The European Union and Asian Countries Georg Wiessala, 2002-09-19 The relationship between Europe and Asia is of increasing importance in the twenty first century The challenges straddling the two continents include immigration poverty environmental degradation terrorism drugs nuclear proliferation and internecine strife This book explores the significance of Asia for Europe in general and the EU in particular calling for a much more sophisticated mutual understanding George Wiessala analyses the existing Asia Policy of the European Union tracing its development over the past 30 years to the 2001 publication of the new strategy document Europe and Asia A Strategic Framework for Enhanced Partnership He also looks in detail at the importance of ASEM and at the relationship between the EU and the various regional bodies especially ASEAN The book goes beyond a practical analysis of the developing economic and political relationship between the two continents to explore cultural questions and possible tensions between Asian and European values Artistic and Cultural Exchanges between Europe and Asia, 1400-1900 Michael North, 2016-12-05 The European expansion to Asia was driven by the desire for spices and Asian luxury products Its results however exceeded the mere exchange of commodities and precious metals The meeting of Asia and Europe signaled not only the beginnings of a global market but also a change in taste and lifestyle that influences our lives even today Manifold kinds of cultural transfers evolved within a market framework that was not just confined to intercontinental and intra Asiatic trade In Europe and Asia markets for specific cultural products emerged and the transfers of objects affected domestic arts and craft production Traditionally relations between Europe and Asia have been studied in a hegemonic perspective with Europe as the dominant political and economic centre Even with respect to cultural exchange the model of diffusion regarded Europe as the centre and Asia the recipient whereby Asian objects in Europe became exotica in the Kunst und Wunderkammern Conceptions of Europe and Asia as two monolithic regions emerged in this context However with the current process of globalization these constructions and the underlying models of cultural exchange have come under scrutiny For this reason the book focuses on cultural exchange between different European and Asian civilizations whereby the reciprocal complexities of cultural transfers are at the centre of observation By investigating art markets workshops and collections in Europe and Asia the contributors exemplify the varieties of cultural exchange The book examines the changing roles of Asian objects in European material culture and collections and puts a special emphasis on the reception of European visual arts in colonial settlements in Asia as well as in different Asian societies Enhancing Asia-Europe Co-operation Through Educational Exchange Georg Wiessala, 2011-02-25 Georg Wiessala offers a critique of the ways in which intellectual and academic exchanges inform and shape external interactions with countries institutions and non state actors across the Asia Pacific Wiessala analyses ideologies mechanisms and policies through which matters of exchange and inter cultural dialogue have come to bear on the EU Asia dialogue European Studies in Asia Georg Wiessala, 2014-03-21 As countries across Asia continue to rise and become more assertive global powers the role that

Higher Education has played and continues to play in this process is an issue of growing pertinence Furthermore understanding the relationship between Europe and Asia fostered by historical and contemporary knowledge transfer including Higher Education is crucial to analysing and encouraging the progress of both regional integration and inter regional cooperation With a specific focus on international Higher Education European Studies in Asia investigates knowledge transfer and channels of learning between Europe and Asia from historical contemporary and teaching perspectives The book examines a selection of significant historical precedents of intellectual dialogue between the two regions and in turn explores contemporary cross regional discourses both inside and outside of the official frameworks of the European Union EU and the Asia Europe Meetings ASEM Drawing on extensive case studies based on many of his own teaching experiences Georg Wiessala addresses key questions such as the nature and construction of the European Studies in Asia curriculum aspects of values co constructed learning and adult pedagogy in the discipline of European Studies in Asia the politics of Asian host cultures the internationalization of Asian Higher Education and the experiences and expectations of tertiary sector students of this subject in Asia Australia and New Zealand In doing so the author articulates a range of outcomes for the further development of Higher Education cooperation agendas between Asia and Europe in the discipline of European Studies and in related fields such as International Relations This case study led book makes an original and novel contribution to our understanding of European Studies in Asia As such it will be of great interest to students and scholars of Asian Education Comparative Education European Studies and International Relations Asia in the Making of Europe, V.1 : the Century of Discovery D. F. Lach, A History of Christianity in Asia, Vol. II Samuel Hugh Moffett, 2014-07-30 This second volume of Samuel Moffett s acclaimed History of Christianity in Asia illustrates the advance of the modern missionary movement in the continent of its birth Like the first volume it makes available immense research in a readable and engaging narrative Moffett brings into dramatic relief events that illustrate both the broad patterns and the vital details of the spread of Christianity on a continent Asia in the Making of Europe. the copy of a Chinese original obtained through bribing and espionage the last covered in this book was the result of the largest land survey ever made until that time These two and another 125 maps depict sometimes uniquely sometimes copying each other a country whose images were so different that it was hard to understand which to trust This study reproduces and describes for the first time all the maps of China printed in Europe between 1584 and 1735 unravelling the origin of each individual map their different printing issues and publication dates It also tells for each the unique story that made possible these visions from another world stories marked by scholarly breakthroughs obsession missionary zeal commercial sagacity and greed For a presentation from the author related to the publication entitled China on Copper Plates The First 150 Years of Chinese Maps in Western Prints 1584 1735 see here A summary On June 23 2022 the fourth session of the academic lecture series on The Weavers of Four Dimensional Space Time and Their Creation on the History of Maps was held in the form of an online seminar at the Kuang Chi International Scholars Center Dr Marco Caboara an Italian scholar from the Lee Shau Kee Library of Hong Kong University of Science and Technology gave a lively presentation entitled China on Copperplate the First 150 Years of Western Printed Maps of China 1584 1735 The lecture was conducted in both Chinese and English Associate Professor Lin Hong from the School of Humanities of Shanghai Normal University served as the moderator and translator Dr Yang Xunling Deputy Director of the Library of Macau University of Science and Technology served as the main responder Professor Huang Yijun of Minzu University of China and Deputy Youth Associate of Fudan University Researcher Ding Yannan Dr Catarina Batista and Dr ngela Gil from the Library of Macau University of Science and Technology and Dr Zheng Man from the Free University of Berlin participated in the discussion Many domestic and foreign scholars and map enthusiasts listened to the lecture online The lecture lasted nearly three hours

Asia in the Making of Europe, Volume I Donald F. Lach, 2008-07-15 Praised for its scope and depth Asia in the Making of Europe is the first comprehensive study of Asian influences on Western culture For volumes I and II the author has sifted through virtually every European reference to Asia published in the sixteenth century he surveys a vast array of writings describing Asian life and society the images of Asia that emerge from those writings and in turn the reflections of those images in European literature and art This monumental achievement reveals profound and pervasive influences of Asian societies on developing Western culture in doing so it provides a perspective necessary for a balanced view of world history Volume I The Century of Discovery brings together everything that a European could know of India Southeast Asia China and Japan from printed books missionary reports traders accounts and maps The New York Review of Books Volume II A Century of Wonder examines the influence of that vast new body of information about Asia on the arts institutions literatures and ideas of sixteenth century Europe

Handbook of Christianity in China Nicolas Standaert, 2019-01-04 Who were the main actors in propagating Christianity in China Where did Christian communities settle What discussions were held in China concerning Christianity These and many other questions are answered in this reference work which is divided in a systematic part and analytical articles This handbook represents a true reference guide to the reception of Christianity in pre 1800 China It presents to the reader in comprehensive fashion all current knowledge of Christianity in China and guides him through the main Chinese and Western sources bibliographies and archives The scope of the volume is broad and covers a wide range of topics such as theology philosophy astronomy mathematics medicine cannon botany art music and more Amerasia Elizabeth Horodowich, Alexander Nagel, 2023-09-05 A connected world as imagined by early modern European artists mapmakers and writers where Asia and the Americas were on a continuum America and Asia mingled in the geographical and cultural imagination of Europe for well over a century after 1492 Through an array of texts maps objects and images produced between 1492 and 1700 this compelling and revelatory study immerses the reader in a vision of a world where Mexico really was India North America was an extension of China and South America was marked by a variety of biblical and Asian sites It asks further What does it mean that the Amerasian worldview predominated at a time when Europe itself was coming into cultural self definition Each of the chapters focuses on a particular artifact map image or book that illuminates aspects of Amerasia from specific European cultural milieus Amerasia shows how it was possible to inhabit a world where America and Asia were connected either imaginatively when viewed from afar or in reality when traveling through the newly encountered lands Readers will learn why early modern maps regularly label Mexico as India why the Amazonas region was named after a race of Asian female warriors and why artifacts and manuscripts that we now identify as Indian and Chinese are entangled in European collections with what we now label Americana Elizabeth Horodowich and Alexander Nagel pose a dynamic model of the world and of Europe s place in it that was eclipsed by the rise of Eurocentric colonialist narratives in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries To rediscover this history is an essential part of coming to terms with the emergent polyfocal global reality of our own time Asia in the Making of Europe: The century of discovery (2 v). v. 2. A century of wonder. Book 1. The visual arts. Book 2. The literary arts. Book 3. The scholarly disciplines. v. 3. *A century of advance. Book 1. Trade, missions, literature. Book 2. South Asia. Book 3. Southeast Asia. Marxism and the Question of the Asiatic Mode of Production M. Sawyer, 2012-12-06 Wherever possible in this monograph I have referred to English translations of works originally appearing in other languages Where this has not been possible for example with Russian material I have followed the Library of Congress system of transliteration but omitted the diacritics I have also retained the conventional use of y for the ending of certain Russian proper names e g Trotsky not Trotskii In accordance with the policy of using existing English translations I have referred to the Martin Nicolaus translation of Marx s Grundrisse which is relatively faithful to the text The Grundrisse although the Dead Sea Scroll of Marxism bear all the characteristics of a rough draft characteristics which are preserved in the Nicolaus translation The term Marxian has been employed in the conventional way in this book to distinguish the views of Marx and Engels from those of their Marxist followers In preparing this work I have received bibliographical assistance from Professor Israel Getzler now of the Hebrew

University and critical assistance from Mr Bruce McFarlane of the University of Adelaide and especially from Professor Eugene Kamenka of the Australian National University Professor Jean Chesneaux of the Sorbonne as one of the leading participants in the more recent debates discussed here provided me with some further insight into the issues and Professor K A Wittfogel of Columbia also supplied some valuable information
