

The image is a composite. The upper half shows a city skyline, likely New York City, with several prominent skyscrapers like the Empire State Building and One World Trade Center. The sky is filled with dramatic, orange and yellow clouds from a sunset or sunrise. The lower half of the image shows a large crowd of people standing on a pier or a series of wooden pilings extending into a body of water. The people are silhouetted against the bright, hazy light of the sky. The overall mood is contemplative and evocative.

As Poetic As Life:

The Poetry of Life in Literature Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2000-09-30 Poetry of life in literature and through literature and the vast territory in between as vast as human life itself where they interact and influence each other is the nerve of human existence Whether we are aware of it or not we are profoundly dissatisfied with the stark reality of life's swift progress onward and the enigmatic and irretrievable meaning of the past And so we dramatise our existence probing deeply for a lyrical and heartfelt yet universally valid sense of our experience It is in great works of literature that we seek those hidden springs that so move us It is in honour of this search that this collection focuses on the creative imagination at work in literature and aesthetics

The Georgian Poetic Myron Simon, 2022-08-19 This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1975 Complex Pleasure Stanley Corngold, 1998 Complex Pleasure deals with questions of literary feeling in eight major German writers Lessing Kant Holderlin Nietzsche Musil Kafka Trakl and Benjamin On the basis of close readings of these authors Stanley Corngold makes vivid the following ideas that where there is literature there is complex pleasure that this pleasure is complex because it involves the impression of a disclosure that this thought is foremost in the minds of a number of canonical writers that important literary works in the German tradition fiction poetry critique can be illuminated through their treatment of literary feeling and finally that the conceptual terms for these forms of feeling continually vary The types of feeling treated in Complex Pleasure include wit the startling perception of likeness and the disinterested pleasure of aesthetic judgment Holderlin's swift conceptual grasp in which the tempo of the process of thought is stressed artistic imagination mood sadistic enjoyment rapturous distraction homonymic dissonance and courage as a mode of literary experience At the same time through the deftness range and surprise of its execution the book itself conveys complex pleasure The reader will also find fascinating hitherto untranslated material by Nietzsche On Moods and Kafka important sections from his journals and from his unfinished novel The Boy Who Sank Out of Sight

Dreams and Lives in Ottoman Istanbul Asli Niyazoglu, 2016-10-04 Dreams and Lives in Ottoman Istanbul explores biography writing and dream narratives in seventeenth century Istanbul It focuses on the prominent biographer A d 1637 and with his help shows how learned circles narrated dreams to assess their position in the Ottoman enterprise This book demonstrates that dreams provided biographers not only with a means to form learned communities in a politically fragile landscape but also with a medium to debate the correct career paths and social networks in late sixteenth and early seventeenth century Istanbul By adopting a comparative approach this book engages with current scholarly dialogues about life writing dreams and practices of remembrance in Habsburg Spain Safavid Iran Mughal India and Ming China Recent studies have shown the shared rhythms between these contemporaneous dynasties and the Ottomans and there is now a strong interest in comparative approaches to examining cultural life This first English language monograph on Ottoman dreamscapes addresses this interest and introduces a world where dreams changed lives the dead appeared in broad daylight and biographers invited their readers to the gardens of remembrance

A Literary Bible David Rosenberg, 2010-11-01 A stunning new translation the best in a century without a doubt of the Hebrew Bible that restores the creativity and poetry of the original text New Republic Whether rendering the Bible as wondrous or as strangely familiar David Rosenberg s brilliant and truly fresh translation forces us to ask again and at last in literary terms why the Bible remains a crucial foundation of our culture Booklist Until today translators have presented a homogeneous Bible in uniform style even as the various books within it were written by different authors in diverse genres and periods stretching over many centuries Now Rosenbergs artful translation restores what has been left aside the essence of imaginative creation in the Bible In A Literary Bible Rosenberg presents for the first time a synthesis of the literary aspects of the Hebrew Bible restoring a sense of the original authors and providing a literary revelation for the contemporary reader Rosenberg himself brings a finely tuned ear to the original text His penetrating scholarship allows the reader to encounter inspired biblical prose and verse and to experience each book as if it were written for our time

Imitations of the Self: Jiang Yan and Chinese Poetics Nicholas Morrow Williams, 2014-11-06 Imitations of the Self reevaluates the poetry of Jiang Yan 444 505 long underappreciated because of its pervasive reliance on allusion by emphasizing the self conscious artistry of imitation In context of imitation poetry the popular genre of the Six Dynasties era Jiang s work can be seen as the culmination of central trends in Six Dynasties poetry His own life experiences are encoded in his poetry through an array of literary impersonations reframed in traditional literary forms that imbue them with renewed significance A close reading of Jiang Yan s poetry demonstrates the need to apply models of interpretation to Chinese poetry that do justice to the multiplicity of authorial self representation

Exploring Catholic Faith in Shakespearean Drama David Torevell, Brandon Schneeberger, Luke Taylor, 2025-03-31 This pioneering study investigates the connection between Shakespeare and Catholic education Its authors contend that Shakespeare s plays explore Catholic understandings of human life in ways that remain relevant for Catholic educational institutions today Through chapters focusing on ethical and existential themes love desire the body marriage virginity evil finitude jealousy and lies the authors demonstrate Shakespeare s wide ranging engagement with early modern Catholic belief and practice At the same time they argue that Shakespeare s treatment of Catholic faith through imaginative literature rather than magisterial discourse and dramatically rather than didactically provides a pedagogical model for contemporary teachers The first volume to trace the relationship between a philosophy of Catholic education and Shakespearean drama it will appeal strongly to all those working in Catholic educational settings particularly those tasked with strengthening the mission of their institution as well as to scholars and researchers of literacy education religious education and to those interested in the dynamic between education and drama
