Artistic Relations Peter Collier, Robert Lethbridge, Professor of French Language and Literature Robert Lethbridge, 1994-01-01 In this innovative volume literary critics and art historians explore the relationship between literature and the visual arts in 19th century France Eighteen leading scholars including Pierre Bourdieu Germaine Greer Segolene Le Men Roger Cardinal and Mary Ann Caws analyse contemporary forms of representation to reveal the rich variety of factors that link image and text

Artistic Relations. Literature and the Visual Arts in Nineteenth-Century France Peter Collier, Robert Lethbridge, 1994 Art in Literature, Literature in Art in 19th Century France Emilie Sitzia, 2011-12-08 The traditional relationship between painting and literature underwent a profound change in nineteenth century France Painting progressively asserted its independence from literature as it liberated itself from narrative obligations whilst interrogating the concept of subject matter itself Simultaneously the influence of art on the writing styles of authors increased and the character of the artist established itself as a recurring motif in French literature This book offers a panoramic review of the relationship between art and literature in nineteenth century France By means of a series of case studies chosen from key moments throughout the nineteenth century the aim of this study is to provide a focused analysis of specific examples of this relationship revealing both its multifaceted nature as well as offering a panorama of the development of this on going and increasingly complex cultural relationship From Jacques Louis David s irreverence for classical texts to Victor Hugo s graphic works from Edouard Manet s illustrations to Vincent Van Gogh s paintings of books from Honor de Balzac s Unknown Masterpiece to Joris Karl Huysmans s A Rebours this interdisciplinary investigation of the links between literature and art in France throws new light on both fields of creative endeavour during a critical phase of France s cultural history

Theophile Gautier, Orator to the Artists James Kearns, 2017-12-02 Theophile Gautier a envoye avec un feuillet plus de trois mille personnes dans l'atelier de M Ingres wrote Champfleury in 1848 For artists critics and readers alike Gautier was the essential figure in French art journalism in the mid nineteenth century During the short lived but pivotal period of the Second Republic when the new administration was committed to reforming all the institutions of the fine arts Gautier deployed the full resources of his brilliant flexible and authoritative writing to support and direct these developments in ways compatible with his commitment to an idealist aesthetic itself under growing pressure from alternative trends in an increasingly competitive art market This first study of all Gautiers art journalism written during the Second Republic provides a long overdue reassessment of Gautiers importance in French nineteenth century visual culture

The Routledge Companion to Art and the Formation of Empire Emily C. Burns, Alice M. Rudy Price, 2025-05-30 This companion comprises essays that analyze interactions between art and global imperial relationships from 1800 to World War II The essays in this volume expose and add to historical layers of meaning in their discussions of art and empire Found across much of the globe sites of sedimentary rock allegorize the dynamics of art and empire and frame the section structure for this book Twenty two authors unpack imperial layers in a variety of global and historical contexts through case studies that center art and visual and material culture The authors show how art and aesthetics have operated as tools of empire Interpreting a comprehensive array of media as well as inter media dialogues they analyze and intervene in how we remember and examine entwinements between empire and aesthetic practices In this volume s attention to the role of art in imperial formation as well as the legacy of colonization the essays disentangle sediments of culture as they are moved and shaped by homogenizing forces of empire showing that the aesthetics of empire inflect not only individuals makers and economies but also practices of circulation and collecting The book will be of interest to graduate students researchers and professors and may be used in classes focused on art history imperialism and colonialism Text, Image, and the Problem with Perfection in Nineteenth-Century France Daniel Sipe,2016-04-01 In the decades after the French Revolution philosophers artists and social scientists set out to chart and build a way to a new world and their speculative blueprints circulated like banknotes in a parallel economy of ideas Examining representations of ideal societies in nineteenth century French culture Daniel Sipe argues that the dream image of the literary or art historical utopia does not disappear but rather is profoundly altered by its proximity to the social utopianism of the day Sipe focuses on this persistent afterlife in utopias ranging from Fran ois Ren de Chateaubriand s Amerindian utopia in Atala 1801 to the utopian spoof of J J Grandville s illustrated novel Un autre monde 1844 He proposes a new reading of Etienne Cabet s seminal utopian novel Voyage en Icarie 1840 and offers an original perspective on the gendered utopias of technological inspiration that authors such as Charles Barbara and Auguste Villiers de l Isle Adam penned in the second half of the century In addition Sipe considers utopias or important readings of the century s rampant utopianism in among others Victor Hugo Alfred de Vigny Th ophile Gautier Charles Baudelaire and Gustave Courbet His book provides the historical context for comprehending the significance and implications of this enigmatic afterlife in nineteenth century utopian art and literature Nineteenth-century French Studies ,1999 A Short History of French Literature Sarah Kay, Terence Cave, Malcolm Bowie,2006-01-12 This book traces the history of French literature from its beginnings to the present Within its remarkably brief compass it offers a wide ranging personal and detailed account of major writers and movements Developments in French literature are presented in an innovative way not as an even sequence of literary events but as a series of stories told at varying pace and with different kinds of focus Readers can thus take in the broad sweep of historical change grasp the main characteristics of major periods or enjoy a close appraisal of individual works and their contexts The book is written in an accessible and non technical style that will make it attractive to students and to all those who enjoy French Literature Translation and the Arts in Modern France Sonya Stephens,2017-07-10 Translation and the Arts in Modern France sits at the intersection of transposition translation and ekphrasis finding resonances in these areas across periods places and forms Within these contributions questions of colonization subjugation migration and exile connect Benin to Brittany and political philosophy to the sentimental novel and to film Focusing on cultural production from 1830 to the present and privileging French culture the contributors explore interactions with other cultures countries and continents often explicitly equating intercultural permeability with representational exchange In doing so the book exposes the extent to which moving between media and codes the very process of translation and transposition is a defining aspect of creativity across time space and disciplines

Balzac, Grandville, and the Rise of Book Illustration Keri Yousif, 2016-04-15 Examining how the rise of book illustration affected the historic hegemony of the word Keri Yousif explores the complex literary and artistic relationship between the novelist Honor de Balzac and the illustrator J J Grandville during the French July Monarchy 1830 1848 Both collaborators and rivals these towering figures struggled for dominance in the Parisian book trade at the height of the Romantic revolution and its immediate aftermath Both men were social portraitists who collaborated on the influential encyclopedic portrayal of nineteenth century society Les Français peints par eux-mêmes However their collaboration soon turned competitive with Grandville's publication of Scènes de la vie privée et publique des animaux a visual parody of Balzac's Scènes de la vie privée Yousif investigates Balzac's and Grandville's individual and joint artistic productions in terms of the larger economic and aesthetic struggles within the nineteenth century arena of cultural production showing how writers were forced to position themselves both in terms of the established literary hierarchy and in relation to the rapidly advancing image As Yousif shows the industrialization of the illustrated book spawned a triadic relationship between publisher writer and illustrator that transformed the book from a product of individual genius to a cooperative and commercial affair Her study represents a significant contribution to our understanding of literature art and their interactions in a new marketplace for publication during the fraught transition from Romanticism to Realism Arthur Dove Rachael Z. DeLue, 2016-03-16

Arthur Dove often credited as America's first abstract painter created dynamic and evocative images inspired by his surroundings from the farmland of upstate New York to the North Shore of Long Island But his interests were not limited to nature Challenging earlier accounts that view him as simply a landscape painter Arthur Dove Always Connect reveals for the first time the artist's intense engagement with language the nature of social interaction and scientific and technological advances Rachael Z DeLue rejects the traditional assumption that Dove can only be understood in terms of his nature paintings and association with photographer and gallerist Alfred Stieglitz and his circle Instead she uncovers deep and complex connections between Dove's work and his world including avant garde literature popular music meteorology mathematics aviation and World War II Arthur Dove also offers the first sustained account of Dove's Dadaesque multimedia projects and the first explorations of his animal imagery and the role of humor in his art Beautifully illustrated with works from all periods of Dove's career this book presents a new vision of one of America's most innovative and captivating artists and reimagines how the story of modern art in the United States might be told The Darkroom Anne Marsh, 2003 Anne Marsh's treatise on the art of photography traces its theoretical underpinning from the early debates between the rationalists

and the fantasists through psychoanalytical interpretations to the theatre of desire She investigates the role of photography in ghostly performances the masking of desire and high camp aesthetics through to performance art and the role of the photographer as a gender terrorist as in the work of Del LaGrace Volcano The study concludes with notable examples of postmodern photography as they have occurred in the Australian context This ground breaking work by a leading Monash University academic will interest all students of photography and followers of recent trends in art and art theory “My Own Portrait in Writing” Patrick Grant, 2015-05-01 Art historians biographers and other researchers have long drawn on Van Gogh’s voluminous correspondence more than eight hundred letters for insights into both his personal struggles and his art But the letters while often admired for their literary quality have rarely been approached as literature In this volume Patrick Grant sets out to explore the question By what criteria do we judge Van Gogh’s letters to be specifically literary Drawing especially on Mikhail Bakhtin’s conceptualization of self awareness as an ongoing dialogue between self and other Grant examines the ways in which Van Gogh’s letters raise from within themselves questions and issues to which they also respond Their literary quality he argues derives in part from this double voiced discourse from the power of the letters to thematize through their own internal dialogues the very structure of self fashioning itself Far from merely reproducing the narrative of the artist’s personal progress the letters enable readers to recognize how necessary yet open ended constrained yet liberating confined yet unpredictable are the means by which people seek to shape a place for themselves in the world This volume builds on Grant’s earlier analysis of Van Gogh’s correspondence The Letters of Vincent van Gogh A Critical Study AU Press 2014 a study in which he approached the letters from a literary critical standpoint delving into key patterns of metaphors and concepts In the present volume he provides instead a literary theoretical analysis of the letters one that draws them more fully into the domain of modern literary studies In his deft and keenly perceptive reading Grant deconstructs the binaries that surface in both Van Gogh’s writing and painting discusses the narrative dimensions of the letter sketches and the recurring themes of fantasy belief and self surrender and draws attention to Van Gogh’s own understanding of the permeable boundary between words and visual art Viewing the letters as an integrated body of discourse My Own Portrait in Writing offers a theoretically informed interpretation of Van Gogh’s literary achievement that is quite literally without precedent

Literary Impressionism and Modernist Aesthetics Jesse Matz, 2001-08-02 Jesse Matz examines the writing of such modernists as Henry James Joseph Conrad and Virginia Woolf who used the word impression to describe what they wanted their fiction to present Matz redefines literary Impressionism focusing on the way that impressions destroy standard perceptual distinctions between thinking and sensing believing and suspecting He argues that these writers favoured not immediate subjective sense but rather a mode that would mediate perceptual distinctions Just as impressions fall somewhere between thought and sense Impressionist fiction occupies the middle ground between opposite ways of engaging with the world Matz also argues that the resulting confusion becomes a basic plot feature of modernist fiction This wide ranging 2001

study addresses the problems of perception and representation that occupied writers in the early decades of the twentieth century

Time, Narrative & the Fixed Image / Temps, narration & image fixe, 2021-10-18 This volume focuses on the relationship between time narrative and the fixed image As such it highlights renewed interest in the temporality of the fixed image probably one of the most important trends in the formal and semiotic analysis of visual media in the past decade The various essays discuss paintings the illustrated covers of books comics or graphic novels photo stories postcards television and video art as well as aesthetic practices that defy categorization such as Chris Marker's masterpiece La Jetée The range of works and practices examined is reflected in the different theoretical approaches and methods used with an emphasis on semiology and narratology and to a lesser extent aesthetics and psychoanalysis The interest of this book however does not stem exclusively from the range and scope of the artefacts examined or the methodological issues that are addressed its fundamental importance rests in the contributors' readiness to question the differentiation between fixed and moving images which all too often provides a convenient if not altogether convincing starting point for image analysis The originality and value of the contribution that Time Narrative and the Fixed Image Temps Narration et image fixe makes to the body of theoretical writing on visual media lies in this challenging and comprehensive approach

Savage Tales Linda Goddard, 2019-09-03 An original study of Gauguin's writings unfolding their central role in his artistic practice and negotiation of colonial identity As a French artist who lived in Polynesia Paul Gauguin 1848-1903 occupies a crucial position in histories of European primitivism This is the first book devoted to his wide-ranging literary output which included journalism travel writing art criticism and essays on aesthetics religion and politics It analyzes his original manuscripts some of which are richly illustrated reinstating them as an integral component of his art The seemingly haphazard collage-like structure of Gauguin's manuscripts enabled him to evoke the primitive culture that he celebrated while rejecting the style of establishment critics Gauguin's writing was also a strategy for articulating a position on the margins of both the colonial and the indigenous communities in Polynesia he sought to protect Polynesian society from civilization but remained implicated in the imperialist culture that he denounced This critical analysis of his writings significantly enriches our understanding of the complexities of artistic encounters in the French colonial context

Japan, France, and East-West Aesthetics Jan Hokenson, 2004 Japan France is the first comprehensive history of the idea of Japan in France as tracked through close readings of canonical French writers and thinkers from the 1860s to the present The focus is literary and intellectual the context cultural The discovery of Japanese woodblock prints in Paris following the opening of Japan to the West in 1854 was a startling aesthetic encounter that played a crucial role in the Impressionists and Post Impressionists invention of Modernism French writers also experimented with Japanese aesthetics in their own work in ways that similarly thread into the foundations of literary Modernism Japonisme the practice of adapting Japanese aesthetics to creative work in the West became a sustained French tradition in texts by such writers as Zola and Proust through Barthes and Bonnefoy

Each generation discovered new Japanese arts and genres commented on the work of their predecessors in this vein and broke still more ground in East West aesthetics to innovate in the forms of Western literature and thought To read literary history in this way unsettles Eurocentric assumptions about many of the French writers who are commonly considered the
