes in Analytical Psychology The Suffering of Ghosts draws attention to human suffering and how it relates to unacknowledged and unrecognized traumatic cultural histories that continue to haunt us in the present. The book shows the many ways that our internal lives are organized and patterned by both racial/ethnic and national identities and personal experiences. This book shows how the cultural unconscious, with its multiple group dynamics, identities, nationalities, seething differences, conflicts, polarizations, and individual personalities, are organized by cultural complexes and narrated by archetypal story formations which the author calls phantom narratives. The emotional dynamics generated constitute potential transitional spaces or holding containers that allow us to work with these issues psychologically at both the individual and group levels, offering opportunities for healing. The chapters of the book provide numerous examples of the applications of these terms to natural and cultural catastrophes as well as expressions as uncanny phenomena Intergenerational Complexes in Analytical Psychology is essential reading for analytical psychologists Jungian psychotherapists and other professionals seeking to understand the impact of intergenerational trauma on individuals and groups It is also relevant to the work of academics and scholars of Jungian studies sociology trauma studies politics and social justice Ukiyo-e Explained David Bell,2021-10-01 A great many volumes already exist on the subject of ukiyo e mostly single focus works intended to appeal to connoisseurs or art historians Ukiyo e Explained however is the first integrated study with wider scholarly appeal to show how ukiyo e is art but also social history culture and craft Indeed ukiyo e or floating world pictures form one of the most popular and widely known forms of Japanese art Their history has been well documented in the past and their distinctively decorative often sensual pictorial character is familiar to audiences around the world This study illuminates new pathways to a greater appreciation of ukiyo e by addressing the environments and conditions under which the artists worked together with the factors that determined or conditioned the peculiar stylistic character of ukiyo e It also examines the particular forces that governed this distinctive type of picture making and the corresponding development of popular tastes with the audiences of the day focusing especially on contemporary aesthetic sensibilities the ways artists learned their craft and the conditioning qualities of their medium Around 1945 Allan Hepburn,2016-06-01 Near the end of the Second World War new ideas about citizenship national identity belonging and rights emerged as the atrocities of the war coupled with the dropping of atomic bombs on Hiroshima and Nagasaki spurred writers and citizens around the world to think about their responsibilities to their fellow man Covering British authors and contemporary fiction by migrant writers publishing at mid century as well as some photography from the era Around 1945 is a collection of essays that reveals how literary texts and cultural events modeled human rights issues such as dignity freedom sovereignty and responsibility Unified by an investigation of the human and cultural aspects of universal rights these essays show that British writers tested the parameters of citizenship and rights in novelistic form By imagining duties and rights of citizens in hypothetical contexts these novels expanded on the legislated entitlements and obligations that make up civic and human identity To this day the repercussions of 1945 continue to unfold in stories about statehood refugees humanitarianism displacement and national belonging At the same time novels continue to imagine the human person equal in rights and dignity before the law yet often compromised by the political exigencies of nation states that do not recognize legal political or human rights Tracing the rippling consequences of the Second World War from 1945 through the Cold War and into the present Around 1945 is an extraordinarily rich volume that will alter our perception of pre and post war British literature Contributors include Nadine Attewell McMaster Mitchell C Brown Dalhousie Matthew Hart Columbia Janice Ho Colorado Emily Hyde Rowan Peter Kalliney Kentucky Marina MacKay Oxford Melanie Micir Washington St Louis Adam Piette Sheffield Claire Seiler Dickinson College and Ian Whittington Mississippi Figural Space William D. Melaney,2021-04-15 This book is concerned with the continuing viability of both Freud and Hegel to the reading of modern literature The book begins with Julia Kristeva's attempts to relate Hegelian thought to a psychoanalytically informed conception of semiotics that was first explored in her influential study The Revolution of Poetic Language and then modified in later books that develop semiotics in new directions Kristeva's agreements and disagreement with Hegel are important to the book's argument which ultimately defends Hegel against familiar poststructuralist detractors However the book's conceptual argument requires a historical exposition with chapters devoted to literary figures ranging from Spenser to Ishiguro One of the purposes of the book is to demonstrate that Hegel's contribution to modern thought is at least partially exhibited in the history of literature which also corroborates some of the deeper insights of psychoanalysis
