Diversity and Decolonization in Teaching Russian Studies Thomas Jesús Garza, Rachel Stauffer, 2025-08-16 This edited volume is the first to address diversity and decolonization in teaching Russian language literature and culture For multicultural scholars and classrooms in both K 12 and higher education the editors aim to expand representations of Russian speaker identities and Russian speaking communities outside of Russia as well as the culturally and linguistically diverse identities of students and scholars specializing in Russian within the US Contributions provide concrete examples and philosophical approaches to present alternative ways to transform content and instruction in Russian Studies

Challenging the Bard Gary Rosenshield, 2013-07-08 In this book the author engages with the critical histories of two literary titans illuminating how Dostoevsky reacted to challenged adapted and ultimately transformed the work of his predecessor Pushkin Focusing primarily on Dostoevsky's works through 1866 including Poor Folk The Double Mr Prokharchin The Gambler and Crime and Punishment the author observes that the younger writer's way to literary greatness was not around Pushkin but through him

Turgenev and Russian Culture Joe Andrew, Derek Offord, Robert Reid, 2008 The present volume has as its central aim a reassessment of the works of Ivan Turgenev for the twenty first century Against the background of a decline in interest in nineteenth century literature the articles gathered here seek to argue that the period in general and his work in particular still have much to offer the modern sensibility The volume also offers a great variety of approaches Some of the contributors tackle major works by Turgenev including Rudin and Smoke while others address key themes that run through all his creative work Yet others address his influence as well as his broader relationship with Russian and other cultures A final group of articles examines other key figures in Russian literary culture including Belinskii Herzen and Tolstoi The work will therefore be of interest to students postgraduates and specialists in the field of Russian literary culture At the same time they will stand as a tribute to the life and work of Professor Richard Peace a long standing specialist in nineteenth century Russian literature in whose honour the volume has been compiled Stanford Slavic Studies, 1987 Dostoevsky's the Idiot and the Ethical Foundations of Narrative Sarah Young, 2004-11-14 Provides an innovative theoretical framework for an analysis that integrates structural and narratological considerations with thematic religious and ethical aspects by focusing on the characters interactivity as the most fundamental level on which the ethical systems of the novel are enacted Examines the questions of what ethical bases are put forward by the novel what faith issues and philosophical world views they derive from and how in terms of structuring and narration rather than simply thematically they are presented in the novel Through the concept of scripting the author shows how the ethical becomes the foundation for the narratological in The idiot Page 4 of cover

Poverty of the Imagination David Herman, 2001-09-28 The primal scene of all nineteenth century western thought might involve an observer gazing at someone poor most commonly on the streets of a great metropolis and wondering what the spectacle meant in human moral political and metaphysical terms For

Russia most of whose people hovered near the poverty line throughout history the scene is one of special significance presenting a plethora of questions and possibilities for writers who wished to depict the spiritual and material reality of Russian life How these writers responded and what their portrayal of poverty reveals and articulates about core values of Russian culture is the subject of this book which offers a compelling look into the peculiar convergence in nineteenth century Russian literature of ideas about the poor and about the processes of art Dostoevsky's Dialectics and the Problem of Sin Ksana Blank,2010-07-31 In Dostoevsky s Dialectics and the Problem of Sin Ksana Blank borrows from ancient Greek Chinese and Christian dialectical traditions to formulate a dynamic image of Dostoevsky s dialectics distinct from Hegelian dialectics as a philosophy of compatible contradictions Expanding on the classical triad of Goodness Beauty and Truth Blank guides us through Dostoevsky s most difficult paradoxes goodness that begets evil beautiful personalities that bring about grief and criminality that brings about salvation Dostoevsky s philosophy of contradictions this book demonstrates contributes to the development of antinomian thought in the writings of early twentieth century Russian religious thinkers and to the development of Bakhtin s dialogism Dostoevsky s Dialectics and the Problem of Sin marks an important and original intervention into the enduring debate over Dostoevsky s spiritual philosophy Dostoevsky Studies ,2000 Approaches to Teaching Dostoevsky's Crime and Punishment Michael R. Katz,Alexander Burry,2022-04-05 Offers techniques for teaching Dostoevsky s Crime and Punishment in undergraduate graduate and high school classrooms Topics include ethics gender money Orthodox Christianity psychoanalysis social justice teaching in prison and the use of digital media and film adaptations The Dostoevsky Archive Peter Sekirin,1997-01-01 Fyodor Mikhailovich Dostoevsky 1821ndash 1881 one of the greatest novelists of the 19th century continues to be one of the writers most focused upon in academia throughout the world With the recent opening of numerous archives in the former Soviet Union much new material has come to light that has not yet been incorporated in publishes works or standard curricula The Dostoevsky Archive comprehensively documents the entire life of the Russian novelist using contemporary Russian source documents the author s own letters and notes and those of his family and the memoirs of his contemporaries This fullscale reference work includes a detailed chronology an annotated bibliography and brief biographies of important contemporaries Fully indexed Word, Music, History Lazar' Fleishman,Gabriella Safran,Michael Wachtel,2005 Legacies of the Stone Guest Alexander Burry,2023-06-13 The story of Don Juan first appeared in writing in seventeenth century Spain reaching Russia about a century later Its real impact however was delayed until Russia s most famous poet Alexander Pushkin put his own unique and uniquely inspirational spin on the tale Published in 1830 TheStone Guest is now recognized with other Pushkin masterpieces as part of the Russian literary canon Alexander Burry traces the influence of Pushkin s brilliant innovations to the legend which he shows have proven repeatedly fruitful through successive ages of Russian literature from the Realist to the Silver Age Soviet and contemporary periods Burry shows that rather than creating a simple retelling of an originally religious tale about a sinful consummate seducer Pushkin offered open ended scenes re envisioned and complicated characters and new motifs that became recursive and productive parts of Russian literature in ways that even Pushkin himself could never have predicted

Conversations with Dostoevsky George Pattison, 2024-02-13 Conversations with Dostoevsky presents a series of fictional conversations taking place between November 2018 and Spring 2019 in the narrator's Glasgow apartment and elsewhere in the city. At the beginning of the conversations the narrator has been reading Dostoevsky's story A Gentle Spirit which concludes with a dramatic statement of protest atheism. This statement suggests that love is not possible in a purely mechanical universe in which all living beings are condemned to death and ultimate extinction. The conversations spell out Dostoevsky's response to this view and his advocacy of faith in God, Christ and immortality. The themes discussed include suicide, truth and lies, guilt, determinism, literature, the Bible, Mary, Christ, Dostoevsky and film, the woman question, nationalism, war, the Church, the Jewish question, immortality and God. In addition to conversations between the narrator and Dostoevsky, we drop in on a dinner party at which Dostoevsky is discussed from various points of view and in another conversation Dostoevsky is joined by the philosopher Vladimir Solovyov to discuss nationalism, the Church and life. We also attend a seminar on Dostoevsky, Anti-Semitism and Nazism and visit Glasgow's Necropolis on Easter Eve. The conversations in the first part of the volume are accompanied by a series of commentaries in a second part which contextualize the issues discussed in the conversations with references to his novels, journalism, letters and notebooks as well as engaging the relevant critical literature.

Dostoevsky and the Catholic Underground Elizabeth A. Blake, 2014-04-30 While Dostoevsky's relation to religion is well trod ground, there exists no comprehensive study of Dostoevsky and Catholicism. Elizabeth Blake's ambitious and learned Dostoevsky and the Catholic Underground fills this glaring omission in the scholarship. Previous commentators have traced a wide ranging hostility in Dostoevsky's understanding of Catholicism to his Slavophilism. Blake depicts a far more nuanced picture. Her close reading demonstrates that he is repelled and fascinated by Catholicism in all its medieval, Reformation and modern manifestations. Dostoevsky saw in Catholicism not just an inspirational source for the Grand Inquisitor but a political force, an ideological wellspring, a unique mode of intellectual inquiry and a source of cultural production. Blake's insightful textual analysis is accompanied by an equally penetrating analysis of nineteenth century European revolutionary history from Paris to Siberia that undoubtedly influenced the evolution of Dostoevsky's thought.

God as Love Johannes M. Oravec, 2014-04-19 The development and principal characteristics of Russian religious thought in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries. The theme of love in the manuals of the nineteenth century Academic theology. The birth of lay and ecclesial modern theology. The concept of love with the two founders of Russian religious philosophy, N. F. Fedorov and V. S. Solov'ev. The moralist school of theology. The mystical wisdom stream of theology. To ponder and to pronounce love in exile between philosophy and poetry. The theology of love in the perspective of return to the fathers, the neopatristic school of the twentieth century.

The Novel in the Age of Disintegration Kate Holland, 2013-10-31 Scholars have long been fascinated by the creative struggles with genre manifested throughout Dostoevsky's career. In The Novel in the Age of Disintegration, Kate Holland brings historical context to bear showing that Dostoevsky wanted to use the form of the novel as a means of depicting disintegration brought on by various crises in Russian society in the 1860s. This required him to reinvent the genre. At the same time he sought to infuse his novels with the capacity to inspire belief in social and spiritual reintegration so he returned to some older conventions of a society that was already becoming outmoded. In thoughtful readings of Demons, The Adolescent, A Writer's Diary and The Brothers Karamazov, Holland delineates Dostoevsky's struggle to adapt a genre to the reality of the present with all its upheavals while maintaining a utopian vision of Russia's future mission.

Facets of Russian Irrationalism between Art and Life, 2016-04-08 Russia is an enigmatic mysterious country situated between East and West not only spatially but also mentally. Or so it is traditionally perceived in Western Europe and the Anglophone world at large. One of the distinctive features of Russian culture is its irrationalism which revealed itself diversely in Russian life and thought literature music and visual arts and has survived to the present day. Bridging the gap in existing scholarship the current volume is an attempt at an integral and multifaceted approach to this phenomenon and launches the study of Russian irrationalism in philosophy theology literature and the arts of the last two hundred years together with its reflections in Russian reality.
