Border Killers Elizabeth Villalobos, 2024-05-14 Border Killers delves into how recent Mexican creators have reported analyzed distended and refracted the increasingly violent world of neoliberal Mexico especially its versions of masculinity By looking to the insights of artists writers and filmmakers Elizabeth Villalobos offers a path for making sense and critiquing very real border violence in contemporary Mexico Villalobos focuses on representations of border killers in literature film and theater The author develops a metaphor of maquilization to describe the mass production of masculine violence as a result of neoliberalism The author demonstrates that the killer is an interchangeable cog in a societal factory of violence whose work is to produce dead bodies By turning to cultural narratives Villalobos seeks to counter the sensationalistic and stereotyped media depictions of border residents as criminals The cultural works she examines instead indict the Mexican state and the global economic system for producing agents of violence Focusing on both Mexico's northern and southern borders Border Killers uses Achille Mbembe's concept of necropolitics and various theories of masculinity to argue that contemporary Mexico is home to a form of necropolitical masculinity that has flourished in the neoliberal era and made the exercise of death both profitable and necessary for the functioning of Mexico's state cartel corporate governance matrix Nuevo diccionario inglés-español y español-inglés José M. Lopes, 1887 Diccionario Maya Mopan - Espanol - Ingles Charles A Hofling, 2012-03-13 A highly valuable dictionary of the Mopan Mayan language providing introductory grammatical description as well as parts of speech examples cross references variant forms homophones and indexes Female Corpses in Crime Fiction Glen S. Close, 2018-10-10 This book examines the central significance of sexualized female corpses in modern and contemporary Hispanic and Anglophone crime fiction Beginning with the foundational detective fictions of the nineteenth century it draws from diverse subgenres to describe a transatlantic tradition of necropornography characterized by lascivious interest in female cadavers dissection morgues femicide and snuff movies Hard boiled and police procedural classics from the U S and the U K are juxtaposed with texts by established Spanish and Spanish American genre masters and with obscure works that prefigure the contemporary transmedial boom in corpse centered fictions The rhetoric and aesthetics of necropornographic crime fiction are related to those of popular crime journalism and forensic science television dramas This study argues that crime fiction has long fixated disproportionately on the corpses of beautiful young white women and continues to treat their deaths and autopsies as occasions for male visual pleasure male subjective self affirmation and male homosocial bonding Appleton's New Spanish-English and English-Spanish Dictionary Arturo Cuyás, 1903 Locality Domains in the Spanish Determiner Phrase M. Emma Ticio, 2009-12-03 Examining its subject from a generative perspective this highly detailed text deals with the syntax of nominal expressions It focuses on empirical data taken from the Spanish language though the author goes further to draw conclusions of wider theoretical interest from material culled from other languages too The book considers crucial phenomena in the nominal domain such as extraction out of nominal phrases and ellipsis in these phrases as well as their modification In doing so it provides the reader with a unified explanation of a number of phenomena that have not previously been analyzed under a single basic account In particular Ticio explores how economy notions interact with a number of functional categories with the length and type of movements allowed and with the existence of three internal domains within nominal expressions She uses these observations to inform her analysis of the structure of arguments and adjuncts in nominal expressions and of the potential these elements have for extraction To test the empirical adequacy of her analysis she employs phenomena such as the properties of attributive adjectives partial cliticization and nominal elision in Spanish nominal phrases The Serial Killer Files Paul

Simpson,2017-05-18 There are many myths about serial killers that they are all dysfunctional loners all white males only motivated by sex that they all travel and operate across a wide area cannot stop killing are all insane or evil geniuses and that they all want to get caught Of course there are some serial killers who fit into these categories but the married Green River Killer was not a dysfunctional loner there are plenty of female and non Caucasian serial killers Dr Harold Shipman was certainly not motivated by sex many serial killings such as the Ipswich prostitute murders carried out by Steve Wright happen within a confined area the BTK Killer Dennis Rader stopped killing in 1991 but wasn't caught until fourteen years later Many serial killers may have a low animal cunning or be street smart but few of them are Mensa level geniuses Each of the thirty cases covered here is unusual in some respect perhaps in the way in which the killer carried out their crimes the choice of victims the way in which they were apprehended or the method of their execution The cases are presented alphabetically by country from Australia via Colombia Great Britain Indonesia Iran South Africa and elsewhere to the United States and then chronologically They come from across history and from all over the world The author has gone back as far as possible to contemporary source material newspaper accounts trial evidence interviews with perpetrators or survivors rather than rely on the increasingly blurred truth to be found online and in far too many collections Bowker's Complete expression of characteristic aspects of humanity masculinity or our times Richard Dyer investigates this paradox focusing on the notion at its heart seriality He considers the aesthetics of the repetition of nastiness and how this relates to the perceptions and anxieties that images of serial killing highlight in the societies that produce them Shifting the focus away from the US which is often seen as the home of the serial killer Lethal Repetition instead examines serial killing in European culture and cinema ranging from Scandinavia to the Mediterranean and from Britain to Romania Spanning all brows of cinema including avant garde art mainstream and trash Dyer provides case studies on Jack the Ripper the equation of Nazism with serial killing and the Italian giallo film to explore what this marginal and uncommon crime is being made to mean on European screens
