Artists Builders And Dreamers 50 Years At The Banff School:

Artists, Builders, and Dreamers David Leighton, Peggy Leighton, 1982 The Literary History of Alberta Volume Two George Melnyk, 1998 In this the companion to the landmark volume The Literary History of Alberta Volume One From Writing on Stone to World War Two George Melnyk examines Alberta literature in the second half of the twentieth century At last Melnyk argues Alberta writers have found their voice and their accomplishments have been remarkable The contradictory landscape the stereotypes of the Indian the Mountie and the Cowboy and the language of the Other speaking from the margins these elements all left their impressions on the consciousness of early Alberta But writers in the last few decades have turned this inheritance to their advantage to create compelling stories about this place and its people Today Melnyk discovers Alberta writers can appreciate not only this achievement but also its essential source the symbolic communication of Writing on Stone The Literary History of Alberta Volume Two extends the study of Alberta's cultural history to the present day It is a vital text for anyone interested in Alberta's vibrant literary culture A Passion for Music Margaret C. Matheson, 2001 The Literary History of Alberta Volume One George Melnyk, 1998-04 Alberta's contradictory landscape has fired the imaginative energies of writers for centuries The sweep of the plains the thrust of the Rockies and the long roll of the woodlands have left vivid impressions on all of Alberta's writers both those who passed through Alberta in search of other horizons and those who made it their home The Literary History of Alberta surveys writing in and about Alberta from prehistory to the middle of the twentieth century It includes profiles of dozens of writers from the earnestly intended to the truly gifted and their texts from the commercial to the arcane It reminds us of long forgotten names and faces figures who quietly or not so quietly wrote the books that underpin Alberta's thriving literary culture today Melnyk also discusses the institutions that have shaped Alberta's literary culture The Literary History of Alberta is an essential text for any reader interested in the cultural history of western Canada and a landmark achievement in Alberta's continuing literary history I Was There Ellen Schoeck, 2006-10 First person stories and period photographs present a unique insight into university lore from the vantage point of students and alumni Climber's Paradise PearlAnn Reichwein, 2014-07-15 Tenacious activism of the Alpine Club of Canada leads to mountain recreation and conservation Hiding the Audience Frances W. Kaye, 2003-03 Hiding the Audience examines how the development of Canadian prairie arts institutions in the context of an implicitly Euro or Anglo Canadian audience clashed with the creation of regional arts that needed to acknowledge a Native Canadian presence to flourish It looks in detail at the regional versus international strains in the history of the Banff Centre at the development of the Glenbow Museum and the controversy over the Spirit Sings exhibition at the two decades of contention regarding statues of Louis Riel in Regina and Winnipeg and at the contrasts in audience participation in two of 25th Street Theatre's productions one about farmers and the other about Metis people Primarily a work of cultural history this study uses archival sources post colonial theory and the theories implied in the fiction of Cherokee author Thomas King to probe the ways in which the whitestream assumptions of the individuals who institutionalized the arts on the Prairies hid both a Native audience and the kinds of issues and presentations such an audience might reasonably expect to see and that might help make the settler audience understand the responsibilities of becoming native to this place The interdisciplinary nature of the book makes it useful to scholars in Native Studies Museum Studies Art History Theatre and English as well as to arts administrators and patrons art lovers and artists Alberta Art and Artists Patricia Ainslie, Mary-Beth Laviolette, 2007 Alberta Trade Non Fiction Book Award nominee 2008 Just as Canada is often overlooked or undervalued within the international art world the province of Alberta has struggled against being overlooked within the national context despite its rich art history and vigorous and ever changing art scene Alberta Art and Artists by former vice president of collections at the Glenbow Museum Patricia Ainslie and art critic and journalist Mary Beth Laviolette provides a comprehensive visual record of the historical modern and contemporary art scene in Alberta Throughout three sections Ainslie and Laviolette provide introductions to the art they describe explaining beginnings and development of movements art schools sketch clubs galleries and artist run centres the significance of artists and teachers to those institutions and movements and the importance of social and political context to all artistic events Also included in this fantastic volume are the biographies of each of the artists showcased Who's who in Canada Charles Whately Parker, Barnet M. involvement in the new music movement in prewar Europe and his work with the Hungarian String Quartet unfolds through the violinist's own recollections and those of his wife Mientje and other longtime colleagues. Bartok's profound influence on Szekely's life and work reveals itself through Szekely's voice and in correspondence. Szekely and Bartok: The Story of a Friendship provides an intimate view of concert life in mid twentieth century Europe among such artists as Ravel, Dohnanyi, Hindemith, Milhaud, Honegger, Castelnuovo-Tedesco, Kodaly and others. The book contains previously unpublished Bartok letters, Szekely's firsthand accounts of Bartok's interpretive preferences, comprehensive listings of Szekely's compositions and first performances and the complete story of the Hungarian String Quartet from its founding in Budapest in 1935 to the final concert at Dartmouth College in 1972. From 1973 to 1993 Szekely's role as violinist in residence at the Banff Centre in Canada was the culmination of a long and distinguished career and helped establish the institution as a world center for chamber music study. Written from personal recollections and original documents and research, this book is destined to occupy a prominent position in the chamber music literature.

Uplift PearlAnn Reichwein, Karen Wall, 2020-11-15

The Banff School opened its doors in 1933 by offering a summer drama course. Since then it has grown into a renowned cultural destination today known as the Banff Centre for Arts and Creativity. As PearlAnn Reichwein and Karen Wall recount in this engaging history, over its first four decades the school produced and circulated ideals of culture and liberal democratic citizenship that were intrinsic to the development of modern Canada. Uplift traces the role of the school in shaping arts and cultural education as reflected in its array of artistic, political, economic and ideological interests. Situated within Banff National Park, the school and its surroundings combined stunning natural scenery and cultural capital in a symbolic national landscape. In an era of unstable cultural policy and funding, Uplift draws welcome attention to the place of fine arts culture and the humanities in public education and in Canada's history.
