Artists Model From Etty To Spencer:

The Artist's Model Martin Postle, William Vaughan, 1999 The Artist's Model from Etty to Spencer Martin Postle, William Vaughan, 1999 Published to accompany an exhibition held at York City Art Gallery York 29 May 11 July 1999 Kenwood London 23 July 26 September 1999 Djanogly Art Gallery University of Nottingham Nottingham 16 October 12 December 1999 Dictionary of Artists' Models Jill Berk Jiminez, 2013-10-15 The first reference work devoted to their lives and roles this book provides information on some 200 artists models from the Renaissance to the present day Most entries are illustrated and consist of a brief biography selected works in which the model appears with location a list of further reading This will prove an invaluable reference work for art historians librarians museum and gallery curators as well as students and researchers Modeling Life Sarah R. Phillips, 2012-02-01 This is a book about life modeling Unlike the painter whose name appears beside his finished portrait the life model posing nude perhaps for months goes unacknowledged Standing at a unique juncture between nude and naked between high and low culture between art and pornography the life model is admired in a finished sculpture but scorned for her or his posing Making use of extensive interviews with both male and female models and quoting them frequently Sarah R Phillips gives a voice to life models She explores the meaning that life models give to themselves and to their work and seeks to understand the lived experience of life models as they practice their profession Throughout history people have romanticized life models in an aura of bohemian eroticism or condemned them as strippers or sex workers Modeling Life reveals how life models get into the business managing sexuality in the studio what it means to be a muse and why their work is important Victorian Artists and Their World 1844-1861 Katie J. T. Herrington, 2024 The Boyce Papers give readers a rare insight into the milieu of the artists of the mid Victorian period Bodies of Art Marie Lathers, 2001-01-01 To the time honored myth of the artist creating works of genius in isolation with nothing but inspiration to guide him art historians have added the mitigating influences of critics dealers and the public Bodies of Art completes the picture by adding the model This lively look at atelier politics through the lens of literature focuses in particular on the female model with special attention to her race ethnicity and class The result is a suggestive account of the rise and fall of the female model in nineteenth century realism with a final emphasis on the passage of the model into photography at the turn of the century This history of the model begins in nineteenth century Paris where the artist model dynamic was regularly debated by writers and where the most important categories of models appear to be Jewish Italian and Parisian women Bodies of Art traces an evolution in the representation of this model in realist and naturalist literary works from her birth in Balzac to her death in Maupassant in the process revealing how she played a key role in theories of representation advanced by writers Throughout the book Marie Lathers connects the artist's work to the social realities and actual bodies that surround and inhabit the atelier Her work shows how much the status of the model can tell us about artistic practices during the century of the birth of modernity Model and Supermodel Jane

Desmarais, Martin Postle, William Vaughan, 2006 Over the last twenty years there have been flurries of interest in the artist's model and recent exhibitions have stimulated new activity in this area Model and Supermodel extends the discussion about the social and cultural significance of the model in British art and culture A fascinating collection of essays and interviews it examines the persistent mythology of the artist's model and some of the ambiguities involved in depicting the body The book offers a series of lively takes on the phenomenon of the artist's model It will make fascinating reading for those interested in modern art and the wider aspects of British culture and society Frederic Leighton Keren Rosa Hammerschlag, 2017-07-05 Keren Rosa Hammerschlag's Frederic Leighton Death Mortality Resurrection offers a timely reexamination of the art of the late Victorian period's most institutionally powerful artist Frederic Lord Leighton 1830-1896 As President of the Royal Academy from 1878 to 1896 Leighton was committed to the pursuit of beauty in art through the depiction of classical subjects executed according to an academic working method But as this book reveals Leighton's art and discourse were beset by the realisation that academic art would likely die with him Rather than achieving classical perfection Hammerschlag argues Leighton's figures hover in transitional states between realism and idealism flesh and marble life and death as gothic distortions of the classical ideal The author undertakes close readings of key paintings sculptures frescos and drawings in Leighton's oeuvre and situates them in the context of contemporaneous debates about death and resurrection in theology archaeology and medicine The outcome is a pleurably macabre counter biography that reconfigures what it meant to be not just a late Victorian neoclassicist and royal academician but President of the Victorian Royal Academy Dwelling(s) in Nineteenth-Century Ireland Heather Laird, Jay R. Roszman, 2023-10-15 What did it mean to have an Irish dwelling in the nineteenth century How did Irish people write about think about visually represent or imagine what constituted home Showcasing research from scholars based in Ireland the United Kingdom and further afield this interdisciplinary volume seeks to answer these questions by exploring the physicality and symbolism of Irish dwellings and the home as a place of repose exercise and work Using a range of methodological approaches including history folklore and literature this volume offers new perspectives on the material culture of home fictionalized homes social housing schemes suburban living spaces home and social mobility institutional living migration and memories of the home house and gender and eviction Rather than focus on the Big House which has already received considerable scholarly attention this volume foregrounds dwelling spaces that were especially vulnerable to economic forces the homes of the urban and rural poor Additionally the book acknowledges the importance to nineteenth century Ireland of a class that has arguably received even less attention in Irish scholarship than the poor a rising urban suburban middle class exploring their impact on housing and on cultural and leisure activities An Open Access version of Christopher Cusack's chapter Back into the old homestead The Irish Cottage in Irish American Fiction 861-1910 will be made available on publication Murielle James Kaye, 2004-05 I met a Lady Full beautiful a faery's child Her hair was long She took me to her elfin grot And there we slumbered on the moss Excerpted from

La Belle Dame sans Merci Keats 1819 Muriel is about artistic vision and sensual awakening the story of a young model coming of age while sitting for one of John William Waterhouse's most popular works of art La Belle Dame sans Merci 1893 front cover inspired by his model and based on the poem by Keats Looking at Men Anthea Callen, 2018-01-01 Beginning in 1800 Looking at Men explores how the modern male body was forged through the intimately linked professions of art and medicine which deployed muscular models and martial arts to renew the beautiful ideal This ideal of the virile body derived from the athletic perfection found in the classical male nude The study of human anatomy and dissection in both art and medicine underpinned a modern gladiatorial ideal its representations setting the parameters not just of normal virile masculinity but also its abject other Through the shared violence of human dissection and martial arts male artists and medics secured their professional privilege and authority on the bodies of others First and foremost visual this process has literary parallels in Frankenstein and Jekyll and Hyde While embodying signs of dominant power and signalling differences of race class gender and sexuality the virile masculine ideal contained its shadow the threat of loss of a Darwinian degeneration that required vigilant intervention to ensure the health of nations Anthea Callen's lively and intelligent study casts a new eye on contributions by many lesser known artists as well as more familiar works by Gericault Courbet Dalou and Bazille through to Eakins Thornycroft Leighton and Tonks and includes images that draw on photography and the popular visual cultures of boxing wrestling and bodybuilding Callen reassesses ideas of the modern male body and virile manhood in this exploration of the heteronormative the homosocial and the homoerotic in art anatomy and nascent anthropology How To Do

Biography Nigel Hamilton, 2012-10-22 It is not surprising that biography is one of the most popular literary genres of our day What is remarkable is that there is no accessible guide for how to write one Now following his recent Biography A Brief History from Harvard award winning biographer and teacher Nigel Hamilton tackles the practicalities of doing biography in this first succinct primer to elucidate the tools of the biographer's craft Hamilton invites the reader to join him on a fascinating journey through the art of biographical composition Starting with personal motivation he charts the making of a modern biography from the inside from conception to fulfillment He emphasizes the need to know one's audience rehearses the excitement and perils of modern research delves into the secrets of good and great biography and guides the reader through the essential components of life narrative With examples taken from the finest modern biographies Hamilton shows how to portray the ages of man birth childhood love life's work the evening of life and death In addition he suggests effective ways to start and close a life story He clarifies the difference between autobiography and memoir and addresses the sometimes awkward ethical legal and personal consequences of truth telling in modern life writing He concludes with the publication and reception of biography its afterlife so to speak Written with humor insight and compassion How To Do Biography is the manual that would be biographers have long been awaiting Flesh and Bones Monique workings of the human body and evoke wonder in its form For centuries anatomy was a fundamental component of artistic training as artists such as Leonardo da Vinci and Michelangelo sought to skillfully portray the human form In Europe illustrations that captured the complex structure of the body spectacularly realized by anatomists artists and printmakers in early atlases such as Andreas Vesalius's De humani corporis fabrica libri septem of 1543 found an audience with both medical practitioners and artists Flesh and Bones examines the inventive ways anatomy has been presented from the sixteenth through the twenty first century including an animated corpse displaying its own body for study anatomized antique sculpture spectacular life size prints delicate paper flaps and 3 D stereoscopic photographs Drawn primarily from the vast holdings of the Getty Research Institute the over 150 striking images which range in media from woodcut to neon reveal the uncanny beauty of the human body under the skin

Kornell, 2022-03-01 This illustrated volume examines the different methods artists and anatomists used to reveal the inner

Art and Culture in the Eighteenth Century

Elise Goodman, 2001 This study joins the resurgent scholarship presently redressing the neglect of eighteenth century visual culture since the beginning of the twentieth century This volume offers nine contextual and cross disciplinary essays that engage with a rich panoply of discourses ranging from art criticism to biography to collecting and the art market to art theory and practice and the institutions that shaped them to beauty and fashion sociopolitical and philosophical issues gender studies patronage iconography and print culture

Painting Dublin, 1886-1949

Kathryn Milligan, 2020-12-06 Delving into a hitherto unexplored aspect of Irish art history Painting Dublin 1886-1949 examines the depiction of Dublin by artists from the late nineteenth to the mid twentieth century Artists representations of the city have long been markers of civic pride and identity yet in Ireland such artworks have been overlooked in favour of the rural and pastoral Framed by the shift from city of empire to capital of an independent republic this book examines artworks by Walter Osborne Rose Barton Jack B Yeats Harry Kernoff Estella Solomons and Flora Mitchell encompassing a variety of urban views and artistic themes While Dublin is already renowned for its representation in literature this book will demonstrate the many attractions it held for Ireland's artists offering a vivid visualisation of the city's streets and inhabitants at a crucial time in its history

The Routledge History of Sex and the Body Sarah Toulalan, Kate Fisher, 2013-03-20 The Routledge History of Sex and the Body provides an overview of the main themes surrounding the history of sexuality from 1500 to the present day The history of sex and the body is an expanding field in which vibrant debate on for instance the history of homosexuality is developing This book examines the current scholarship and looks towards future directions across the field The volume is divided into fourteen thematic chapters which are split into two chronological sections 1500-1750 and 1750 to present day Focusing on the history of sexuality and the body in the West but also interactions with a broader globe these thematic chapters survey the major areas of debate and discussion Covering themes such as science identity the gaze courtship reproduction sexual violence and the importance of race the volume offers a comprehensive view of the history of sex and the body The book concludes with an afterword in which the reader is invited to consider some of the tensions problems and areas deserving further scrutiny Including contributors renowned in their field of expertise this ground breaking collection is essential reading for all those interested in the history of sexuality and the body The Making of Women Artists in Victorian England Jo Devereux,2016-08-10 When women were admitted to the Royal Academy Schools in 1860 female art students gained a foothold in the most conservative art institution in England The Royal Female College of Art the South Kensington Schools and the Slade School of Fine Art also produced increasing numbers of women artists Their entry into a male dominated art world altered the perspective of other artists and the public They came from disparate levels of society Princess Louise the fourth daughter of Queen Victoria studied sculpture at the National Art Training School yet they all shared ambition talent and courage Analyzing their education and careers this book argues that the women who attended the art schools during the 1860s and 1870s including Kate Greenaway Elizabeth Butler Helen Allingham Evelyn De Morgan and Henrietta Rae produced work that would accommodate yet subtly challenge the orthodoxies of the fine art establishment Without their contributions Victorian art would be not simply the poorer but hardly recognizable to us today The Nude Richard Leppert,2018-05-04 The Nude explores some of the principal ways that paintings of the nude function in the conflicted terrain of culture and society in Europe and America from the fifteenth through twentieth centuries as set against questions about human sexuality that emerge around differences of class gender age and race Author Richard Leppert relates the visual history of how the naked body intersects with the foundational characteristics of what it is to be human measured against a range of basic emotions happiness delight and desire fear anxiety and abjection and read in the context of changing social and cultural realities The bodies comprising the Western nude are variously pleased or tormented ecstatic or bored pleased or horrified In short as this volume amply demonstrates the nude in Western art is a terrain on whose surface is written a summation of Western history its glory but also its degradation Oxford Dictionary of National Biography: Tonson-Usher Henry Colin Gray Matthew,Brian Harrison,Brian Howard Harrison,2004 55 000 biographies of people who shaped the history of the British Isles and beyond from the earliest times to the year 2002 The English Heritage Visitors' Handbook, 1999-2000 English Heritage,1999
