As Old As You Feel A Birthday:

God Gave Me a Rhyme Pat Harold Carter, 2009-03 Three weeks before he turns 18 Pat Harold Carter meets a Southern belle named Evelyn at Louisiana College and he is immediately smitten Under normal circumstances he would proceed with a typical courtship but it is 1944 and so he signs up to join the Navy It is better than being drafted as an infantryman he thinks But two years later and in ill health Pat is still in the Navy Evelyn now a junior is impressed with the cool young veterans who are enrolling in college Against all odds however Pat and Evelyn put faith first and decide to adventure with God They marry and their life becomes a poem full of truth passion and goodness Whether they are in New Orleans San Francisco Texas or in the northern desert of Mexico the couple never fails to learn the lessons of prayer and faith as they confront the evils of the world Take a journey with Pat and Evelyn and interpret their life as a poem of God written in rhyme with the life of Caleb the Old Testament warrior They never stop believing in God Gave Me a Rhyme Poetry Is Life J.A. Coppersmith, 2020-01-19 Poetry is more than rhyming words It is the thought hidden within the lines This book of poetry has wonderful adventures Love life and fun Some of the poems are insightful others are solemn and still others are just plain fun Ditching Melody Ruth G Juliano, 2017-08-28 Chapter One, An Anthology, 2013-07-08 Chapter One is as innovative and provocative a concept as the name implies The first section introduces the eight authors of the book to readers by means of an excerpt in the form of the first chapter of one novel written by each of those authors The book then delivers an anthology of short fiction containing stories as diversified and engaging as its writers The reader delves into stories that range from the life and death tension of battlefield action in Vietnam and World War II Europe to laugh out loud outrageous modern day satire A poignant scene depicting a suicide phone intervention at a crisis center brings the reader to the edge of his seat and a piece of historical non fiction takes him back into medieval times There are tongue in cheek peeks at crime family escapades eye opening revelations of foster care atrocities and inspiring hero's journeys Throughout the stories are well crafted examples of the fiction writer's art The broad scope of tales is balanced to hold interest and capture attention Readers will constantly encounter an array of talent to make them laugh cry reminisce or shake their heads in disbelief but each turn of the page they will spark the craving for more This is a book that is hard to put down a book to make you want to read on and on into the wee hours Authors Diane Barker Beverly E Kotch Dennis T Kotch Greg Lane Stephen Loomis R Duke Liddell Joan Vullo Obergh James D Robertson Keywords Anthology Short Stories Fiction Romance Crime Mystery Viet Nam Humor Long Island NY Writers A Time to Heal from the Soil Hattie Foster Soil, 2009-01-21 I have been writing poems for the past seven years After writing my first poem I felt that I had created a masterpiece but realizing that I was enjoying the energy that flowed from me I also felt that this is something I can actually do After reading my first poem I fell in love with the results and even got energetic about writing more I can create beautiful words from a single thought and find that writing poetry came naturally for me so I decided to write about my family I have done extensive research and found great great great grandparents who were born as Africans and found themselves as properties in America in the late 1700s They were kidnapped from their homes in Africa where life was easy and very promising and captured by other Africans for money and sold to Americans slave traders Before they were kidnapped they had heard of people being sold into slavery to Americans and vowed to keep their guards up One day they were kidnapped and transported to America in the belly of a slave ship They feared this unknown country America in which they will soon live The conditions on the ship were horrendous many victims of slavery committed suicide by jumping overboard as their mental state reflected their physical conditions They had very little to eat and were kept chained because of the slave traders fear the slaves could cause injury to themselves or to others thus hindering themselves to depreciate in value Once arriving in America they were immediately put on the slave blocks for all to view as these new slaves were auctioned to the highest bidder They did not understand the new language and were unable to practice their own cultures and lifestyles They were forced to live by the rules or the majority culture that benefited from free labor from the backs of my ancestors They worked in fields gathering cotton beans soybean and other miscellaneous items to get ready for selling or bartering at the nearby markets Even among slaves there was a certain social structure when it came to colors There was a discriminated between lighter mulattoes and darker skinned Africans The lighter skinned slaves worked inside the plantation the big house performing duties as cooks caregivers housekeepers and whatever the owners desired Whereas the darker skin slaves were forced to work in direct inclement weather sometimes from zero to over 100 degrees Most of the tasks they performed were field workers animal trainers carpenters architects and land developers Regardless of where they worked the slaves were treated worse than the family pets The owners of the slaves were often called master boss Mr or Miss This etiquette produced specific ways in which the plantation was operated If things were not done properly the owners would punish the slaves as if they were caged animals this would be severe beatings or even kill them While decades and centuries passed it was known that the education system was not designed for Africans and the new dark Americans Up until the 19th century the slaves relied solely on self education for their own intuitions and ideas They had many remedies for medicine Their menu consisted of eating parts of the swine that was considered spoils to the owners In the 1800s a small fraction of African Americans learned to read and write it was considered a crime if they were taught these skills Most slaves pretended to be dumb to protect themselves and their families Now I love reading those short stories and eloquent words about their lives and situations I also enjoyed the writings of many African American authors of the 1930 and the 1940s especially those who wrote about slavery something I can relate to them my ancestors The broken English and dialog is especially dear to me because this language I have heard all of my life Writers such as W E B Dubose Arma Bontemps Paul Lawrence Dunbar and La Shackles from the Grave Cynthia Lynn Stigger,2012-10-15 Sylvia is young beautiful and a single mother She is educated and smart but not smart enough to know when to release those shackles Now she is stuck with consequences that would lead her to taking on more than just love If only she had listen to her best friend Angel that was always pushing God on her But now she is stuck with a decision of either breaking the last two links in the shackles or making it a permanent fixture of her life Mothers' Know Feeyola
