As I Remember It:

As I Remember It Doris Johnson, Ray Imhof, 2005 As I Remember It is a fascinating account of daily activities of a family in the early 1900s. Esther grew up on the prairie of western Kansas. Having been born in 1914, she and her family suffered some of the growing pains of a new frontier. Hard work, perseverance, and humor saw them through. Her stories provide vivid insight into the pioneer activities of hog butchering, wheat threshing, and chicken and egg production. The humor shared with family and neighbors helped them endure the hard times. Esther tells of many incidents of helpful neighbors, a very necessary element for the survival of early settlers. As I Remember It All D. Statton, Charles D. Statton, 2010-03 As I Remember it Viola Dufresne, 2016-10-18 Viola grew up strong-willed, challenging herself to succeed while enjoying a good sense of humor, a love of children, an eye for beauty, and nature. She received her education in Manitoba Schools University of Manitoba in Laval, Quebec, and after retirement, she proceeded to study Fine Arts in Texas and Arizona. Encouraged by her husband Joseph Dufresne and family, they were very proud of her achievements. Her finest moments of her career were the 34 years teaching children. As I Remember It is a five-year recount, 1934-39, through the eyes of a child as to how a family survived the Dirty Thirties. As I Remember It Rick Nelson, 2012-06-11 The story of a small town boy who went out into the world and where he ended up for Maren. My Life as I Remember It Billy D. Smith, 2009-10-30 In writing my book, I tried to do the best of my memory and with the help of a lot of people to relate and have a true story about the things that we did as children and adults about growing up and living in a small town in Alabama. Even though times were hard then, I feel very fortunate to have grown up during that time and in that place. I believe that my life has been guided and protected by a Higher Being, and I thank God for looking after me and guiding my life. I also had some great teachers which I am thankful for knowing. Most of our teachers loved us and tried to help when they could to prepare for our future. All this gave me confidence to go into adult life and knew that I had my future in my hand and could make my life, and that I alone am responsible for my actions. I believe that growing up in Roanoke gave me the knowledge and background to have a great life for which I am thankful and I hope for many more good years. My Life - As I Remember It David R. Wilson, 2012-09 A mature, intelligent, everyday person Dianne Stewart has read My Life As I Remember It and Time Tested Thinking As It Seems to Me. Her succinct observation is I think both books are extremely valuable. One is the story of a man, his life, his ups and downs, and his abiding faith in an abiding God; the other, what this man has learned and experienced with that same God.

Written as I Remember It Elsie Paul, 2014-04-15 Long before vacationers discovered BC's Sunshine Coast, the Sliammon, a Coast Salish people, called the region home. Elsie Paul is one of the last surviving mother-tongue speakers of the Sliammon language. In this remarkable book, she collaborates with a scholar, Paige Raibmon, and her granddaughter, Harmony Johnson, to tell her life story and the history of her people in her own words and storytelling style. Raised by her grandparents who took her on their seasonal travels, Paul spent most of her childhood learning Sliammon ways, stories, and legends. Her adult life unfolded against a backdrop of colonialism and racism As Paul worked to sustain a healthy marriage raise a large family cope with tremendous grief and loss and develop a career and give back to community she drew strength from Sliammon teachings which live on in the pages of Written as I Remember It As Far As I Remember Michael Bawtree,2015-02-02 Michael Bawtree owes his cultured start in life to the rambling country house hotel his parents owned and managed in the 1950s What it lacked in income it made up for in style and in the quality of the guests who included dukes and professors as well as dozens of prominent names from the arts and academia from C S Lewis and Iris Murdoch to Sir Adrian Boult Unsurprisingly Michael quickly developed a talent for literature drama and music which eventually after he had read English Language and Literature at Oxford with Christopher Ricks as his tutor took him to Canada where he embarked on a career in the theatre As Far As I Remember is part 1 of Michael s story covering his formative years from a wartime childhood and years at a rural prep school to an education at Radley College where a close friendship with Peter Cook already on the brink of fame as a comedian and satirist helped to propel him towards a theatrical career The story of his later life as a prominent actor playwright and director in Canada will be told in Volume 2 As Long as I Remember Thecla Marie Duggan,2013-07-31 As Long as I Remember part one and two is the autobiography of an Australian life of a first fleet descendent growing up at Shooters Hill in the Blue Mountains near Oberon during the depression and war years After the war she marries Jack Duggan from Oberon Her sister Nora married Jacks brother Dan and they lived on a farm in Oberon Thecla and John set out to make their fortunes and establish one of the great Hotel dynasties of the Australian private sector Part One Here We Are and Part Two My very Green Years are for publication in this volume They cover her family background her childhood and her years leading into young adulthood There are many more volumes that she has written but they have not yet been edited for publication We are currently working on her second volume Some will not be released to me until after her death for personal reasons Thecla Marie is a 5th Generation Australian descendent of a Catholic Irish Convict the first Phillip Hogan and a Protestant Irish immigrant Hogan was transported in 1799 on HMS Friendship His crime was his involvement in the events leading up to the uprising He was the mounted messenger who carried orders and news between the cells He is still remembered in Irish Folk law today in the saying going like galloping Hogan The ongoing saga covers such detailed historical notations but focuses mainly on Theclas own life and upbringing in the Australian bush in a hard but loving environment of small tight communities At the age of 15 she leaves Shooters Hill and travels to teach in Sydney convents in the prewar years but her nonconformity resulted in her failing as a teacher During this time she taught herself shorthand and typing which led to her working as a stenographer at the small arms factory in Lithgow during the war years These years were filled with friends and lovers and the acquisition of a stylish wardrobe the latter often being her primary concern Following the war she struggles to survive in Sydney working at various city offices with her girl friends and residing in lower level bed sitters in the outer suburbs of Petersham Marickville and Redfern commonly known as the slums

Every time she found a nice place to reside in the city she was called back to Shooters Hill for the pea harvest by an obligation she undertook with her brother Bert before leaving the Hill She maintains her connection with home In between pea harvests she was able to travel and finds work in many different and interesting environment Her improved wardrobe and experience was leading her into a better and better lifestyle and finally she marries at the age of 25 and begins her married life with John Patrick Duggan Together they establish a large and famous family of publicans graziers and transport carriers Her stories are told in an amusing self deprecating voice as if she was writing to a friend Her descriptions are voiced in such a way as to make the reader believe they were actually there themselves and that makes for easy reading As I Remember Them Peter Isaacson,2012 My Journey As I Remember Darrell D.
