Disability Hate Crime Leah Burch, David Wilkin, 2024-09-16 Bringing together perspectives from academics practitioners campaigners and activists this book explores the victimology of disability hate crime DHC For the first time this book brings together recent academic thought the stance of those working for the United Nations to further the rights of disabled people and a helpful toolkit on how to advance the status of the disabled victim of hate crime Campaigners support workers and legal scholars present a tangential approach to revealing the plight of disabled victims and their associates The book will reveal the expertise required to understand experiences of victimisation and how to help reconstruct the lives of those affected by this type of violence Never before has a book produced such a nuanced and multidisciplinary approach to discussing disability hate crime This volume will be useful not only for those academically interested in how disability hate crime is perpetrated but also for scholars who wish to study how to raise awareness and lobby for change It is essential reading for those engaged with hate studies victimology disability and vulnerable communities as well as practitioners and campaigners

Witnessing the Witness of War Crimes, Mass Murder, and Genocide Manuela Consonni, Philip Galland Nord, 2023-07-24 Rethinking the concepts of witnessing and witness is highly relevant to the study of war crimes mass murder and genocide Through multiple readings the volume shows the meanings and functions of witnessing in a political and historical context marked by the emergence of multiculturalism The ultimate goal is the exploration of divergent and intersectional positions of the witness and witnessing as both concrete and hermeneutical categories As a result the mechanisms of social political and psychological oppression murder and genocide will become tangible and understandable with greater precision and finesse

Reconstructing the Criminal Martin J. Wiener, 1990 This ambitious and imaginative work interprets criminal justice history by relating it to intellectual and cultural history Starting from the assumption that policies and statutes originate in a society's values and norms the author skilfully and persuasively demonstrates how changes in criminal law and penal practice were related to the changing values of early mid and late Victorian and Edwardian society Wiener traces changes in the criminal justice system by examining the treatment of offenders During the Victorian period the system became more punitive and was then reformed in line with welfarist thinking Wiener's wide ranging discussion of issues most notably of free will versus determinism sheds light on a broad range of Victorian history beyond crime and punishment
