As Far As I Know Reminiscences Of An Aho:

The Complete Poetical Works of Lord Byron. With an Introductory Memoir by William B. Scott. With Illustrations [including a Portrait]. George Gordon Byron Baron Byron, 1874 Canadiana ,1983 The Seats of the Mighty. Being the Memoirs of Captain Robert Moray, Sometime an Officer in the Virginia Regiment and Afterwards of Amherst's Regiment Gilbert Parker, 1896 The Poetical Works of Lord Byron. Edited, with a Critical Memoir, by William Michael Rossetti. Illustrated by Ford Madox Brown George Gordon Byron Baron Byron, 1872 3 Years Among the Comanches (Memoirs) Nelson Lee, 2023-12-01 In 3 Years Among the Comanches Nelson Lee provides a riveting account of his experiences and observations during his time with one of the most formidable Native American tribes. Written in a straightforward yet evocative prose style, Lee's memoir intricately weaves vivid descriptions of the Comanche way of life, their customs, and the challenges they faced against encroaching settlers. This primary source not only offers valuable insights into the complexities of intercultural relations during the mid 19th century but also captures the tensions and transformations that characterized American frontier life. Nelson Lee, born in the early 19th century, was a soldier and frontiersman whose life experiences were marked by encounters with diverse cultures. His time spent with the Comanche was not just a personal journey but a catalyst for his subsequent work as he sought to bridge understandings between Native American and European American perspectives. Lee's unique positioning allowed him to articulate the intricacies of his relationships with the Comanche, illuminating their resilience and rich cultural identity amidst a turbulent historical backdrop. This memoir is highly recommended for readers interested in historical narratives that challenge conventional depictions of Native American life. Lee's honest representation of the Comanche people offers a nuanced perspective that enriches our understanding of American history. 3 Years Among the Comanches stands as an essential reading for anyone seeking to explore the complexities of cultural exchanges and the individual stories woven into the fabric of our nation. Ethics and Nostalgia in the Contemporary Novel John J. Su, 2005-11-24 Images of loss and yearning played a crucial role in literary texts written in the later part of the twentieth century. Despite deep cultural differences, novelists from Africa, the Caribbean, Great Britain, and the United States share a sense that the economic, social, and political forces associated with late modernity have evoked widespread nostalgia within the communities in which they write. In this original and wide-ranging study, John J. Su explores the relationship between nostalgia and ethics in novels across the English-speaking world. He challenges the tendency in literary studies to characterise memory as positive and nostalgia as necessarily negative. Instead, this book argues that nostalgic fantasies are crucial to the ethical visions presented by topical novels. From Jean Rhys to Wole Soyinka and from V. S. Naipaul to Toni Morrison, Su identifies nostalgia as a central concern in the twentieth-century novel. Memoirs of the Polynesian Society ,1985 Conflicted Pasts and National Identities Michael Böss, 2014-05-22 War and conflicts have always played a significant role in defining national identities, often with reference to events that happened centuries ago The role of passing on collective memories of these types of events has become even more complex in a globalizing world where new configurations of cosmopolitan memories challenge more locally and nationally based memories The many aspects of societies remembering and forgetting call for interdisciplinary studies Conflicted Pasts and National Identities Narratives of War and Conflict reflects this effort With reference to current theories of cultural memory it explores how memories of war and conflict are passed on from generation to generation how these complex processes have transformed and shaped collective identities and how they still inform national conversations The Bible class magazine [ed. by C.H. Bateman]. National Sunday school union, 1852 Thoughts on Art and Autobiographical Memoirs Giovanni Duprè, 1884 Personal Memoirs of a Residence of Thirty Years with the Indian Tribes on the American Frontiers Henry Rowe Schoolcraft, 1851 This is the autobiographical account of an explorer government administrator and scholar whose researches into the language and customs of the Chippewa and other Native American peoples of the Great Lakes region are considered milestones in nineteenth century ethnography After a childhood in Hamilton New York Schoolcraft gained attention for the reports and journals he wrote on trips west to explore mineral deposits in Arkansas Missouri and the old Northwest Later he joined the Cass expedition to the Lake Superior region where he served as an Indian agent in St Mary Sault Ste Marie from 1822 to 1836 During that time he continued to make regular exploratory journeys On one of these in 1832 he located the Mississippi River's source at Lake Itasca Minnesota From 1836 to 1841 Schoolcraft served as Michigan's superintendent of Indian Affairs and helped to bring about a treaty with the Ojibwa 1836 who as a result relinquished their claims to most of northern Michigan Schoolcraft's memoirs are noteworthy for their detailed geographic geological political military folkloric historical and ethnographic information Married to a woman of Native American background he was sympathetic to certain aspects of the Indian societies he encountered Nevertheless he saw the sweep of new settlers into Indian lands as inevitable and accepted as necessary the removal of Native peoples beyond the advancing boundaries of the United States Schoolcraft believed that soldiers diplomats federal officials and missionaries could do their jobs more effectively if they learned native languages and understood Indian customs These motives along with his literary aspirations gave rise to his explorations of Indian cultural life He discusses Indian myths and legends at length and talks about how he transformed them into his own Algonquian Researches 1839 the work that inspired Longfellow's Hiawatha Schoolcraft also corresponded or visited with Washington Irving Thomas Jefferson Albert Gallatin and many of the era's other leading intellectuals and details his conversations with them Personal Memoirs of a Residence of Thirty Years with the Indian Tribes on the American Frontiers, Vol. 1 Henry Rowe Schoolcraft, 1851 Thoughts on Art and Autobiographical Memoirs Giovanni Duprè, 2020-08-01 Reproduction of the original Thoughts on Art and Autobiographical Memoirs by Giovanni Duprè

Deep Waters Christopher B. Teuton, 2018-11-01 Weaving connections between indigenous modes of oral storytelling visual depiction and contemporary American Indian literature Deep Waters demonstrates the continuing relationship between traditional and contemporary Native American systems of creative representation and signification Christopher B. Teuton begins with a study of Mesoamerican writings Din sand paintings and Haudenosaunee wampum belts He proposes a theory of how and why indigenous oral and graphic means of recording thought are interdependent their functions and purposes determined by social political and cultural contexts The center of this book examines four key works of contemporary American Indian literature by N. Scott Momaday Gerald Vizenor Ray A. Young Bear and Robert J. Conley Through a textually grounded exploration of what Teuton calls the oral impulse the graphic impulse and the critical impulse we see how and why various types of contemporary Native literary production are interrelated and draw from long standing indigenous methods of creative representation Teuton breaks down the disabling binary of orality and literacy offering readers a cogent historically informed theory of indigenous textuality that allows for deeper readings of Native American cultural and literary expression

Close Encounters Beyond Shadows Lee D. Desormeaux, 2013-05-20 A candid collection of true tales of personal encounters and experiences and the conclusions founded upon them This work looks at first hand experience with both the angelic as well as demonic beings extraterrestrials and more During an awakening process into higher realities these true stories granted some ongoing insight into some otherwise not so known phenomena and yet also have been found to be those experiences echoed throughout history sharing as it were a similarity The secrets of the past in other words are alive and well today and so shall they continue into tomorrow for those who might look With logic and common sense attempting to back up the experiences and put them in a clear light this book aims to both provide a look into the paranormal as it is and also give some humour and ease with which these phenomena may be approached All in all and as the main message is repeated throughout it is experience that is king and not mere preference
