The Transformation of Southeast Asian Economies Teofilo C. Daquila, 2007 This book analyses the growth development and crisis experiences of the Southeast Asian economies in particular Indonesia Malaysia the Philippines Singapore and Thailand also known as ASEAN 5 The proposition is developed that the robust economic performance of the Southeast Asian economies during the past four decades has been attributed to the various factors developments and independent national policies which have been pursued by the individual member countries rather than to any regional economic framework The book covers eleven topics which is suitable for a one semester course on the economics of Southeast Asia Also it has a narrower area coverage as it focuses only on the five economies namely Indonesia Malaysia the Philippines Singapore and Thailand The sectoral treatment of the crisis impact and the analytical treatment of policy responses to the crisis differentiate this book from other publications on the same topic Finally the book provides an analysis of national developments policies and factors which have contributed to the economic transformation of the respective Southeast Asian economies

Asian Economic and Political Issues, 1998 It is predicted by some observers that the 21st century will be remembered as the Asian Century Many of the countries in the region seem to be able to take the economic and trade baton when one of the others experiences problems The region in general continues to grow economically politically and militarily The articles presented in this book examine the current political and economic situations in nations across Asia particularly focusing on economic developments ASEAN S Tiwari,2010 With the completion of the ASEAN Charter ASEAN needs to fully appreciate and work out the issues connected with its implementation It is also important for ASEAN and its business sector to understand and implement the two newly completed key integration instruments the ASEAN Trade in Goods Agreement and the ASEAN Comprehensive Investment Agreement 2009 and the business enhancing initiatives envisaged under them Both areas of work have taken on added urgency in view of ASEAN s goal of putting in place an ASEAN Economic Community by 2015 This is the first book which examines both the above issues the problems related to them and possible solutions Mr Tiwari is a legal authority on ASEAN This book is an important contribution to ASEAN law Professor Tommy Koh Ambassador at Large Ministry of Foreign Affairs Singapore The ASEAN Charter and the economic integration of the ASEAN nations that the Charter will support are essential to grow the competitiveness of the region Mr Tiwari provides keen insights into the development of this emerging framework and of the challenges that remain Phillip Overmyer Chief Executive Singapore International Chamber of Commerce I have known Mr Tiwari as a legal authority and a friend for over twenty years I would like to congratulate him for having chosen to share his knowledge on ASEAN law through this book Knowledge of the ASEAN Charter and the instruments underpinning ASEAN integration would be of immense benefit to people in the business sector as ASEAN moves towards forming an ASEAN Economic Community by 2015 Jennie Chua Chairperson Singapore International Chamber of Commerce Roadmap to an ASEAN Economic

Community Denis Hew Wei-Yen,2005 At the Ninth ASEAN Summit in Bali on 7 October 2003 the leaders of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations agreed to establish an ASEAN Economic Community AEC by 2020 It is envisaged that the AEC would be a single market and production base with a free flow of goods and services investments capital and skilled labour An integrated ASEAN with a sizeable market of over 500 million people could become an alternative to China as a regional production base for MNCs Although there are roadmaps for the fast track integration of eleven priority sectors an overall longer term roadmap needs to be formulated to realize the AEC This book addresses the main issues ASEAN Paul J. Davidson,2002 This book examines the various steps that ASEAN has taken towards economic cooperation within the region and examines them in the context of the developing legal framework as affected by economic and political developments Also dealt with are the various mechanisms for dispute resolution available in intra ASEAN economic relations In international law a hierarchy of legal frameworks exists and regional frameworks must accord with broader multilateral frameworks of which participants are also members This book therefore examines how ASEAN fits within the existing multilateral international framework for trade and investment Further to this the author analyzes on the one hand the role of the sub regional Growth Triangles in this emerging legal framework and on the other hand the movements towards broader economic cooperation in the larger region like the proposals for the East Asian Economic Caucus EAEC and for the Asian Pacific Economic Cooperation APEC forum      ASEAN-China Economic Relations Saw Swee-Hock, 2007 Examines the rapidly expanding economic relations between ASEAN and China in recent years covering trade investments economic challenges competition and opportunities in the various sectors of the two economies
